OUR POETS.

[This space is given for the use and benefit of our local writers of verse, and we hope to make it a pleasing feature of the paper. To that end contributions are solicited, but they must possess undoubted literary merit to obtain place and recognition here.—Ed.]

Written for the SCOUT.

TELL NOT THY SORROWS.

Oh tell not to the busy world Thy sorrows and thy care; They have no tears to shed for thee, No sympathy to spare.

Breathe not thy troubles to the stars That shine so far above; They will not stoop to pity thee, Nor whisper words of love.

Nor think thou this pale, cold moon Will hear thy notes of woe, For the grand music of the spheres Would drown thy wail below.

Complain not to the roving winds; They will not hear nor stay, To breathe one word of sympathy, Or kiss thy tears away.

But make a tomb within thy breast, And bury thy sorrows there; Hide them away from the world's gaze, Nor breathe them save in prayer.

And move among the busy throng As though thou hadst no care, For they've no tears to shed for thee, No sympathy to spare.

Sing, though the harp within be mute; Smile, though the heart weeps blood; Let thine eye beam bright as though it had fallen on naught but good. —E. V. WHEELER HUMBREY, Portland, Oregon.

Eugene City Notes.

The Masonic temple will be dedicated in a few days.

A Board of Trade has at last been organized in Eugene.

Several new real estate agencies—looks like the boom was coming.

The University students have been formally requested to be vaccinated.

The water in the Willamette was 7 feet above low water mark last week.

The question of a complete sewerage system for Eugene has been agitated.

The Democratic county committee meets next Wednesday. Candidates are becoming more numerous every day.

Wild geese have commenced to return from the south. Said to be a sign of an early spring.

There are several effective water motors in operation in the city, the power being furnished from the water-works.

The O. & C rail road has been experiencing a great deal of trouble the past week owing to land slides in the Siskiyou.

A lightning express is soon to be put on between Portland and San Francisco, shortening the time to 30 hours.

From North Powder.

EDITOR OREGON SCOUT:—

In your issue of Jan. 27th I noticed an article regarding Mr. Ed. Gardner, which somewhat reflects on his sister, Mrs. Wiggins, of this place. Knowing the entire circumstances of the case, and the state of destitution in which she was left when her husband was imprisoned, I will say in her behalf that she rendered her sick brother all the aid in her power. Being obliged to wash for the support of herself and children, she had to leave home at times in order to earn money for his support as well as her own. Mr. Gardner was finally taken to Mr. Busby's house, who shortly after took his family away owing to the diphtheria scare. The care of her brother again devolved on Mrs. Wiggins. She labored hard during the most intense cold to keep them from freezing and starving, sawing and chopping her own wood when you could not get a Chinaman to do likewise. Finding that her scant earnings were not sufficient to keep them, she had no other alternative than to let the county take her brother. Hoping that you will kindly insert this article to remove any wrong impression as far as she is concerned, you will greatly oblige one who believes in relieving and not oppressing one already heavily burdened. JUSTICE.

NEW BOOKS.

A large assortment of new books have just been received by Jones Bros., consisting of the Paxton and Lovell series of novels, School Speakers, Red Line Poets, etc. Prices lower than ever known before.

Summerville Siftings.

Roads very muddy.

Weather, at present, reminds one of a May day.

School progressing finely. About 80 pupils enrolled in the two rooms.

The Tariff question was discussed the evening of the 8th by several of the debaters at this end of the valley.

Quite an enjoyable entertainment was given by Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Dittebrandt at their residence on the evening of January 31st.

James Morelock and Ira Clements were very much frightened by a ghost near D. Sommers' warehouse, recently. The boys were so badly frightened they could scarcely speak for over an hour afterwards.

F. B. Collins, H. C. Rinehart and Geo. Patten were engaged in a friendly scuffle on Wednesday, in the bank building. The two first mentioned trying to put Geo. Patten in the vault of the bank when they all three fell. H. C. Rinehart in falling struck his knee against a steel plate at the bottom of the vault. He came out of the vault and took a seat in a chair and Collins succeeded in looking Patten in the vault. Upon looking around he discovered that H. C. Rinehart had fainted. Leaving the vault he procured a pail of water and with the assistance of F. P. Childers and Chas. Oswald brought him to consciousness. After this was done the vault was opened, when it was found that Patten was almost suffocated, and it was with difficulty that he was brought to consciousness.

