

MISTAKES WILL OCCUR.

In Which Sage and Somewhat Trite Assertion Many Men Concur. It was morning. The sun shone bright from a clear, blue sky. Every body hurried busily by. The street cars glided along. I was just in time to swing carelessly on. Once on the platform, without thinking, I gave the conductor my fare. I went forward and sat quietly down. I sat wrapped in thought as a man in a dream, unconscious of pretty much every thing except some business plan. In a few minutes the conductor came skimming around. "Fare, please," he said in an authoritative tone. "I paid you," said I, feeling hesitatingly in my pocket at the same time. "I know you did," was the conductor's would-be sarcastic reply. Not as yet being quite sure of myself I paid him again. In a few minutes he came back and returned it to me. He saw by the register that he had taken it before. "I got your fare twice," he said, apologetically. "I thought you did, but it's all right," said I. He stood by me, telling me how such mistakes will sometimes occur. "Yes, that is so. No matter. It's all right," said I. A stranger came forward from the back of the car and dropped into a seat right next to me. His face wore a sure-to-carry-conviction, want-to-right-a-wrong-kind-of-an-air. "Such mistakes will sometimes happen," he said. "That's all right. No harm done," again said I. "You see, I didn't notice where you got on," the conductor then said. "After I collected from you, I began to think possibly I had got it before. The other day a lady got on the car and handed me her fare; it was in the afternoon, I do not remember just what day; now let me see—" "That is all right," said I, "mistakes are bound to occur." "Even the best business houses sometimes make mistakes," said a stout man, turning around to address me from the seat just in front. "Now, I know a case—" "This really didn't make any difference," the conductor then said. "I can't remember at first whether or not I had paid my fare. I didn't want to quarrel about it, so I paid him again." "Yes," said the stout stranger, "mistakes are bound to occur." "What is the matter?" said a sympathetic gentleman behind me; "I saw you pay your fare." "Oh, nothing at all," said I; "I paid him my fare." "It's a natural mistake," said the sympathetic gentleman; "they are bound to occur." "Yes, it's all right," said I; "they are bound to occur." Then a slim, gaunt-looking man, seated at my left side, turned towards me with an earnest, clear-it-all-away, hear-me-talk, student-like air. "I guess the conductor did not mean anything. Mistakes will sometimes occur. Last week, for instance, I—" "That's all right," gentlemen, I said with a sigh. "Hello! Skipp street; I must get off here. Good-day, gentlemen. Mistakes are bound to occur." "Good-bye." I walked up Skipp street and boarded a parallel car.—Detroit Free Press.

