Cove Cullings.

October 18, 1888.

The Cove band will meet Friday of this week for regular election of officers and practice.

Squire Thomas, who has been living in the east for some time, has returned home.

Ben. Owenby and wife, of Wallowa county, are visiting friends and relatives in Cove, this week.

"Pug" Bailey, the irrepressible of Pendleton and crack baseball player, has entered Leighton Academy.

Prof. Dunnigan is holding a term of singing school at Frosty, Shanghai and Cove. They are well attended.

Shovers of the ivory are offered a rare chance by J. Bloom. He proposes to sell his billiard table at a low price.

The public school is in a very satisfactory condition. The grammar department has an attendance of about 20 and the intermediate 53.

The most of the sojourners at the Mechanics' fair have returned. They report a fine exhibit but too much dampness for comfort in Webfoot.

Jno. Wagner and Geo. Thomas made a wager of two valuable horses this week on the presidential election, the former that Harrison would be successful.

L. B. Stearns has returned from Enterprise, to be at the bedside of his daughter who has been dangerously sick, but is thought to be improving at present.

Jas. Bloom has sold his place of 160 acres near town, for $1,000, to D. C. Fisher. Mr. Fisher will occupy the property in order to be in convenient distance of our schools.

Ed Child, of Walla Walla, is spending a short vacation with his brother in Cove. The boys are having lots of sport chasing the festive prairie chickens on the bottom.

J. Flick has moved a building formerly used as a butcher shop, to a location near the livery stable, and will convert the same into a comfortable boot and shoe parlor.

Jno. Boyd discovered a lynx in his meadow, Tuesday, feeding on a defunct bovine. After securing a gun and firing some 20 shots the varmint was slain.

Jno Peach and family moved this week into a house in the upper part of town belonging to Dr. McDonald. Mr. Peach appreciates our excellent schools and will patronize the same this winter.

Silas Koger, Ed Boswell and John Jones started for Portland, Tuesday. They will take in the fair, see the elephant and return in a few days, so they said, unless some capitalist wanted to buy them.

P. F. Chrisman and daughter, Miss Sarah, have returned from a trip through the middle states. His health was poor on the journey and they returned home sooner than they expected on that account.

Died.—Monday night last, near midnight, Eddie Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelley. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Wm. Powell, Wednesday, after which the burial took place. A large number of sorrowing friends and relatives attended. The pall bearers were selected from the deceased's class mates in Sunday school, and his favorite pony, draped in mourning, was ridden by a playmate. The family has the deep sympathy of the community in their sad loss.

Thank you, I am the young lady of the house now—K. I can easily tell you who the next couple will be to try wedded bliss—C. Address your letters to Long Valley post-office, please.

A. Gore would have flown like unto the conflicts of the dark ages had not restraining influences arrived as it did—M. Where is the man that would like to hit "Billie Patterson"—S. The town boys can't afford us amusement playing ball, now that "Pug" has come—L's. Yellow ribbons are no longer fashionable on the grounds—K.

A pretty wedding, having many delightful features, was celebrated last Wednesday noon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sanborn in Cove. The contracting parties were their handsome and accomplished daughter, Miss Ximena Sanborn, sister of Mrs. O. P. Jaycox of Union, and Herbert W. Stevens, a merchant engaged in business at Alba, Umatilla county. Both are well known in society circles and have many warm friends. About forty friends and relatives were invited to witness the ceremony and when nearly all had assembled in the well appointed apartments, the scene was a most pleasant one. Aside from the floral decorations the room was beautified by several fine paintings executed by the bride who is an artist of much ability. The bridal toilet, which was a symphony in white, was ordered from Chicago and became the fair bride exceedingly. It was a white surah silk, a la cour, and finished in a tasty and elegant manner, with an overdress of oriental lace. The trimmings consisted of satin ribbons with natural flowers. Her gloves were of white undressed kid and her hand bouquet of pure Niphetos roses. The Rev. Mr. Ellis, of La Grande, performed the marriage ceremony impressively, and at its conclusion the North Powder Notes.

October 17, 1888.

Mr. Gus Wersner was down from the mill last Sunday.

The time table on the Oregon Short Line has been changed.

Mrs. Peter King and Mrs. A. N. Sanders are on a visit in Portland.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Wiggins have gone to Walla Walla to reside.

Mr. Wesley Parker has recovered his entire band of strayed sheep.

Miss Emma McCurry has about recovered from a severe attack of convulsions.

A sister of Mr. Joe Carroll and Mrs. R. H. Lloyd from Union, is here on a visit.

Messrs. Kellogg, Pinch & Co. will erect a planer and shingle mill above town, this fall.

A band of the "Temperance League" has been organized among the little folks in the place.

We learn Mr. Lach, our local wagon-maker has sold out and will return with his family to the eastern states.

Our local shoemaker, Mr. Nolan, is convalescing from a severe type of erysipelas of the face and scalp.

Mrs. Judge Dahan has been confined to her bed since moving to town. She is slowly improving at present.

Mr. Alex Hunsaker returned from Portland on Saturday. He has been taking in the sights and Mechanical fair during the week.

Mr. Mike Miller has been offered $500 for his land interest in a mining claim at Malheur, but refused. He reports prospects brighter as the mines are deepened.

Mr. Henry Gorham and family will remove to their home in town, shortly, to remain during the winter months, in order to take advantage of school facilities.

