Weather getting "too utterly cold." Eccles & Co's saw mill has shut down for the season.

Mrs. Ben Macho has been rather under the weather for a few days past, but at present is improving.

Our citizens are busy hauling wood, making winter preparations, and settling down to a business-like basis.

Pyle canyon school is flourishing. Mr. Becker is proving himself a proficient teacher.

Mr. J. E. Yowell returned from the Cove a few days ago, where he has been baling hay.

Born—To the wife of C. F. Miller, Dec. 3rd, 1887, an eight pound boy.

The slight fall of snow the first of the week seemed to bring our sheep men to a proper sense of their condition.

Mr. Shannon Marshall, of Big creek, passed through our burg, one day last week, driving a fine young stallion.

THE COVE.

A Synopsis of the News of the Week. Prepared expressly for the Readers of The Scout.

December 7, 1887. J. O. Smith, the omnipresent millwright, has deserted the valley and gone east on a visit among friends and relatives.

Preparations are going on to have a fine Christmas tree for the Sunday school scholars, Christmas eve.

E. T. Foster started for Enterprise, Tuesday, on business, and expects to be absent about a week to the interesting region of milk and honey.

Frank Bloom has rented the Wm. Makin farm on the Sand Ridge and has moved thereupon.

The mail stage broke an axle last Monday near John Boyd's. Another conveyance was soon procured and the arrival of the mail delayed only a short time.

Tuesday was a wet day. There has not been such a downfall since the time a prominent heavy man came near drowning a well known dairyman—all citizens of Cove.

The Indian creek saw mill was sold at sheriff's sale last Monday.

Jack Thomas and Jake Conner, Jr., have moved their wickens into the virgin woods and will while the time away this winter turning timber into rails and cord wood.

John Wagner, the dairyman, has built an addition to his house. It adds much to the appearance of the residence as well as to the convenience, and will be appreciated in a case of emergency.

The aspirants for teacher's certificates who attended the examination at La Grande last week, from Cove, were successful.

Miss Holtby has accepted a school in the Tuttle district and commenced teaching last Monday.

The Cove ninners thank Lana Tick, of Island, for his pleasant items last week concerning their skill.

They say there will be need for a hospital for the treatment of direct descendants of Balaam's beast if they catch L. T. in the vicinity of the Big Lake.

It is whispered in town that the editor of the SCOUT learned all particulars of the alleged recent robbing of the mails, from our fellow townsman, Hon. C. M. Jameson.

A full account of the affair is anxiously looked for in the next issue of the mentioned popular paper.

Mr. A. T. Wright stole up to Union one day last week and returned with a blushing bride.

The lady before the happy event was Miss —, of Colorado, from whence she had just arrived.

A sister of the bride came up from Portland and is visiting her relatives in Cove a few days.

Died.—In Lower Cove, Dec. 1st, Anna Duncan, beloved wife of Wesley Duncan.

The deceased was born in Pike county, Illinois, June 24th, 1858, and with her parents moved to Johnson county, Missouri, in Sept. 1868, where her marriage occurred Sept. 10, 1878.

The next year she and husband moved to Oregon. Mr. Duncan has the entire sympathy of the community.

I wonder why it is that a certain merry bachelor living not many miles northwest of town is not seen on our streets as often as formerly.

—E. A. H. Corn meal is scarce and hard to get sometimes.—A. C. Those were fine Havanas we smoked with the compliments of the latest wedded couple.—The boys. Let us go down and get one of them, no telling how long before we will have to set 'em up.

—W. H. Lost, on the road between Cove and Union, the night of the show, one Sunday hat. Twenty dollars reward will be paid for the return of same in good repair at Union nurseries.—J. G.

Why buy from migrating agents of whom you know nothing, either of their responsibility or the character of their goods, when there are responsible dealers located near you, who carry full and complete lines of all farm and mill machinery and implements, and whose success it is for your best interests to support with your patronage?

NORTH POWDER.

Discovery of Gold Near the Town. Local Improvements. Notes.

Dec. 7th 1887. The prodigal has returned. Hog-killing is in full blast.

Winter has come in earnest. Hall Ramsey & Co. have closed their mill for the present.

Wm. Forsey has sold his Clover creek farm to Wm. Cusick.

Another turkey shooting match yesterday; but no lights or fines.

The buggy-man has sold several vehicles in this neighborhood this fall.

Master Adolphy and Miss Clara Parker are attending school at Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Parker will spend the winter in the milder climate of southern California.

Gold has been found in paying rock, in the hills west of town, between Wolf creek and North Powder river.

E. C. and H. M. Hughes have sold out their entire interests here, and have gone to Portland their former home.

The O. R. & N. Co. has a large force of men employed here, in cutting and loading ice for the La Grande station.

They say it will take about one hundred car loads.

Surveyor J. W. Kimbrell has been compelled to cease operations for the present on account of the severe weather, leaving quite a number of engagements unfulfilled.

H. O. Gorham, of the firm of Gorham & Rothchild, has purchased the fine residence and furniture of H. M. Hughes, and is now a permanent resident of this place.

Mrs. H. Norman, a former resident of Union, who for the past several years has been living in Washington Territory, arrived here a few days ago to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Kimbrell.

Our district school has been suspended for an indefinite time, for fear the diphtheria would get among the scholars, as Mr. Smith, whose little daughter died of that dread disease last week, has moved his family into town.

C. M. Kellogg, of Baker City, has a corps of engineers here surveying for a mill race on Anthony creek, and the location for a flume from the mill site to the railroad, in which to float down their lumber.

When completed it will be one of the best paying investments in this valley.

YANK.

BRACE UP.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fretful, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to BRACE UP.

Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before.

What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength.

Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at Wright's drug store, Union, Oregon.

Frank Bro's Implement Co., of Island City, carry the largest stock of standard implements to be found in Eastern Oregon.

Their terms and prices defy competition. They always have on hand extras and repairs for goods they sell, which is a matter of great importance to the purchaser.

Montana has not had a business failure this year. It has been built 800 miles of railroad. Gold, silver and copper has been taken out to the amount of $26,000,000.

It produced more than one-half the copper produced in the United States. Its stock interests are already immense, and increasing.

For refusing to obey an injunction issued by a judge, the mayor and ten members of the city council of Lincoln, Nebraska, have been arrested and put in jail for contempt of court.

At Oakland, Illinois, a supposed dead woman who had been drowned and put in her coffin, awoke and gave birth to a healthy male child. Both are doing well.