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

There were 516 conversions and accessions in the mission churches served by students of Garrett Biblical Institute last year. —The Polytechnic Institute at Worcester, Mass., has introduced a new course of electric engineering, leading to the degree of bachelor of science. —The Moravians, though small in numbers and wealth, have sent out, during the last century, 25,000 missionaries, and expended $60,000 yearly. They have nine mission ships. —The greatest work which the teacher can do for the pupil is the work which Cardinal Newman says Dr. Whately did for him: he "taught me to see with my own eyes and to walk with my own feet." —The Y. M. C. Associations are not making headway in Australia. Not long ago there were seventeen associations in six of the colonies; now there are only fourteen, and of these not more than seven were represented at the conference recently held at Sydney. —A Mormon Elder who lately arrived at San Francisco from New Zealand said that he and other Mormon missionaries had been at work among the natives for three years and a half, and that they had over 3,000 members in their churches among the Maoris. —A Christian tribe, surrounded by pagans, has just been discovered in the heart of Africa. They had never before seen a white man. While their religious ideas are crude, still they have a priesthood, the cross and other emblems of Christianity. They are believed to have been exiled from Abyssinia about eight hundred years ago.—Catholic Review. —In Persia Christianity has had great success during the last three years. In Western Persia there are now more than 2,000 church-members. What is still more hopeful, much of this progress is made through the efficiency of native pastors. Of the seventy-nine students in the college at O-comiah, seventy are Christians. There are many village schools established by the missionaries, and Dr. Labaree reports that the Moslems of Persia are more accessible than those of any other land. —The New Britain, Ct., Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union has organized mission work among the young girls employed in the factories. From the small nucleus of one room and twenty or thirty girls the work has grown rapidly until now a tenement of seven rooms is required to accommodate the large number of regular attendants. The rooms are open four evenings in the week and two hours on Sunday. There are classes in dress-making, penmanship and singing and reading matter is supplied by a circulating library. —"Why," asked the funny boarder at the supper table, "is this beefsteak like our landlady's youthful son?" "Because," chorused all his fellow boarders in unison, "it is a 'little tough.'"—N. Y. Ledger. For Throat Diseases and Coughs. "Brown's Bronchial Trochies," like all other really good lozenges, are imitated, and purchasers should be careful to obtain the genuine article prepared by JOHN I. BROWN & SONS. TRY GERBERA for breakfast. Danger from Catarrh! Catarrh is an exceedingly disagreeable disease, its various symptoms, discharge at the nose, bad breath, pain between the eyes, coughing, choking sensation, ringing noises in the ears, etc., being not only troublesome to the sufferer, but offensive to others. Catarrh is also dangerous, because it may lead to bronchitis or consumption. Being a blood disease, the true method of cure is to purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has cured many severe cases of catarrh. "For several years I had been troubled with a kind of asthma or catarrh in my throat, and had tried several kinds of medicine but could find nothing to help me. My wife wanted me to try a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I told the druggist of whom I bought it that I had no faith in it, but would give it a trial, which I did. I must say I was very much benefited by using it and would recommend it very highly to any one having asthma or catarrh." ELLIAS P. DEVERIES, firm of Deveries & Peterson, Omaha, Neb. Weeping Widow (to marble-cutter)—I want a suitable epitaph placed on my husband's grave-stone. Poor man, he was killed by having a safe fall on him. Can you suggest one? Marble-Cutter—Perhaps so, madam. What was your husband's business? Widow—He was an editor. And the marble-cutter chiseled on the tomb: "Gone to Press."—Lawrence American. Remarkable Presence of Mind. Laura (innocently)—Doesn't the train go through a long tunnel soon, George? George—Tunnel just ahead, Laura. THAT ELEPHANT.

The passengers on the Berkeley local enjoy a sight which is denied residents of Oakland, unless they make a special trip for the purpose of "seeing the elephant," and those who have taken this trip agree in saying they were well repaid for their trouble. Standing on the marsh near 15th St. station is a ponderous white elephant, evidently enjoying the refreshing sniffs of malaria. So natural does this monster look that the children on the passing trains wonder why he stands so quiet day after day. The animal was imported by the SERRA CHEMICAL COMPANY, and is causing a great deal of comment. Mr. V. P. Mitchell, the keeper of this monster, appears to have absolute control over his charge, and even boasts of his ability to heap all manner of indignities upon one beast—without danger to himself. Mr. Mitchell further states that the reason the animal is able to remain in such an unhealthy locality is that the elephant's liver is kept in perfect order by the Great Sierra Kidney and Liver Cure. I am truly grateful and feel that you will treat all fairly. Very truly, MRS. M. A. JOHNSON. Acute Rheumatism Cured. MR. EDITOR: For months I have been afflicted with acute rheumatism in my hip. At last I was induced to try Dr. Darrin, as his system is almost painless. Last week I came from California to visit my sister, Mrs. E. H. Beside singing an American song to the phonograph when it was exhibited to him at Friedrichsruhe the other day, Prince Bismarck sent the following message to his son: "Be moderate in work, moderate in eating, and also somewhat (such as) moderate in drinking—this is the advice of a father to his son."

HOPE FOR THE SICK.

