

Enterprise Items.

Enterprise, Wallow Co. Sep. 26.
Items of interest are at present, like money—very scarce and hard to get.
Warm days and cold, frosty nights, the kind of weather we are now having.
Our farmers are rushing their threshing through as fast as machines can be got.
Frank Shevlin was quite ill Sunday afternoon, but is some better at this writing.

The work on the brick store is progressing finely. The brick work will be finished in a few days.

The Shevlin boys will finish haying this week. They have a large amount of hay, and it is mostly well cured.
James McAlister and John Dishman started for Walla Walla with a band of calves. Prentice Homan and Henry Wright went with them.

Mitchell's mill will be ready to run in a very short time now, and will be greatly improved, and able to furnish a larger amount of lumber, of an excellent quality.

Enterprise has a blooded baseball nine—or ten, we don't remember which. They meet back of the meat market and practice every Sunday afternoon. They expect to challenge the champion nine of Chicago in a few days.
"BOO TROTTER."

CIRCUIT COURT.

But few cases have been disposed of as yet in the Circuit Court which is now in session. The only case that has been tried by a jury was John Farrell against Steve Wallace, in which judgment was for plaintiff. He was allowed $33. We cannot learn who will have the costs to pay, which will probably run up to six or eight hundred dollars. The case of State vs. N. B. Harris is now on trial. The full proceedings of the term will be published in our next issue.

Portland Stock Yards Report.

Portland, Or., Sept. 5, 1887.
Arrivals of beef for the past week have been fully up to the standard, both in numbers and in quality, there having been some fine lots arriving, a large portion of which have been sent to the Sound country. Sheep continue to become scarce, which has a tendency to increase the demand, as well as the price. Hogs are also in ready demand, there being numerous purchasers both for fat and for stock hogs. The horse market is quite lively at present, several shipments having been made lately, which have met with ready sale.

ARRIVALS OF STOCK FOR THE WEEK, ENDING TO-DAY.

Beef 560 head; stock cattle 21; sheep 390; hogs 254; horses 101.

EXPORTS FOR THE WEEK.

Beef 240 head; stock cattle 21; sheep 120; hogs 69; horses 59.

Quotations—Beef, 3 @ 34 c. gross; sheep, 24 @ 22 c. gross; hogs, 4 @ 44 c. gross.

J. H. RATHBUN,

Manager Portland Stock Yards.
Stock of all kinds sold on commission. Stock fed, transferred and reshipped.

To MEASURE HAY.—We believe for this country, where nearly all hay is stacked in long stacks or ricks, that the following army rule is the best we have ever seen. Find the length, breadth and distance over. That is, by distance over, we mean the distance in feet and inches from the ground on one side of the stack, up over to ground on the other side of stack. Subtract width of stack from distance over and divide the remainder by 2. Multiply this quotient by the length and breadth, which will give number of cubic feet in stack, and divide by 512, which will give number of tons.

AN END TO BONE SCRAPING.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box at Wright's drug store, Union, Oregon.

Treasurer's Notice.

All orders presented, and not redeemed, will be paid to No. 916, class 8, January 24, 1888. Interest ceases September 15, 1887.

E. C. BRAINARD,

Nervous Exhaustion.

A Few Useful Hints For Nervous People.

"I am so nervous" is a very common expression, used by both old and young; and very few can now be found who are free from nervous troubles. We regret to see that the malady is rapidly increasing. And from what cause? There are various reasons. It may be because of a low condition of the general health; the vitality of the nervous system is depressed; or from a want of perfect digestion and assimilation of food and the vitilifying power of pure, rich blood, the nerves are not properly strengthened and nourished, and consequently become weak and diseased.
There was a time when "nervousness," and that class of disease known as nervous affections, were apparently confined to ladies; but at the present day it is an undoubted fact that as large a portion of nervous diseases exist among men as among the gentler sex; and their distressing effects and lasting and enervating results are a thousand fold more serious, as they extend to posterity and are productive of a weakened and enfeebled race. Nervous and physical debility, caused by

Exhausted Vitality

is a frequent and distressing disease, its depressing influence being felt alike on both sexes and all ages. Among the first symptoms of this affection are usually a derangement of the digestive organs. A feeling of languor will be experienced, and a gradual falling of strength, with general weakness and pain in the back. More or less exhaustion is experienced on waking in the morning. There is often a bad taste in the mouth; the vision becomes dim; the memory is impaired, and the patient is troubled with frequent dizziness. Persons thus affected are often despondent, and suffer from gloom and depression of the mind. The nerves become so weakened that the least excitement or shock brings on a tremor or trembling, often attended by palpitation of the heart.

LADIES

Are particularly susceptible to nervous disorders, owing partly to their more delicate nervous organization and partly to their sedentary life and consequent confinement in doors. Such affections are attended by restlessness and nervous excitement, anxiety or depression of the mind, loss of interest in society and the daily affairs of life. There is also loss of sleep; the patient on rising in the morning, feeling tired, languid and unrefreshed. From slight nervous attacks to hysteria, from simple "nervousness" to utter prostration, there are many and varied forms of diseases of the nervous system none of which should exist, and of all of which can be cured by the use of

Dr. Pardee's Remedy

Which first stimulates the liver and kidney's to healthy action, regulates the digestive organs, and from the first dose begins its work of purifying and building up the worn-out system. It produces sweet and healthy sleep, enriches the blood, and imparts to the pale and sallow cheeks the glow of health, brings brightness to the eye and elasticity to the step. More real benefit can be derived from one half dozen bottles of Dr. Pardee's Remedy, than from a hundred dollars invested in any other way. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other.
