

THE OREGON SCOUT.

AMOS K. JONES EDITOR. City and County Official Paper.

Saturday, Aug. 13th., 1887.

At the late election in Texas the prohibition amendment was defeated by upwards of 100,000 votes. Such an overwhelming defeat was somewhat surprising to the prohibitionists, and certainly proves that the time had not come for such a move in that state and gives us a cue to what the result will be in Oregon next November.

An effort is being made by some of the leading democrats of Portland to establish a representative democratic daily paper in that city. Attempts at publishing democratic dailies have been made heretofore in that city, but the vitalizing force necessary to make them successful was lacking.

The Albany Herald-Discernator in speaking of woolen mills, says: "Other cities than Albany see and make use of the advantages of putting money into woolen mills."

A suit was brought in the Territorial Supreme Court at Salt Lake July 30th to eschew the Mormon Church property to the United States Fund of the Territory, as provided for in the Edmunds Tucker bill of last winter.

Washington Letter.

To the editor of the Oregon Scout. Washington, July 29, 1887. At the White House, the reception of the different delegations, who came to invite the President to visit their states, has been the order of the week.

On Wednesday, the Chief Magistrate, again received a delegation who came from Kansas City, to invite him to extend his trip West to that place. After a repetition of the speeches and applause of the previous reception, the President accepted the invitation.

The son of an ex-president, the venerable John Tyler, lies in a critical condition at his residence here. Mr. Tyler is suffering from partial paralysis, and from the effect of the excessive heat. He was overcome by the sun, one day last week, and fell in the street.

Gen. Win. McKee Dunn, late Judge advocate General, died at his farm in Va. on Sunday last. Gen. Dunn has been suffering for several years with kidney troubles, but over exertion during the warm weather, hastened his death.

The mortality among the very young and very old, in Washington has been very great and superinduced by the terrible heat of the last few weeks. The babies succumb oftenest, for out of a list of eight deaths in one day, seven were infants under one year.

The household effects of Oscar J. Harvey, the forger were sold the other day by the Marshall of the district under the pre-emptory orders by court. The sale will not realize enough to decrease the amount stolen by Harvey from the Government, to any perceptible degree.

some furniture and bric-a-brac. It is said he cultivated the criminal accomplishment of forging in order to indulge in his love for fine arts. He obtained his position at the Treasury it is reported, through a forged letter from Sam. Randall M. C. from Pa.

A New York dispatch says great excitement prevails among tobacco dealers and manufacturers at the present time, and that prices for leaf tobacco have increased from 50 to 100 per cent during July, and the end is not yet.

It was recently decided in the Supreme Court of California in the case of Alex. Thompson vs. William Spray, that the mining laws of the United States do not require a person to be over 21 years of age to locate a mining claim.

The swamp land muddle in Harney valley will probably be settled soon. Col. Elliott, on the part of the government, and Mr. Richmond on the part of the State, are now in the valley making a thorough examination of said lands, and it is understood that the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and the Governor of the State have agreed that this examination shall be final, and from which there shall be no appeal.

Volapuk, the new universal language, which consists of the best of over twenty tongues, but mostly from the English, is making rapid strides toward the Pacific coast. It is supposed to be a great improvement. We are in hopes that our politicians will familiarize themselves with the new language before the next election.

Governor Penoyer has pardoned J. G. Robeson, who has been in the penitentiary about five years for the killing of J. W. Robb, a lawyer at Astoria. Robeson had employed Robb as his attorney and left matters entirely in his hands, but woke up to the fact that he had been swindled out of everything he had.

FOR MAN AND BEAST!

Mexican Mustang Liniment CURES Scatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Sprains, Strains, Stitches, Scalds, Burns, Stiff Joints, Backache, Galls, Sore, Spavin, Corns, Contracted Muscles, Eruptions, Hoof Ail, Scurf, Worms, Swinney, Saddle Galls, Files.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accounts for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine. The Lumberman needs it in case of accident. The Housewife needs it for general family use. The Cattleman needs it for his teams and his men. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench. The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Pioneer needs it—can't get along without it. The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard. The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in his storeroom and ashore. The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance. The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble. The Railroad man needs it and will need it so long as his life is a round of accidents and dangers. The Back-woodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers of life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer. The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once. Keep a Bottle in the House. 'Tis the best of remedies. Keep a Bottle in the Factory. Its immediate use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages. Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.