One Remedy for One Disease. (From Medical Journal). "The four greatest medical centres of the world are London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. These cities have immense hospitals teeming with suffering humanity. Crowds of students through the wards studying under the Professors in charge. The most renowned physicians of the world teach at practice here, and the institutions are storehouses of medical knowledge and experience. With a view of making this experience available to the public the Hospital Remedy Co. at great expense secured the prescriptions of the hospitals, prepared the specifics, and although it would cost from $25 to $100 to secure the price of the quick patent medicines are sold at a single bottle. The claim always felt for a reliable class of domestic remedies is now filled with perfect satisfaction. The Hospital Remedy Co. make no unreasonable claims. The specific for Catarrh cures that and nothing else; so with the specific for Bronchitis, Consumption and Lung Troubles; Rheumatism is cured by No. 3, while Troubles of Digestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys have their own cure. To these is added a specific for Fever and Ague, one for female weakness—a general tonic and blood-purifier makes blood and gives form and fulness, and an incomparable remedy for Nervous Debility." These remedies are all sold on an absolute guarantee to do what is claimed for them. A circular describing this new method of treating disease is sent free on application by Hospital Remedy Company, Toronto, Canada, Sole Proprietors. Truth and justice are the foundations of life. In General Debility, Emaciation, Consumption and Wasting in Children. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been discovered which permanently cures the most aggravated cases of these distressing diseases by a few simple applications (two weeks apart) by the patient at home. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free by A. H. Dixon & Son, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada. Comparison, more than reality, makes men happy and can make them wretched. The Chamber of Torture Is the apartment to which the unhappy sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism is confined. If, ere the crisis of pain is reached, that fine preventative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is used by persons of rheumatic tendency, much unnecessary suffering is avoided. Nerves, anodynes and sedatives, while having none but a specific effect on the local inflammation, yet they can produce no lasting effect upon rheumatism, because they have no power to eliminate from the blood the rheumatic virus. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does this, and checks at the outset a disease which, if allowed to gain headway, it is next to impossible to dislodge or to remove. Rheumatism, if not remembered, is a disease with a fatal tendency from its proneness to attack the heart. A resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, in cases of dyspepsia, kidney complaint, malaria and nervousness are relieved by it. A state of dejection is like a sponge; it increases with tears. EVERY SYMPTOM GONE. Probably no disease inflicts so much continuous pain as Rheumatism. Over no single complaint has Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, N. Y., won more desirable times. Rheumatism, by its use the agonized patient can once more use his limbs and freed from past years of pain. Mr. Frank Pratt, a well-known merchant of New Hamburg, N. Y., says: "I suffered tortures from Sciatic Rheumatism. My case was a very bad one, and none of the means taken gave me relief. I use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., an entirely rid of every morbid and troubling ailment. Only a bottle brought about this wonderful result. It has built me up and been of great benefit to me in other ways. I heartily recommend it to other sufferers." DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, made at Rondout, N. Y., is for Rheumatism, Sciatic and Blood Disorders. The only legitimate anger is a holy emotion directed against an unholy thing. Sin, not our neighbor, must be its object. Happiness is no other than soundness and perfection of mind. DR. PRICE'S BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE. From the Professor of Chemistry, Cal. College of Pharmacy. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24, 1880. I have made a careful analysis of a sample of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder purchased by me in open market. The results of my analysis show that the Cream of Tartar used in its manufacture is pure, and that it does not contain any foreign substances, such as Alum, Ammonia, Lime or other impurities. I consider it to be pure and wholesome, and in every way a superior article. W. T. WENZELL, M. D., Ph. M., P. 1. Professor of Chemistry in the Cal. Col. Pharm., University California.

FOR THE BLOOD. Swift's Specific has cured me of a malignant breaking out on my leg, which caused intolerable pain. It was called Eczema by the doctors—four of whom treated me with no relief. The above picture represents CAPTAIN S. GREENWOOD, Master of the Steamship Kanawha. About a year ago he observed a strange change in his feelings. He felt tired instead of vigorous; nervous instead of strong. His appetite became poor and his sleep broken. He tried to overcome these feelings, but they would not go. He then noticed pains and irritation in the water channels, and that the fluids passed were often thick and with a scum on top or a brick-dust sediment at the bottom. All these were the sure symptoms of that fearful disease, Catarrh of the Bladder, which has always been considered incurable, and they continued until the Captain was in a terrible condition. But he is the picture of health and vigor today, and he owes it entirely to that wonderful medicine, Hunt's Remedy. Capt. Greenwood says: "I am so certain of the great value of Hunt's Remedy, that I always carry a supply on shipboard for the uses of my men, and I prescribe it whenever they are ailing. After curing me as it did, and restoring my wife, (whom the best physicians of New York said was dying of typhoid), to perfect health, I swear by it." This Great Remedy absolutely cures all Kidney, Liver and Urinary Diseases. For Sale by all Dealers. C. N. CRITTENTON, General Agent, 115 Fulton St., N. Y.