CRANK.

New Bridge Notes.

Roads muddy.

Pleasant weather.

It has been very cold, but much warmer at present.

The young folks had a party at Mr. Moody's last evening.

Mrs. Lurie Elgin, of Pine, is in the valley at present.

There is talk of a Leap Year dance. Get in and drill, girls.

Born,—To the wife of William Holcomb, a son.

Singing school in the middle district was a grand failure.

Mr. Al Morrow took his departure for Baker City, last Friday morning.

Mr. Bislett, of Cornucopia, is spending the winter in our valley.

I had more fun than I ever had in my life, at the candy-pulling, but everybody don't know it.—H.

Stockmen say if the weather still continues as it is at present, they will be able to drive to the hills, soon.

Miss Jennie Officer, of Pine, a promising young lady, commenced school in the upper district, this week, and will pursue her studies during the remainder of the term.

GUESS WHO.

UNION CLEVELAND CLUB.

A large number of the citizens of Union assembled at the court house last Tuesday evening, and the permanent organization of the above named club was effected, and officers elected as follows: President, J. M. Carroll; First Vice-President, J. B. Thomson; Second Vice-President, T. B. H. Green; Secretary, F. M. Slocum; Treasurer, J. W. Kennedy; Sergeant-at-arms, G. W. Stafford. Meetings will be held, hereafter, regularly on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month. Two committees are appointed: One to confer with the county officials in regard to securing a use of the court house for club prizes and the other to select speakers for next meeting. Thirty-two persons placed their signatures to the constitution and by-laws.

HOW MEN DIE.

If we knew all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. Many instances of the inherent strength the body suffices to enable it to oppose a tendency toward death. Many however lose these forces to such an extent that there is little aid to the weakened. This will make all the difference between a life and many years of useful life. Upon the first symptoms of a Cough, or any trouble of the Throat or Lung give that old and well-known remedy—Jocose's German Syrup, a careful trial will prove what thousands say of it to be the "benefactor of any home."

When at home you go to church or show And let your valuables behind; Then be it to know, before you go, They're a "Verona" case, succeed.

North Powder Nuggets.

February 6, 1888.

Pugilists are looming up in this place. Look out for Mike.

Died.—Feb. 5, 1888, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colwell, near North Powder.

The death of John Stout was reported in THE SCOUT last week, when it should have been Edward Stout.

W. L. Charnes is teaching a five-months term of school on Upper North Powder, at the Hutchinson school house.

It is getting fashionable for some men to want some other man's wife, and some wives to want some other man. Look out!

Our citizens are making an effort to have a legally established county road from this town to Union, via Telocast, but there seems to be considerable opposition on the part of land owners on the line proposed, and so it will always be.

Articles of incorporation were filed on January 27, with the Secretary of State, by the Anthony Creek Mill and Flume Co., with Wm. F. Haines and F. M. Punch, of North Powder, and C. M. Kellogg of Baker City as incorporators.

The following officers of North Powder Lodge No. 88, I. O. O. F. were installed on Jan. 28th, 1888: W. J. Graves, N. G.; G. Venable, V. G.; H. Rothchilds, Sec.; A. Lun, P. S.; H. O. Gorham, Treas.; J. W. Kimbrell, W. J. A. White, Con.; J. C. Travillian, I. G.; W. M. Hooper, R. S. N. G.

YANK.

Powder River Pebbles.

February 5, 1888.

Snow nearly all gone on Powder river, and stock turned out on the range.

A social dance was given last evening by Mr. Dean, and was enjoyed by all that were present.

The frost has all gone out of the ground and as soon as dry enough plowing will commence.

We have a good literary at the school house, and meet every Friday evening with a good attendance.

Mr. Briggs, of Big creek, is dangerously ill.

Died.—At the residence of P. H. Miles, Big creek, Mrs. Miles' sister, who has been visiting for some time from the East. The deceased leaves a family.

Mr. P. H. Miles and sons are busy working their mines on Big creek. They are running an incline shaft. The ledge is showing nicely.

Rev. Boyle will hold service at the school house on Big creek, Sunday, Feb. 5th.

