Written for THE SCOUT. THE PIONEER.

Over plain and prairie, Through the mountain pass, Always necessary.

"Water, wood and grass." Prospects oddly burnished Where no fuel grows, Chips are kindly furnished By the buffaloes.

On the desert dreary, Neither grass or hay. Oxen glowing weary, Falling by the way.

Westward still proceeding. Broncho and a steer, Looking for an Eden, Comes the pioneer.

On his wagon printed, Hidden by the dust, Destination hinted, "Oregon or bust," Reaches mountain valley. Money getting low. Thinks he'd better daily There a month or so.

Country fast in proving. Years have passed away. Tired of always moving. Settled there to stay,

Never failing rations Whiskey and cienrs. All his poor relations Coming on the cars, Loading in retirement, Travels on a pass; Still are his requirements "Water, wood and grass"—widows.

THE COVE.

News of the Week as Noted by Our Regular Correspondent.

July 30, 1890.

Miss Sarah Chrisman has finished her school near Elgin and returned e home.

E. T. Foster started on a short business trip to Huntington, Pendleton and Walla Walla, Tuesday. Do not forget the ice cream festival

Saturday evening of this week at the hall. Everybody is invited to come, cat and be merry.

Mr. S. Burroughs is shipping large quantities of shingles to Union and La Grande. They are of good quality and in demand everywhere,

Mr. and Mrs. West of East Portland on their way home from Baker City, arrived in town Tuesday. Mrs. W. is a niece of Mrs. Hendershott.

Bert Huffman the well known writer of verse and prose has thrown down the pen and is tuning his lyre to the song of a mower in lower Cove.

News of interest is not to be found. The best part of the community is busy in the hay field and have no time to get into mischief or do any thing for the itemizer to make note of.

This has been a very favorable season for garden sass in Cove. New potatoes, peas, beans, turnips, rutabagas are on every table and if less favored mortals of the valley are vegetableless, they can secure ample supplies here.

Mr. H. Harrell has a well on the Sandridge 1271 feet deep. It was driven part way and bored the rest. The water which was of excellent quali-

On account of the Summerville nine concluding not to come neither side put in an appearance is fascinated with the city. and the crowd wished it had gone huckleberrying.

Mr. A. B. Conley of the Sandridge has purchased one of the new fangled harvesting machines. It is pulled over the field by a drove of horses and cuts, threshes, cleans, grinds and makes hot rolls out of the product. Bread wagons will be supplied direct from the machine. It will be well worth a visit to Mr. Conley's mammoth farm to see this ingenious machine at work.

SPARTA.

Matters of Interest Reported by Our Regular Correspendent.

July 27, 1890.

Mr. Geo. Henderson has gone east after a mill to be erected on the Del Monte mine.

Messrs. Criley & Page have received their machine for concentrating, and will have the same in running order in a few days. Mr. Page has been quite sick since his return from Denver, but is slowly recovering. Sparta is coming to the front as a mining center. The Winter mine, owned by Marotte Bros. has been sold to a Michigan company who intend putting up a mill and other extensive improvements immediately.

Mr. Henry Rodgers had a very serious accident last week. While unhitching his team they became frightened at a passing vehicle, and ran away, running over Mr. Rodgers and bruising him up badly. No bones were broken and it is hoped that he will be out again soon.
