

PRETTY WHITE SLAVES.

How Circassian Girls Prepare for Their Appearance in the Harem. We have wasted a good deal of sympathy on the Circassian girls who are sold to the highest bidder in the Turkish slave market.

When the future slave girl has reached budding womanhood she is disposed of to a dealer in slaves, who lets his best customers know that he possesses a treasure almost priceless, and all her virtues and beauties are detailed with the usual Oriental exaggeration.

She gives samples of her accomplishments, musical, gymnastic and otherwise. Accepted, she is at once clothed with a rich silk dress, and receives a present of a necklace or bracelet as an earnest of favor before she joins her fellow slaves.

The erstwhile barefooted, ragged little Circassian from Turcoman's land is now a princess or Pasha's wife with slaves of her own; but she would laugh if you suggested to her that there was anything degrading in their position or had been in her own.

BARBED-WIRE FENCES.

Protecting Stock by Plowing Furrows Around Both Sides. During the winter and especially in spring when colts are turned out to pasture, we hear of case after case of cuts on barbed wire.

Bound to Be Famous. "There is a man whose name will go down in history," said a traveling man to a companion.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

The late Elizabeth Tabor, of Marion, Mass., bequeathed $187,000 to religious and charitable objects.

Mrs. Christine Nilsson is an honorary member of the Young Women's Christian Association of New York.

General Sherman says that of all the nuisances on earth, the shaking of hands by American people is the worst.

The housekeeper of Warwick Castle, England, who died recently, left a fortune of $350,000, all of which had come to her in the shape of fees from visitors.

The power of persistence in matters of love was well illustrated in the courtship of Browning's son. For fourteen years he maintained a suit at first unsuccessful, but finally rewarded with success.

The richest widow in this country, if not in the world, is Mrs. Moses Taylor, whose fortune is estimated at $40,000,000.

Miss Emily Faithfull has completed the thirtieth year of her philanthropic work. She received a portrait of the Queen, bearing an autograph inscription, as a token of her Majesty's recognition of her services.

When Bismarck is staying at Kissingen he goes regularly three times to be weighed, and as the young girl in charge of the weighing machine says, "makes himself very agreeable and talks most friendly to me."

The richest Japanese outside of the royal family is said to be R. Kondo of the Mining University of Japan.

David Crack, of Marlboro, Md., said to be one hundred and seven years old, was recently married to Susanna Oaks, a buxom widow of seventy-five years.

W. P. Taubee, of Kentucky, represents the largest Congressional district in the country. It is composed of twenty-one counties, and extends from the famous Blue Grass region to Cumberland Gap, a distance of over two hundred miles.

Does the Earth Really Move?

Science says that it does, but we cannot help wondering sometimes if there isn't a little more to it than we are told. We take about it, when we see how stubbornly certain old fogies cling to their dusty and antiquated ideas.

For Rickets, Marasmus, and Wasting Disorders of Children.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites is unequalled in its rapidity with which children gain flesh and strength upon it.

"Purgatory Bullets."

An excited Irishman lately rushed into a Boston drug store, having a "broken-up" appearance generally. "Be jabbers!" he yelled, "I'm all wrong entirely. I want some shunt to straighten me out."

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections.

Shall Women be Allowed to Vote?

The question of female suffrage has agitated the tongues and pens of reformers for many years, and good arguments have been adduced for and against it.

George Vanderbilt, the millionaire son of the late Wm. H. Vanderbilt, has purchased a tract of 3000 acres of valuable land in North Carolina.

Hunters in Massachusetts concede that deer never were so numerous in the woods of Cape Cod as at the present time.

No one so old that he may not live a year, none so young that he may die to-day.

Contented minds are more conducive to happiness than riches, glory to fame. In our life-work let us remember that it will profit us but little if we gain a world of wealth, and lose contentment and happiness.

Are We to Have Another War?

Some political prophets aver that we shall be that as it may the battle waged by medical science against disease will never cease until we arrive at that utopian epoch when the human family shall cease to be afflicted with bodily ailments.

The sick man sleeps when the doctor cannot.
