Continued from first page. appealed from the state courts to the supreme court of the United States is considered by some to be an alarming tendency that may necessitate almost a complete revolution in American jurisprudence. It is especially feared that wealthy criminals may avail themselves of this facility to virtually block the wheels of justice, for ordinarily the supreme court is three years behind its business.

Many of the cases now before the court are of the gravest importance, particularly the liquor trials from Kansas, Iowa and Georgia, which involve the constitutionality of state prohibition, and the question whether or not the states are peculiarly responsible for the destruction of the business of the liquor dealers; the cases of the Chicago Anarchists now being argued, and which will probably be decided long before this letter reaches its destination; and lastly, the Virginia contempt cases, which are set for hearing in November.

Many of the congressmen who are now seeking quarters for the coming winter find it difficult, as the saying goes, to "make both ends meet," as good living and house rent are high in Washington, thus congressmen whose incomes are limited must either conserve all their salary on current expenses, or forego the pleasures and triumphs of the Capital's gay social life. On the other hand, most of the wealthy members do not calculate on saving anything out of their salaries. J. H. C.

AN END TO BONE SCRAPING. Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box at Wright's drug store, Union, Oregon.

WHAT AM I TO DO? The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappy but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and Diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

<ALPINE HOTEL,> Cornucopia, Union county, Or. R. C. WARINNER, - - - - - Prop'r. The only first class house in the camp. No pains spared to make guests comfortable. Charges Reasonable. FOR MAN AND BEAST! Mexican Mustang Liniment

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine. The Lumberman needs it in case of accident. The Housewife needs it for general family use. The Cannier needs it for his teams and his men. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench. The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Farmer needs it--can't get along without it. The Fursurer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard. The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply aboard and ashore. The Horse-fancier needs it--it is his best friend and safest reliance. The Stock-grower needs it--it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble. The Railroad man needs it and will need it so long as his life is a round of accidents and dangers. The Backwoodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer. The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once. Keep a Bottle in the House. 'Tis the best of economy. Keep a Bottle in the Factory. Its immediate use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages. Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.

MILLI Dr. PARDEE'S is The Greatest Blood Cleanser. Cures Spring Humors, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Gicatica, Rheumatism, AND Constipation AND REGULATES THE Kidneys & Liver.

One bottle taken according to directions will give better results than a gallon of Sarsaparilla, or any of the so-called Blood Purifiers with which the market is glutted! At Druggists, price $1.00 per bottle. $500 REWARD will be paid for any case of Rheumatism, which Dr. Pardee's Remedy, properly administered, fails to relieve. Nervous Exhaustion.

A Few Useful Hints For Nervous People. "I am so nervous" is a very common expression, used by both old and young; and very few can now be found who are free from nervous troubles. We regret to see that the malady is rapidly increasing. And from what cause? There are various reasons. It may be because of a low condition of the general health; the vitality of the nervous system is depressed; or from a want of perfect digestion and assimilation of food, and the vitilizing power of pure, rich blood, the nerves are not properly strengthened and nourished, and consequently become weak and diseased.

There was a time when "nervousness," and that class of disease known as nervous affections, were apparently confined to ladies; but at the present day it is an undoubted fact that as large a portion of nervous diseases exist among men as among the gentler sex; and their distressing effects and lasting and enervating results are a thousand fold more serious, as they extend to posterity and are productive of a weakened and enfeebled race. Nervous and physical debility, caused by Exhausted Vitality is a frequent and distressing disease, its depressing influence being felt alike on both sexes and all ages. Among the first symptoms of this affection are usually a derangement of the digestive organs. A feeling of languor will be experienced, and a gradual failing of strength, with general weakness and pain in the back. More or less exhaustion is experienced on waking in the morning. There is often a bad taste in the mouth; the vision becomes dim, the memory is impaired, and the patient is troubled with frequent dizziness. Persons thus affected are often despondent, and suffer from gloom and depression of the mind. The nerves become so weakened that the least excitement or shock brings on a tremor or trembling, often attended by palpitation of the heart.

LADIES Are particularly susceptible to nervous disorders, owing partly to their more delicate nervous organization and partly to their sedentary life and consequent confinement in-doors. Such affections are attended by restlessness and nervous excitement, anxiety or depression of the mind, loss of interest in society and the daily affairs of life. There is also loss of sleep; the patient on rising in the morning, feeling tired, languid and unrefreshed. From slight nervous attacks to hysteria, from simple "nervousness" to utter prostration, there are many and varied forms of disease of the nervous system none of which should exist, and all of which can be cured by the use of Dr. Pardee's Remedy

Which first stimulates the liver and kidney's to healthy action, regulates the digestive organs, and from the first dose begins its work of purifying and building up the worn-out system. It produces sweet and healthy sleep, enriches the blood, and imparts to the pale and sallow cheeks the glow of health, brings brightness to the eye and elasticity to the step. More real benefit can be derived from one half dozen bottles of Dr. Pardee's Remedy, than from a hundred dollars invested in any other way. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other.
