Nervous Exhaustion.

A Few Useful Hints For Nervous People.

"I am so nervous" is a very common expression, used by both old and young; and very few can now be found who are free from nervous troubles. We regret to see that the malady is rapidly increasing. And from what cause? There are various reasons. It may be because of a low condition of the general health; the vitality of the nervous system is depressed; or from a want of perfect digestion and assimilation of food and the vitilizing power of pure rich blood, the nerves are not properly strengthened and nourished, and consequently become weak and diseased.

There was a time when "nervousness," and that class of disease known as nervous affections, were apparently confined to ladies; but at the present day it is an undoubted fact that a large portion of nervous diseases exist among men as among the gentler sex, and held distressing affects and lasting and enervating results are a thousand old men, as they extend to posterity and are productive of a weakened and enervated man. Nervous and physical debility, caused by

Exhausted Vitality

Is a frequent and distressing disease, its depressing influence being felt alike on both sexes and all ages. Among the first symptoms of this affection are usually a derangement of the digestive organs. A feeling of languor will be experienced, and a gradual fading of strength, with general weakness and pain in the back. More or less exhaustion is experienced on waking in the morning. There is often a bad taste in the mouth, the vision becomes dim, the memory is impaired, and the patient is troubled with frequent dizziness. Persons thus affected are often despondent, and suffer from gloom and depression of the mind. The nerves become weakened that the least excitement or shock brings on a tremor or trembling, often attended by palpitation of the heart.

LADIES

Are particularly susceptible to nervous disorders, owing partly to their more delicate nervous organization and partly to their sedentary life and consequent confinement indoors. Such affections are attended by restlessness and nervous excitement, anxiety or depression of the mind, loss of interest in society and the daily affairs of life. There is also loss of sleep; the patient on rising in the morning, feeling tired, languid and unrefreshed. From slight nervous attacks to hysteria, from simple "nervousness" to utter prostration, there are many and varied forms of diseases of the nervous system none of which should exist, and of all of which can be cured by the use of

Dr. Pardee's Remedy

Which first stimulates the liver and kidney to healthy action, regulates the digestive organs, and from the first dose begins its work of purifying and building up the worn-out system. It produces sweet and healthy sleep, enriches the blood, and imparts to the pale and sallow cheeks the glow of health, brings brightness to the eye and elasticity to the step. More real benefit can be derived from one half dozen bottles of Dr. Pardee's Remedy, than from a hundred dollars invested in any other way. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other.

RESOLUTIONS.

Adopted by the P. R. F. A. of Cornucopia, Jan. 24, at a Recent Meeting.

The committee on resolutions, appointed at the regular meeting of the Pioneer Relief Fund Association, held on Monday December 5th, 1887, reported the following: WHEREAS: The P. R. F. Ass'n. with a view of advancing the usefulness of their institution and increasing their means and facilities of relief, have decided to erect a hospital in the midst of our mining camp, and to attain that purpose have organized a series of festivals for the purpose of raising funds to be applied to the building and furnishing of said hospital, and

WHEREAS: A call was issued to secure the co-operation and aid of our fellow-citizens and sympathizers of Union county, and

WHEREAS: The people of Union, Pine Valley, Eagle Valley, and other places have answered to this call with an alacrity and a good will, beyond our most sanguine expectations, at a time of the year when traveling is rendered difficult by the bad condition of the roads, the inclemency of the weather and consequently is a cause of hardship for travelers, and

WHEREAS: The Silver Cornet Band of Union, wishing to show us their friendship, and desiring to co-operate in building of such a worthy institution as a hospital, have, without warning, taken possession of our camp on the eve of the festivities, and had the honor of being the musical pioneers in our mining district, and also without regard to their own convenience or health, have delighted the people of our camp with a beautiful harmony, skillfully rendered, and

WHEREAS: The ladies of Union, have, without regard to discomfort, accompanied their husbands on their benevolent journey, and by their grace and kindness given to our festival a brilliancy and lustre that will forever be a cause of congratulations and thanksgiving by our pioneers, and

WHEREAS: The people of Pine and Eagle Valleys have, in a neighborly feeling, deserted their homes and invaded our camp on the 24th of November, bringing with them their families, and by their enthusiasm have shown the hearty part that they were taking in the aims and purposes of our association, and

WHEREAS: The officials of our county, the business men, and the people have with generosity contributed to the success of the festival by presenting prizes for the lottery, and helping your committee in disposing of numerous ball and lottery tickets. Therefore be it

Resolved: That it is with hearts full of gratitude that we send our warm and sincere thanks to all for the courtesies, co-operation and friendship extended to our association on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24th, 1887. And it is with deep feelings of the importance of the disinterested aid tendered by the Silver Cornet Band of Union, that we send our greetings to each and every member of the band, through their worthy leader, W. T. Wright, Esq., wishing them success and happiness in life and hoping that the harmony discoursed by them might for many and many years help the cause of progress and be the advance guard of civilization in our frontier camps.

Resolved: That our respectful homages and thanks are presented to the beautiful and kind daughters of Union county as a testimonial of our admiration, esteem and heartfelt gratitude for the honor conferred upon our association by their presence and assistance at our festival. May the burden of life be a light one for all of them; may they find in their homes the happiness and comfort they so well deserve, and when our pioneers will find relief in our projected hospital, it will be towards them and their families that our hearts and minds will turn, in sincere and grateful thanksgiving.

Resolved: That our thanks are given to our friends of Pine and Eagle Valleys, and that the members of our association, one and all, will show them on all occasions their appreciation in co-operating with them in providing their respective valleys with these necessary adjuncts of civilization—we mean public schools, town-halls, etc. To their handsome wives and daughters we send our respectful thanks, and we pray the Almighty to protect their happiness and homes from disappointments and sorrow, and continue for many years our friendly relations with such gracious neighbors.

Resolved: That our thanks be extended to our Cornucopia neighbors for their kind and courteous assistance and friendly co-operation on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24th, 1887. Resolved: That special thanks be extended to Messrs. Jones & Chaney, of THE OREGON SCOUT, for their courtesy, enterprise and good will, also for sending a special correspondent to Cornucopia on Thanksgiving Day, showing that the press of Union county is second to none, and alive and equal to the requirements of our country. To Messrs. Jones & Chaney we tender our cordial thanks, and send three cheers for THE OREGON SCOUT.

Resolved: That the above set of resolutions be published in THE OREGON SCOUT, and copies sent to our county officials and to W. T. Wright, Esq., leader of the Union Silver Cornet Band; to Messrs. Jones & Chaney, editors of THE OREGON SCOUT; to Messrs. Pindell & Wilkinson, of Pine Valley; to Messrs. Langrell & Jeldnes, of Halfway, Pine Valley; to Mr. Moody, Sr., of Eagle Valley, New Bridge; and a copy to be posted on the front entrance to Clingan & Cunningham's (the house in Cornucopia).
