THE OREGON SCOUT.

AMOS K. JONES, - - EDITOR.

The Oregon Scout has as large a circulation as any two papers in this section of the State, combined, and is correspondingly valuable as an advertising medium.

AT HOME.

A Paragraphic Record of Recent Happenings in and Around the City.

A merry Christmas to all the readers of THE SCOUT.

Some elegant presents are yet to be found at Mrs. Alger's store.

The permanent survey of Hunt's line misses Phy's point about one mile.

If this issue is deficient in any way, attribute it to the holiday festivities.

Visit Hall Bro's. new store. They can suit you in holiday presents and prices.

Can anybody tell what Antonelli & Doe get for grading the branch line to Elgin?

The New Year is nearly here. Call and settle your overdue account at the Cove drug store.

The Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society meets at the Presbyterian church, Friday, Dec. 27th, at 2:30 p. m.

Jewelry, silverware, and other articles too numerous to mention, suitable for presents, at A. N. Gardner & Co's.

Mr. Alexander Barton, an old resident of this valley, died at the home of his daughter in Summerville, on the 12th inst.

Confederate bills are being circulated through California and Oregon, and many of the slick-tongued sporting men succeed in passing them.

The dance on Christmas eve was largely attended, many being present from North Powder, La Grande, Cove and other neighboring towns. All express themselves as well pleased.

That immense assortment of holiday goods at Jones Bro's. is going fast, but there are a few nice presents left, Improve the the opportunity to get something neat, nice and cheap.

The Christmas tree last night was loaded with elegant presents and contained something for every child in town. The children were very happy and entertain a high opinion of Santa Claus.

The postmaster general recommends a double postal card for return answers. This will enable one to make an inquiry by postal card and at the same time pay the postage on the reply to his inquiry.

The Pendleton Oregonian says: Thos. A. Barton, of the Cove, well known in Pendleton, is in the city on his way to Portland. He is preparing to engage in the wholesale liquor business at the Cove.

All those knowing themselves to be indebted to me, either by book account or note, are requested to settle at once or costs of collection will be added. I need the money and must have it.—WM. WILSON.

The sheriff's convention which recently met at Portland, decided upon publishing a rogue's gallery at their own expense. All the prisoners in the penitentiary will be photographed and a full description of them printed in pamphlet form.

It is estimated that for every subscriber that a newspaper has, there are five readers. Calculating upon this basis THE OREGON SCOUT has between seven and eight thousand readers every week, making it a very valuable advertising medium.

Our thanks are due to Master Arthur Rinehart for a fine lot of fresh oysters in the shell which he brought from Portland. As we set our molars in the luscious bivalves we will call down the choicest blessings on the young friend who was so thoughtful of us.

Word was received from Mr. Hunt, yesterday, instructing the railroad committee as to the right-of-way deeds and requesting that work on the right-of-way be prosecuted without unnecessary delay. This will be done. Mr. Hunt will arrive from the east on the 8th of January.

The second week in August has been fixed by Commander-in-Chief Alger as the time for holding the next annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Boston; and the Hub promises to give the veterans a thoroughly cordial and appreciative welcome.

Marion P. Martin, an old resident of Lane county, aged about seventy years, was shot and instantly killed by Mrs. M. J. Taylor on the 17th inst. Martin was making a criminal assault upon her. Mrs. Taylor was exonerated at the preliminary examination and discharged from custody.

The La Grande Gazette wants to "shake hands" with everybody, because (as it says) there is a possibility of the Hunt road being built by way of Pendleton, Starkey prairie and La Grande. We don't blame the La Granders for catching at all the straws they can, its perfectly natural, but a straw never saved a drowning man.

Thomas Martin, of this city, died very suddenly at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. James White, last Friday morning. The young man had not been in good health for several years and although he had been worse for several days prior to his death it was not thought that he was dangerously ill. The remains were deposited in the Union cemetery, Sunday. The mother and relatives have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

It is amusing to see some of the O. R. & N. railway towns trying to adjust themselves to the new order of things that will come with the Hunt railroad. Baker City now sees the danger that is in store for it and is howling for the O. R. & N. Co. to build a branch road from there to Cornucopia. The Bakerites can see what a branch road has done for Arlington and will soon see what it does for La Grande. We imagine they will not want any branch road "in theirs" no matter in what scrape this may be to straighten the business gentry of their city.