Mr. Jo. Dolby had a shooting match on the 4th of February, for a beef; 30 chances at $1 each. Elmer Turner was the lucky man that won the beef.

W. T. Martin is in Union on business, and will be absent, probably, for several days.

The Emele Ditch Company are getting ready for the spring run. They will give the sage brush land a good trial. They think its producing qualities cannot be beaten.

PERSONAL.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee, Trial bottles free at Wright's drug store.

REDUCTION IN SHOES.

From this time till the 15th of March I will sell my stock of winter boots and shoes at prices ten per cent. cheaper than heretofore, in order to make room for my spring stock. Give me a call.—C. VINCENT.

LETTER LIST.

Remain uncalled for at the Union post-office, the month ending Jan. 31, 1888.

Boby Nichols, Fishman Mrs. Emma Moore, Mrs. Emmertt, More Mrs. Emmertt, Marcol Phillip, Palmer Mrs. Mattie, Proffitt T. N., Trainer John 2.

Persons calling for any of the above, will please say "advertised."

Geo. F. HAIN, P. M., Union, Or.

Cove Cullings.

February 8th, 1888.

Mrs. Mark Stevens went to Waitsburg, this week, to be at the bedside of a young niece who is dangerously ill.

Mrs. O. P. Jaycox, of Union, will remain with relatives in Cove during her husband's absence in the east. Mr. Jaycox will be away several weeks.

The Leighton base ball club has organized for the season. Prof. W. Smith was elected president. Good grounds are conveniently situated to the academy building.

Prof. L. J. Rouse, school superintendent of Wallowa county, is in town this week looking after fruit tree interests. Also, Prof. Hindman was on our streets Wednesday.

Several severe losses in stock have occurred the past few days, among which was the death of Jas. Payne's fine imported bull and one of Fred Foster's valuable draught horses.

Wesley Duncan, accompanied by his four children, also his sister-in-law, Miss Etta Hobbs, started for Missouri, last Sunday, by way of the short line. Wesley will visit his father and return about the 1st prox.

Since Daisy Dell's report in the last copy of the SCOUT, the Cove base ball players are diligently practicing and can scarcely bide the time till they can cross bats with the Union club and indulge in that flirtation with the Union girls, permitted by the Leap year society.

H. J. Geer is preparing for a ball at his hall Feb. 22nd. A substantial lunch will be served, the horses of guests will be fed, and tickets for all will be only $1.50. Besides four cash prizes of $1.50 each will be given to that number of lucky ones among the ticket holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin and their daughter, Mrs. Dunshee, are arranging their affairs to move to Keota, Iowa, next month. Mr. Martin is one of the old settlers of Cove, having located and lived continuously here since 1864. They will live with their daughter, Mrs. Dunshee, who owns pleasantly located town property in Keota.

A sneak thief entered the house of Saml. Bloom one day last week while the family were absent and purloined forty dollars which had been left in the pockets of some clothing. From remarks, we gather that Sam can come very near spotting the light fingered gentleman. At any rate it will stand the good people of the Cove in hand to take better care of their loose wealth when leaving.

I would have been decidedly out of luck if my vest had fitted my visitor and he had appropriated that with the forty dollars.—S. B. I'll wager the cigars that she don't accept my company to the concert and ball.—L. All that glitters is not gold, many things remain untold.—M. Some people can not disguise their handwriting.—A. Don't bother me, I am afflicted with the splints.—Alex. If he knew my opinion of him, he certainly would honor me with an invitation to the ball.—L.

AUCTION SALE.

I will sell at public auction, at my place on Big creek, on March 1st, 1888 at 10 o'clock a. m. the following personal property: Three large work horses, one saddle horse, some brood mares and colts, cows and yearlings, one lumber wagon, one hack, one set harness, plows, harrow, and other farming tools, household goods, stoves, chairs, bedsteads, tables, cupboards, bureau, carpets, sewing machine, dishes, and many other things too numerous to mention. Terms of sale: All sums under $5.00, cash; $5.00 and over, 9 months time; sums of $25 and over, 22 months time. Must be good, endorsed and approved notes, with interest.—T. G. COOK.

WONDERFUL CURES.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., says: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold at Wright's drug store.

Smith's walking gang plow, something new and just the thing. For sale by Frank Bros. Implement Co., Island City.
