WASHINGTON.

An Interesting Letter From Our Regular Correspondent.

July 19, 1889.

EDITOR OREGON SCOUT:—

President Harrison returned from Deer Park Wednesday and will probably go back to the hill top Saturday, for a long vacation. Even the few days visit from which he has returned seems to have immensely benefited him, bringing a bronze tinge to his generally pallid face. During the two or three weeks vacation which he will take, any necessary business will be transacted at Deer Park. It has not been decided whether or not official announcements of matters decided upon by the President will be made from Washington or from Deer Park. The probabilities are that the appointments at least will be announced from the White House. This visit, together with the promised stay at Bar Harbor as the guest of Secretary Blaine, will likely constitute the Presidents entire vacation, although he may thereafter take short trips from the city until the heated term is over, which in Washington does not end before the middle of October.

Such of the candidates for the speakership of the next house as come here from time to time and talk with the President, express themselves as confident of an early ext a session. Judge Perkins who is just at present the only candidate in town, says that from conversation with General Harrison he believes that the session will be called for the early part of October. He thinks that very little time will be consumed in organizing the House. He differs from nearly all the congressmen who have been interviewed on the subject in anticipating only a short fight over the rules. He believes that the extra session will have some time to devote to the tariff, as well as to discuss a national election law. The contested election over, will not in his opinion, receive immediate attention.

The Indiana politicians who come here so frequently have much to say about Mr. Harrison's partiality for Indianapolis people, and cites numerous examples to show that the only first-class positions he has bestowed upon Indianians have been given to Indianapolis. The comments are very bitter. The same conduct cost Mr. Cleveland a good many votes in New York. There was a democratic association of New Yorkers here that was by no means a unit. Nearly a fifth of the total membership, and nearly all influential people, were from Albany and Buffalo, of course, the New York city democrats never recovered from the mortification, and the "Albany association" as it was termed by them, fell into the soup. Extreme favoritism of any locality of his own state, is dangerous to any president.

The naming of children after contemporaneous great men is a weakness that many parents have cause to regret. Charles Sumner, replying to a Boston constituent who thought of naming his boy after him, said that while Charles was always a substantial and respectable name, Sumner might yet become a very bad one. Besides, is there not something supremely ludicrous in finding some dunder-head butcher name, Virgil? People who ought to know, say that Ex-Senator Bruce, who is about as close a political trimmer as one cares to meet, has never ceased to kick himself for naming his boy Roscoe Conkling, being always afraid that the naming might make him unpopular with some republican opposed to the great New Yorker's wing of the party.

I accidentally met an old friend with his wife and a son of about four, the other evening. The father has been in the departments so long that the people of his own Illinois home have quite forgotten him. He has not even been home to vote for ten years. His wife is the niece of a prominent republican senator, and he depends upon that relationship to retain him in office, and just at present to obtain him a substantial promotion. He is a great republican now, but four years ago was a howling democrat, though before Mr. Cleveland's election he had been a republican.

"Pretty child, what's the boy's name?" I ask the father carelessly. "Grover," he replies. "Just Grover; no middle name," I inquired. "No middle name," puts in the mother, "Only Grover; it is an old family name, my grandfather Baker's name." I knew her grandfather Baker and his name was Cyrus, though he was not great. And I remember, also, when the child was baptised during the opening of the last administration, and the name on the church register is "Grover Cleveland S—s." The bible teaches that no man can serve to masters, but in a humble way, many government clerks may be said to come very close to striking success in this direction. J. H. C.

To Homesteaders and Others.

We give a few brief paragraphs under this head, believing that they will prove of interest to many of our readers.

A person who has settled on a tract and made his pre-emption declaration may change his filings into a homestead if he continues in good faith to comply with the pre-emption laws until the change is effected, and the time he has occupied the land as pre-empter will be credited upon the period of residence and cultivation required under the homestead laws.

No lands acquired under the provisions of the homestead are liable for the satisfaction of any debts contracted prior to the issue of the patent.

The sale of a homestead claim by the settler to another party before completion of the title, vests no title nor equities in the purchaser as against the United States. In making final proof, the settler is by law required to swear that no part of the laad has been alienated except for church, cemetery or school purposes, or the right of way for a railroad.

As the law allows but one homestead privilege, the settler abandoning or relinquishing his claim can not thereafter make a second entry, although where the entry is cancelled as invalid for some reason other than abandonment, and not the wilful act of the party, he is not thereby debarred from entering again.

Where a party makes a selection of land for a homestead he must abide by his choice, if he has neglected to examine the land prior to entry and it proves to be infertile or otherwise unsatisfactory, he must suffer the consequence of his own neglect.

If a homestead settler does not wish to remain five years on a tract, he may pay for it with cash. Military bounty land warrants, agricultural college scrip, and private land claim scrip may be located in lieu of cash payment.

A person who commutes a homestead entry can not, while owning the tract, move therefrom and settle upon public land in the same state or territory as a pre-emptor.

A person commuting a homestead entry by false swearing, when he has not actually resided upon the land and improved and cultivated it as required by law, forfeits all right to the land and to the purchase money paid, and in addition thereto lays himself liable to criminal prosecution.

A Gift For All.

In order to give all a chance to test it, and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, will be, for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal, but shows unbounded faith in the merits of this great remedy. All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of Throat, Chest, or Lungs, are especially requested to call at Brown's drug store, and get a trial bottle, free. Large bottles, $1.00.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phœbe Chesley, Peterson, Clay county, Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with Kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, only 50 cents at Brown's drug store, Union, Oregon.

Summons.

In the Circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Union.

Charles Fresh, Plaintiff, vs.
Mary E. Fresh, Defendant.

To Mary E. Fresh, the above named defendant:—

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, in the above named court, on or before the first day of the next regular term thereof, to-wit:

SEPTEMBER 23, 1889, and if you fail so to appear or answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will take a decree against you dissolving the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit.

This summons is published in THE OREGON SCOUT, by orde. of Luther B. Ison, judge, made at chambers and bearing date of July 1, 1889.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory."

ELVERDO DRAPER,

of Union, county of Union, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 119, for the purchase of the N½ NE¼ and NE¼ NW¼ of Section No. 32, in Township No. 4 South, Range No. 41 East, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the register and receiver of this office at La Grande, Oregon, on Friday, the 4th day of October, 1889.

He names as witnesses: A. Cockrel, George Simmons, George Lightfoot and James Nelson, all of Union, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 4th day of October, 1889.
