

The rainy weather the present week has delayed the farmers very much, and also prevented the ripening of the grain.

A petition for a road and a remonstrance against the same has been handed around this week for signatures. At last account the petition was ahead by about a hundred names.

There was quite a lot of excitement on Tuesday morning. It seems that a young fellow came into town on Monday evening and tried to dispose of a horse. His actions led some of our people to think that everything was not straight. On Tuesday morning he disappeared and went into hiding up the creek. Marshal Morelock determined to take him into custody and started in pursuit. Mr. J. H. Rinehart saw the fellow crawling on his hands and knees through the timber near his house and notified the marshal. A body of timber containing about 40 acres was surrounded by men and then the fun began. They closed in upon the young gentleman, but when they went to put their hands upon him he was like the Irishman, he wasn't there. In some way he gave them the slip. There is no doubt that he was a bad egg, and it is to be regretted that the officers failed to catch him.

The N. P. Ry. agents, East, have been instructed to sell through tickets over that line to Portland only by the way of Tacoma. This may be just and right, but the traveling public are not likely to see it in that light.

Judge Deady, of the United States Court, sustained the demurrer in the case of the U. S. vs Dan Chaplin et al, for cutting timber on government land. He held that station houses etc., were a part of the necessary railroad structures.

Some of the Linn Co. farmers have refused the right of way for the O. P. railway to pass through their lands. The road offered them $60 per acre for the right of way, but farmers think it not enough. Court will be held Sept. 19th to try the cases.

The Colorado Indian outbreak of the Utes is causing much more trouble than was at first anticipated. The Indians seemed determined to have a little spree at the expense of Uncle Sam's overflowing treasury. It is reported that Ouray, the principal chief of the Utes, has been killed. If this is the case, serious trouble is expected.

Sunday last, says the Centerillian, a fire started in the hay stack on Hank Vaughns ranch, and spread over about 800 acres before it could be checked. It consumed a long string of fence and 550 sacks of grain. It is supposed the fire started from some matches dropped by some of the hands, which ignited from the sun's rays. It was with difficulty that Mr. Vaughns house and barn were saved.

The people of Hawaii have adopted a new constitution which King Kalakoua has been forced to sign. The new instrument imposes very considerable limitations on the power of the king, making the legislative the real governing body. No subsidy or tax can be imposed except by consent of the legislature. The king cannot declare war nor organize any military or naval force without the consent of that body. The legislature is composed of 24 nobles and 24 representatives, sitting together biennially, its first meeting being next May.

A FATAL DELUSION.

The Fancied Security and Appalling Perils of People Revealed.

The eminent scientist and author, Dr Joseph F. Edwards of Philadelphia, relates the following wonderful experiences:

"During my term as resident physician in the medical wards of the Philadelphia Hospital, it was a common occurrence for an ambulance call to be received from one of the down town station houses. Upon reaching the place designated, we would be shown a man or woman who has been found unconscious on the street and supposed to be intoxicated. He would be removed to the hospital, where he would linger unconscious for twenty-four or twenty-six hours and then die. In a majority of these cases a post-mortem examination would reveal a most horrible state of affairs which I will explain hereafter."

"A lady in apparently good health, who rarely complained and then only occasionally, of some slight and transient ill feeling, as nearly every one does at some time or other, took a long walk with her husband, and upon returning home, feeling particularly well, went to her room to remove her bonnet, and while standing in front of the mirror, fell to the floor in a convulsion, followed by twenty-four hours of unconsciousness and death without a return to consciousness. A post-mortem examination revealed the true cause in a most horrible form."

"A young married man for years suffered from dyspepsia, for which he consulted many physicians. After suffering in this way, and having no other symptoms of disease, he awoke one morning to find a very slight swelling, scarcely more than a puffiness under the eye. In less than a month he was dead."

"Now the real and terrible cause of all these deaths was Bright's disease of the kidneys, and they might all have been avoided had the unfortunate victims known what a horrible malady was fastened upon them. But Bright's disease has no symptoms of its own. It steals into the system like a thief, and deceives its victim by showing the symptoms of nearly every other disease."

But what can be done? Take it in time. If you feel unaccountably tired; if you have peculiar pressing pains; if your appetite is uncertain; if your head aches occasionally; if your sleep is regular; if the fluids passed are profuse or scanty; do not delay, but use the best known means for escaping ague and death before it is too late. For this purpose there is a remedy, and the only one that has ever proven absolutely certain. Hunt's Remedy has never been equaled, and it is the only absolute one known to the medical profession. There are thousands of men and women to-day who enjoy perfect health who would be in their graves had it not been for this wonderful remedy, and there are thousands more who require it without an hour's delay. This is no idle statement, but drawn from cases which are a question.
