Our Poets.

[This space is given for the use and benefit of our local writers of verse, and we hope to make it a pleasing feature of the paper.]

WHERE IS YOUR BOY.

The Oregonian asks, where is your wandering boy to-night? "Oh where is my wandering boy to-night? Sings a poet in plaintive song."

Cove Cullings.

Cove, June 23, 1887. Mrs. Hattie McDonald, after a week's indisposition, is convalescent. Farmers are getting ready to commence haying.

CARD OF THANKS.

I take this method of expressing my heartfelt thanks. To the kind people of Island City, and surrounding community, I can truly say, I greatly appreciate the kindly feeling and condolence manifested at this time of my great affliction.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has used Doan's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases.

THE YOUNG DAUGHTER OF WM. KELLEY.

The young daughter of Wm. Kelley is slightly improved at this writing, after a very dangerous attack of fever, lasting several weeks. The little sufferer has made a desperate fight against the grim monster, and all sincerely hope for her recovery.

SUMMERVILLE.

A Spicy Letter From Our Regular Correspondent.

The gentle summer heat is becoming somewhat more fervid. H. C. Rimhart, and Geo. Patten paid La Grande a visit on Tuesday.

R. McKenzie is building an addition to his already large livery stable. Mr. H. A. Myers is having his new house painted and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

Your correspondent got a glimpse of "Sally Ann" the Island City correspondent, on Sunday last.

An expert from Portland will look over the books kept by N. B. Harris, ex-cashier of the F. M. & S. Bank at Summerville.

B. D. Hubers and S. L. McKenzie returned from Portland on Sunday, whether they had been in attendance at the Grand Lodge of Masons.

A. N. Hamilton, District Deputy, organized a lodge of Rebekahs at Summerville on Monday afternoon and evening. Many Odd Fellows and wives participated in the same.

Quite a large delegation of Masons attended the funeral of the late M. Sterling, at Island City, on Sunday, June 19th. The procession was the longest ever seen on a similar occasion in this valley.

At the school meeting on Monday a special tax of $1,000 was voted to support a public school at this place.

Mr. J. M. Berry, of Island City, and Mr. McKennon, of Arkansas, paid our town a visit on Tuesday.

Mr. McKennon expressed himself as being highly pleased with our country and informed your correspondent that it was not altogether improbable that he might conclude to locate in our beautiful valley.

Who says that Waldeck didn't set up the cigars?—G. E. P. I sold temperance drinks only.—H. P. Will keep a stable table for the benefit of my customers—see advertisement of "Temperance Saloon."

Miss Lillian Seamons, music teacher in St. Paul's school, Walla Walla, has returned to her home in Cove to spend vacation.

Thomas & Bloom are hauling large quantities of lumber from the Indian creek saw mill to Cove. They fill all orders entrusted to them.

Dr. Willard, a retired physician, of Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, is visiting Cove acquaintances. He expresses himself well pleased with Oregon.

Mr. W. H. Foster, of the Cove, is lying very sick, and slight hopes of his recovery are entertained. The gentleman is eighty-one years of age.

Strawberries are beginning to ripen, and by next week will be on the market. The crop this year will not be very large, but the berries are of unusual size.

The heaviest down pour of rain in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, occurred last Tuesday. It was similar to a water spout and lasted about three hours. No damage was done.

Mr. Jno. Piny is having erected an iron turbine wind mill, which is calculated to supply his residence and grounds with an abundance of pure water. S. Burroughs is superintending the construction.

Good Cows returned from Cour d'Alene last week. He was accompanied by a horse buyer from Idaho, but finding horses scarce in this vicinity, they started for Walla Walla county, Monday.

The jury in the Saunders case found a verdict of murder in the second degree Saturday. Saunders murdered Charles Campbell at Albany last year, was tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree, and was sentenced to be hanged, escaped and was captured after some time, secured a new trial on a technicality, and now has been convicted again, but this time of murder in the second degree. The penalty is imprisonment for life.

If you want a fine pair of shoes or boots, call on Mr. C. Vincent, who has just received a large assortment of latest styles from the east. He will not be undersold for cash. Try him.

La Grande.

News of the Week—Social Notes—Observance of Children's Day—Impressions—Sawden Beach.

THE "BILGE-WATER" BLOKES. La Grande June 23 1887. Now the mosquitoes bite.

W. Gray again walks our streets. Snow drifts still gleam on Mt Emily. Horsepool now does his own slaughtering.

Mr. Ralston's little girl has the scarlet fever. Still they come—houses from the old town.