OUR SOCIAL WORLD.

Brief Personal Mention—Epitome of the Week's Amusements.

Hon. J. W. Norval was in the city, Monday.

Rev. L. J. Boothe and wife returned this week from their visit to Wallowa.

Attorney Crawford has been quite sick for a week or two, but is improving.

Mrs. O. Eckersly and Miss Minnie Bloom, of the Cove, visited Union Monday.

Miss Minnie Bishop is in La Grande and will not return till after the holidays.

Mr. E. F. Springer returned from a trip to Nebraska and Wyoming a few days ago.

Miss Lilly Levy, who has been visiting her sister at Athena, returned home Sunday.

Mr. B. F. Koger, of the Cove, called on us, Saturday, and subscribed for THE SCOUT.

Mr. Louie Lamere, of High valley, made us a pleasant and substantial visit last Tuesday.

Mr. Jas. Lowell writes to have the address of his SCOUT changed from Seattle to Snohomish.

Mr. John Denney, of Pine valley, sent THE SCOUT a subscription this week for J. A. Denney

Mr. Al. Goodbrod has been considerably under the weather recently, but is feeling better now.

Mr. Arthur Sharpstein, of Walla Walla, was married recently and will make his home on the Sound.

The dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Craig at the Depot hotel last Wednesday was pronounced a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. H. W. Lee, of Powder river, called on us Tuesday. He was on his way to Sanger where he will remain for several months.

Miss Hettie Dobbins, who has been attending school at Forest Grove, returned last Sunday and will spend the holidays at home.

Mr. Geo. Beidleman came down from Moscow, I. T. last Sunday, on a visit to relatives and friends. He returned yesterday.

Mr. S. H. Neville, of the Sand Ridge, called on us Thursday and subscribed for THE SCOUT, to be sent to H. H. McGuire, Bladensburg, Iowa.

Dr. W. E Rinehart who has been practicing medicine in Portland for several years past, will probably return to his old home in Summerville and locate there permanently.

Master Arthur Rinehart, son of Hon. L. B. Rinehart, returned last Saturday from Portland where he has been attending the military academy. Arthur is dressed in uniform and his manly deportment and military bearing excites the favorable comment of all. He will remain till after the holidays.

Mr. A. R. Robinson, one of the solid farmers of the Cove, made us a pleasant visit Monday. Mr. Robinson for some time past has been taking four copies of THE SCOUT, three of them being sent to relatives in the east. He renewed every one of them. It does a newspaper man good to meet a man like Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Wm. Wilson returned this week from his visit east. He enjoyed the trip immensely and looks much better for it. Billy is somewhat worked up over the fact that some one broke into his trunk, while on his way back, and stole an elegant gold watch and chain which he intended for a present to his wife. As the trunk was checked the railroad company will be required to make the loss good.

IMPORTANT RULING.

Testimony Taken at the La Grande Office Since Receiver Outhouse's death Void.

The register of the La Grande land office has made the following announcement: "In answer to my letter of inquiry of Nov. 15, I this day received a letter of instructions from the honorable commissioner of the 12th inst. in which I am informed that all testimony taken by me in final proof cases, since the death of the late receiver, is void." The honorable commissioner further says: "In view of the facts, however, parties whose time for making final proof is set for a day which occurs during such vacancy, will be allowed a reasonable time after a receiver assumes his duties at your office in which to offer final proof. Such proof may be submitted without republication, provided the notice already issued is regular and correct." Parties intrusted will please govern themselves in accordance with above instructions.

Holiday Excursion via U. P. Railway.

