

Elgin Echoes.

Haying has commenced. Our town is still improving. Our hotels are doing a good business. Some of our people are courting at Union.

Business is quite lively. No idle hands. A great many travelers are passing through.

Mr. Corey and family, of Union, have been sojourning in our village. Mr. R. E. Stevenson's barn is receiving the finishing touches of paint. It is a beauty.

Mr. Owenby, of Willamette valley, brother of Powell Owenby, is reported as dying of Bright's disease of the kidneys.

School Supt. Hindman says he has visited the schools in this part of the county, and finds them well conducted and well attended.

W. H. Galway, of the firm of W. H. Galway & Co., has sold his interest in the drug store to M. J. Snyder, the other member of the firm, who will carry on the business.

The building known as the Elgin hall has been sold by the M. E. church to Dan Summers. The proceeds, after expenses are paid, are to go into a new church building. We will then have two churches here—both ornaments to the town. ALPH.

Try the new baking powder at Jones Bros. Only 35 cents a can. Warranted as good as any powder in the market, or money refunded.

Frank Bro's Implement Co., of Island City, carry the largest stock of standard implements to be found in Eastern Oregon. Their terms and prices defy competition. They always have on hand extras and repairs for goods they sell, which is a matter of great importance to the purchaser.

The ten acres known as the "Dan F. Moore Garden," in the town of Union, Oregon, is offered for sale, together with all improvements, consisting of brick house, gardener's house, hot houses, stables, chicken houses, hog pens, front pond, fruit trees, etc. The garden is under a high state of cultivation. For price and particulars, apply either to W. T. Wright at the First National Bank, Union, Hyde & Hyde, Baker City, or Wilkins Bros. & Co., wholesale dealers in Key West cigars, Portland, Oregon.

Nervous Exhaustion.

A Few Useful Hints For Nervous People.

"I am so nervous" is a very common expression, used by both old and young; and very few can now be found who are free from nervous troubles. We regret to see that the malady is rapidly increasing. And from what cause? There are various reasons. It may be because of a low condition of the general health; the vitality of the nervous system is depressed; or from a want of perfect digestion and assimilation of food, and the vitilifying power of pure, rich blood, the nerves are not properly strengthened and nourished, and consequently become weak and diseased.

There was a time when "nervousness" and that class of disease known as nervous affections, were apparently confined to ladies; but at the present day it is an undoubted fact that a large portion of nervous diseases exist among men as among the gentler sex; and their distressing effects and lasting and creeping results are a thousand fold more serious, as they extend to posterity and are productive of a weakened and enfeebled race. Nervous and physical debility, caused by

is a frequent and distressing disease, its depressing influence being felt alike on both sexes and all ages. Among the first symptoms of this affection are usually a derangement of the digestive organs. A loss of humor will be experienced, and a general falling of strength, with general weakness and pain in the back. More or less exhaustion is experienced on waking in the morning. There is often a bad taste in the mouth; the vision becomes dim, the memory is impaired, and the patient is troubled with frequent dizziness. Persons thus affected are often despondent, and suffer from gloom and depression of the mind. The nerves become so weakened that the least excitement or shock brings on a tremor or trembling, often attended by palpitation of the heart.

LADIES

Are particularly susceptible to nervous disorders, owing partly to their more delicate nervous organization, and partly to their sedentary life and consequent confinement indoors. Such affections are attended by restlessness and nervous excitement, anxiety or depression of the mind, loss of interest in society and the daily affairs of life. There is also loss of sleep; the patient on rising in the morning, feeling tired, languid and unrefreshed. From slight nervous attacks to hysteria, from simple "nervousness" to utter prostration, there are many and varied forms of disease of the nervous system none of which should exist, and of all of which can be cured by the use of

Dr. Pardee's Remedy

Which best stimulates the liver and kidney's to healthy action, regulates the digestive organs, and from the first stage begins its work of purifying and building up the worn-out system. It produces sweet and healthy sleep, enriches the blood, and imparts to the pale and sallow cheeks the glow of health, brings brightness to the eye and elasticity to the step. More real benefit can be derived from one-half dozen bottles of Dr. Pardee's Remedy, than from a hundred dollars invested in any other way. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other