A. O. Porter starts next week for California. Walls Walla vegetables are now in our market.

Everybody is getting ready for the glorious Fourth. Hundreds of our citizens attended the funeral at Island City last Sunday.

A Temperance meeting is announced for the University next Sunday evening. Charley Paine died this morning of heart disease, was on the street yesterday.

The Presbyterians are now quite like other folks, as they also have a weekly prayer meeting. So much stone cutting on our streets for the new buildings makes our town seem quite city like.

Those who sit on dry goods boxes are beginning to enquire for something to remove pitch from the pants.

The band boys are talking of giving a free entertainment consisting of music, ice cream and strawberries.

George Beldeman is now in our city visiting his brother and looking for a job. Better stay with the old man, George.

No less than 14 buildings are now in course of construction in the second ward, most of which are of the first quality.

Jack Farrel seems to be having some custom as he was around trying to borrow a set of harness the other day.—Happy Jack.

Winnie Wilkenson is now teaching school at Stumptown, and the deputy sheriff is not quite so much interested in our delinquent tax payers as he was.

They say it is no uncommon thing for a neighbor to go to make a call there, and find that the house and family had that morning moved away.

Over four hundred head of horses were shipped through here going East on one train Monday. To take care of them, thirteen men were in attendance.

Baird's Minstrels performed last night, some of them are advertised as from London and they look as though the scent of the bilge water was still in their clothes.

Children's day was duly observed by the Methodists' last sabbath. In the morning there were speeches by the children. The Chapel was made quite attractive.

Last week we found Uncle Ben Brown packing up his household goods where he has been living in the old town, and when we asked him what he was about, he said "I am going to move out into the valley, for the settlement has got to thin here."

North Powder Nuggets.

Work on the E. Hager road has been suspended for a few days. D. A. Wiggins is boarding with Sheriff Hamilton, until after court.

The North Powder base ball club will play the Pendleton club, at La Grande, on the 4th. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hiltz, of Union, passed through town a few days ago, on a visit to relatives on Rock creek.

A wrestling match between Byron Vandecar, of North Powder and Jas. Pasco, of Montana, will come off on the 26th inst. at this place. The celebration at this place on the coming 4th, of July, that was spoken of in such glowing terms, lately, has played out. Everybody and their best girls are going to La Grande to hear Hon. J. H. Mitchell.

EAGLE COOPER SHOP. S. B. Ayles, manufacturer of butter barrels and kegs, has always on hand a good supply of the best quality and will sell them at reasonable prices. Give him a call at his shop, south of the school house, Union.

WALLOWA CITY.

A Rapidly Growing Town in the New County of Wallowa.

Frank Sholin will soon begin the work on his new house. Carpenters will soon begin on R. T. Stubbfields residence.

John Sholin has moved over from Alder and has his house ready to occupy. Mr. Whiteaker moved his house over from Alder and will soon have it ready to occupy.

Mr. Martin, of near Joseph, hauled the first load of lumber for his new house yesterday. Mr. Dwyne has his black smith shop about completed and is ready to do all work in his line.

The building for the printing office is waiting on the sawmill and if "all's well" will be completed in four or five days at least. Several very invigorating showers visited this port last week with very beneficial effects on the gardens and crops generally.

The school house will soon be completed, they having been delayed by the lumber scarcity. It is a large two story house and will be an honor to the city and county.

Messrs Conaway & Wilson's store building will soon be ready for the plaster. It will be a good substantial building and we are very anxiously awaiting its completion.

Business on "The Flat" has been quite dull the past week on account of the exceeding damp weather and the slowness of the sawmills in filling bills of lumber, for houses here, but several loads of lumber were hauled yesterday, and work will be resumed again soon we suppose.

Mr. Goodnough and several other influential citizens arrived here a short time ago and engaged a full block on Main street. They will immediately begin the erection of a large warehouse and as soon as the arrangements can be completed, they will erect a large brick store building. They have several tons of assorted goods already here and we understand several more on the way.

Joseph people and especially the Chiefain is very much agitated over the "alkali" on "Bennett Flat." But in spite of all that "pow-erful" opposition, we of "The Flat" will get there all the same as if there was nothing but boulders instead of alkali. And that too before some of us have "turned our toes toward the daisies." Do you mind that now?—Moby adon, "BENNETT FLAT."

Portland Stock Yards Report. Portland, Oregon, June 20, 1887. Demands for beef this week have been strong, as calls have come from the interior, and the supply being rather light, which gave considerable strength to the market.