For the Christmas and New Year's Holiday season of 1889-90, the Union Pacific Railway will sell excursion tickets from all rail stations on its lines west of Huntington to any other rail station on its lines within a radius of 200 miles, at the low rate of one and one-fifth fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold December 24th, 25th, 31st, 1889, and January 1st, 1890; good going on date of sale, and good returning until January 31, 1890 inclusive. This will afford every one an opportunity to visit their friends and enjoy the occasion. For tickets, rates, time of trains, etc., apply to any agent Union Pacific Railway. T. W. LEE,

A. D. CHARLTON, Gen'l Pass. Agent.
Asst. Gen'l Pass. Agent, Portland, Or.

Perished in the Snow.

The Baker City Democrat says: "From Capt. Craig, of Eagle valley, who arrived in the city yesterday, the reporter learned that Thos. Arthur, of Brownlee's ferry, Idaho, is supposed to have perished in the snow. In company with several other men he left home last Monday on snow shoes to look after some horses that were snowed in up in the mountains. All the members of the party returned in the evening except Mr. Arthur, who they thought would return later on, but when morning came were surprised to find that he had not put in an appearance. They became very much alarmed at his continued absence and at once organized a party to search for him. Up to the present time their endeavors have been in vain and all hope of friends finding him alive is given up. It is supposed that the unfortunate man fell over a precipice and was killed or else became exhausted from hunger and fatigue and perished in the snow."

Hunt's Surveyors at Summerville.

The Annotator says: "On the arrival of the Hunt engineers, the citizens of Summerville met to have a good time and indulge the enthusiasm which is so manifest among our people. They shouted, shot anvils, and the band serenaded the town until nine o'clock, after which time, those fond of the terpsichorean art repaired to the city hall where they enjoyed themselves until a late hour. A good time was had, but we should not be given entirely to pleasure until the right of way is secured. This is the next question that demands consideration. We believe, however, that the right of way can be secured, as the farmers, no doubt can readily comprehend their situation and will act accordingly."

The Arizona Style.

This is the way they do it down in Arizona when a misguided individual monkeys with his royal nibs, the editor. The following appeared in a recent number of a valued Arizona exchange: "Died—In this city October 28, 1889, Pete Shumaker, aged fifty-four years, eight months and fourteen days. Pete was the individual who attacked us on the 21st in front of the post-office with a cavalry saber, being offended at an editorial criticising the policy of the czar of Russia towards Turkey. We let daylight into him in four places and we paid his doctor bill and funeral expenses. He sleeps well; he is better off; death loves a shining mark. Eastern papers please copy."

Profit in Fruit.

A farmer in this county sends the Pendleton Tribune the following in connection with the subject of apples: "In my orchard I have a few trees of greenings, off of which I gathered thirty-eight boxes of apples which netted me at the orchard 70 cts. per box, or $7.50 for the four trees. Taking seventy trees to the acre, which is the usual number planted, this gives a nice little return of $525 per acre. Now to find out what can be accomplished on ten acres it is only necessary to multiply a little and it will be seen that apples pay bigger and better returns, with less labor, than any other produce, not excepting walnuts or oranges.

The Goods Were Sold.

The other day a traveling peddler of notions, laces, etc., who had been making a tour of the country, found his stock was low. 'It's a cold day when a Sheeny gets left,' and as long as he could find buyers he was going to have something to sell. So he replenished his stock at the Lexington stores and then called at the residences, selling the same goods to the ladies, including the wives of some of the very merchants from whom he had purchased them. Considerable amusement resulted when the facts came out, but the laugh was not on the peddler.—Lexington Budget.

New Year's Ball at the Cove.

A grand ball will be given at Wright's hall in the Cove on New Year's eve, under the management of Mrs. M. H. Eaton. Extensive preparations are being made for the event and it is attracting widespread attention. The best of music will be secured for the occasion and a supper fit for the gods will be served. Good order will be maintained and the comfort and convenience of the guests studeously looked after. All those who enjoy terpsichorean amusement and desire to have a good time, are cordially invited to be present. Tickets, including supper, $2.50.

W; Ed. Kiddle, J. W; Geo. Wright, Treas; R. H. Brown, Sec; H. F. Burleigh, S. D; J. J. Odale, J. D; C. L. Blakeslee, Tyler; A. Levy, S. S; C. E. Davis, J. S.