Claid, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hartin, fell from a horse a few days ago, injuring his arm. The lad is able to be around, but met with a narrow escape from a broken bone.

The Haringy "bumbug" Portrait Co. of San Francisco, are flooding the mails with circulars for N. P. citizens. Not many suckers here who will bite at their bait.

Dave Beverage's generosity is proverbial and his friends appreciate it as well as the flavor of the salt water fish daily distributed by him on his return from Astoria.

Our station agent now wears the insignia of his office on his hat band, consisting of a nickel plate with "Station Agent" thereon. A new fad of the railway company, but a good one.

Three noble hounds of this village, Messrs. Hartin, Edwards and Dye, bled away to the hill to hunt the deer, bear, and elk, last week, returning with dear experience and barren results, on Monday.

Mr. Dave Vaughn, a young man of this place, was arrested last week and taken to Union, on suspicion of being the murderer of Snell, the Chicago millionaire. Examination proved another case of mistaken identity. Mr. Vaughn returned on Monday.

AN EXPLANATION.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

ABOUT OUR SIZE.—Some one has been figuring upon the area of Oregon and Washington territory for the purpose of conveying something of an idea of the comparative magnitude of the region, estimates that the state and territory are larger than New England, with New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia thrown in, by 2000 square miles. They would make five states larger than Maine, thirty-three states larger than Connecticut and one hundred and thirty-two states larger than Rhode Island.

PERSONAL.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I felt great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free at Wright's drug store.

EAGLE COOPER SHOP.

Telocaset Tattlings.

October 17th, 1888.

Cool and frosty.
Fruit being gathered.
No snow yet, but we have contracted for some.

Our good people are going to "trip the light fantastic toe" some time the coming week.

The saw mill started up, Monday, after a delay of about a week for repairs.

Guy Becker still retains his incorruptible reputation as a tutor. Hurrah for him!

Pyle canyon school running in full blast, and Miss Ida Davis swinging the sceptre.

Mr. Ben Davis, of Wood river, paid us a pleasant visit recently. Mr. Davis is an "old timer" and knows how to keep people from going to sleep while he is about.

Mrs. Emily Gorman was down on a visit, recently, from Baker City. Mrs. Gorman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blade Ashby, of Pyle canyon, and has many friends and relatives in this vicinity.

We have had some matrimonial fancies lately that have been nearly married realities. There is likely to be some more immediately, too, for things begin to look like there was too much bald fact to be any fanciful romance in it. "God save the bachelor," said Gray, and so say we.

Last Friday week our young men and women opened up the shrine of Terpsichore by having a little dance, and a little private fun all to themselves. Shannon Marshall was the musician, and best of all they had a bounteous repast, a good time, and all went home satisfied with their expenditure.

Telocaset is not taking very much interest in the presidential canvass. She is too busy to bother with such minor affairs as politics. But then it takes all kinds of men to make a world, and this is one kind that goes to make up the world. Oregon will reverse her June decision November the 6th, and so Telocaset will not need to struggle much.

Last week we had a rain. It seems almost incredible, but we hungrily assert upon our sacred honor that it did rain—it just poured down—and old Mother Earth just laughed, and tittered, and cried, all at the same time, as the first drops since June pattered over her old dried, and dusty bosom. Oh, it was glorious! The innocent sheep looked up to heaven and their big eyes filled with tears as they said "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," and then went to nibbling away again as if there was a coat of grass on the ground three weeks old. The dust was not laid, however, and within two or three days the busy crowd of travel had stirred things up until it was dry as ever. When you have a good thing use it as long as possible.

Pine Valley Pellets.

October 7th, 1888.
Warm and smoky, and no rain.
The children of Mr. Pyles are sick with cholera morbus.
Mrs. Jo. Bassett is down with brain fever.

Mrs. Dr. O'Connor has had very poor health for some time. The Dr. expects to start east, soon, and try the effects of a change of climate in his lady.

Quite a number of the good citizens of Pine will visit Union the coming week to lay in their supplies for winter. Among those who go are Messrs. Greener, Pancake, Dawson, McFadden and families. The better ye treat them, ye Union merchants, the oftener will they come to Union instead of Baker City.

Mr. J. H. Thaysen recently set out fire to burn brush on his land and caused quite a conflagration. The breeze came up suddenly and Mr. Thaysen having gone to work in another part of the field did not notice it until his attention was called to it by Mr. J. A. Denney's little daughter, who—fearing for her own home, and her parents being away—ran to Mr. McNutt's, also, and gave the alarm. Mr. McNutt and Doc. Russell promptly hurried to the scene. Mrs. Denney, who is teaching, received word, just as school had closed, of the close proximity of fire—separated from their place only by a lane—and, accompanied by Mr. Oliver and numbers of the school children, hastened to the scene. Pails, kettles, tubs, boilers, school buckets, &c., were promptly made use of and teacher and children dipped and carried water while men worked with might and main until the fire was finally controlled so that by watching it night and day for two or three days and nights it was prevented from burning any of the neighbor's premises. Had it not been for the prompt and energetic assistance of the men and children much damage might have been done the homes of J. A. Denney, Mr. McNutt and Mr. Pyles. Cinders fell a mile and a quarter from the scene. Mr. Thaysen procured the names of the children and sent them money which was promptly refused by most of the larger ones. Now is almost too dry a time to set out fire, especially in the thick underbrush and pine timber.
