

Indian Valley Items.

January 1st, 1888.

A "Happy New Year." Several weddings have taken place this winter. Mr. Joel Weaver made a business trip to Union during the week. Mrs. Stockdale will commence her school on Indian creek, next Monday. Mr. John Weaver and wife are visiting friends and relatives in Indian valley. Miss Amelia Weaver, who has been quite ill for some time past, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Bell, and May Caldwell have gone to spend several days visiting friends and relatives on Big creek. Mr. A. R. Tuttle is teaching our school, and is well liked. We also have a good singing school taught by Mr. J. A. Jones. The enterprising people of Pine Grove propose to erect a church, soon, of sufficient dimensions to accommodate all who may come. Mr. H. W. Lee and Miss Olive Colwell were married last Sunday, Rev. G. T. Ellis officiating. A splendid dinner was served to the many present. Mr. J. Weaver, of Elk Flat, while coming from church last Sunday evening, upset his sleigh and sustained some few injuries. Mr. Marvin Caldwell, a well known citizen of Indian creek, took his departure, last Wednesday, for the Big creek country where he will make his future home. The residence of Mr. Joel Weaver caught fire a few mornings ago, which caused considerable excitement. The fire was soon extinguished and but little damage was done. Married.—At the residence of Mr. Waddell, of Elk Flat, Mr. Caleb Weaver and Miss May Waddell, all of Union county. J. W. Cowan, J. P., tied the knot, after which a very pleasant dance was given.

High Valley Happenings. Mr. D. J. Davis spent Christmas with his parents. Mr. Geo. Simmons recently killed a fine elk, weighing 400 pounds. Two snow slides started to cross our canyon road, but failed quite to reach it. Dances have been so numerous of late that they are not worth personal mention. The holidays have come and gone, and with them the usual number of slaughtered turkeys. Geo. and Frank Tolley, brothers of Mr. Thomas Tolley, arrived a few days ago from Vernon county, Mo. The latest sensation: Harry was sparking or trying to spark a grass-widow, but he got the G. B. We have snow enough on the ground now, which could easily be influenced, under the pressure of a strong wind, to fill up every corner and hole in the valley, and then have plenty left for good sleighing. A boy-hater once said, "That a boy would tug and lug a forty-foot ladder half a mile to get at a swallow's nest under the eaves of a barn, but if made to bring in some wood for the kitchen stove, would complain of the backache for a week. He will jump from the top to the bottom of the stairs in the hall, shaking the floor enough to un-hinge the doors of a bank safe, but if asked to perform a small chore, he becomes as weak as church festival soup."
