THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1890.

Notice to Debtors.

Several weeks ago we placed some accounts in the hands of Wilson & Hackett for collection. Some of these accounts were paid and some were not. This is to notify those who have not yet paid that the accounts have been taken from the hands of Wilson & Hackett, and all payments that are made hereafter should be sent direct to this office. We are in hopes that those who are owing us will pay up without further urging.

AT HOME.

A Paragraphic Record of Recent Happenings in and Around the City.

A refreshing rain this week. County court meets next Monday. Let us have a hog ordinance. We know of some hogs who want the earth. A large invoice of new millinery was received by Mrs. Rinehart this week. Wm. A. Leslie, a prominent citizen of Wallowa county, died last week at his home in Joseph. A license to wed was issued yesterday by County Clerk Oliver to J. H. Weaver and Cora M. Colwell. Now is the time of year to settle up old accounts. Don't fail to call at the Cove drug store at once. Farmers can dispose of their surplus chickens at the Centennial hotel. $3 per dozen will be paid in cash.

W. G. Hunter and Ben Brown are building a hay and grain warehouse at Island City. The building is 60x100 feet in size. The Annotator says there will be more grain shipped from Allied this year than from any other town and probably as much as from all the other towns in the county.

The famous Georgia minstrels entertained our people most agreeably last evening at Wright's hall. This well known organization keeps up its reputation as the best on the road.

A foot race took place in this city, near the poor farm, last Sunday between James Green of Union, and Elmer Allen, of Powder river. It was won by the former by about one foot. About $50 changed hands.

Dr. E. R. Irving, of La Grande, died quite suddenly last Saturday after a drunken spree. He attempted to cut his throat but only succeeded in inflicting a small wound. He was a member of the Psychian order.

The management of the Northwest Industrial Exposition at Spokane Falls, has set aside October 8th as Grand Army Day. A cordial invitation has been extended to all Grand Army men and Sons of Veterans to be present.

The steam threshing outfit recently purchased by Fred Nodine & Son, of this city, while being brought to their ranch from La Grande, met with a serious accident near Peeler's place last Friday. Several heavy castings about the engine were demolished.

In attempting to raise one of the iron pillars in front of the Wilson block last Saturday, the immense weight became too heavy for the men handling it and it fell with a crash. It was cracked in two places. Two of the laborers has a narrow escape from death.

The Union Pacific Company's right-of-way agent, Aho S. Watt, was in town last Monday. The object of his visit was for the purpose of negotiating with Mr. Jesse Imbler for the necessary land to establish a depot on his ranch near Summerville. The matter has not yet been settled.

The Weston Leader pays us the following compliment: "The Oregon Scout, published at Union, Oregon, is one of the brightest and most able edited country newspapers that come to us. This week it contained a one page article on the proceedings of the State Agricultural college held at that place.

The McKanlass minstrel show gave a performance in this city last Saturday night to a small audience, realizing barely sufficient to pay the hall rent. Other inferior companies will do well to note this fact and not pester our population with their presence. A deserving show always meets with the best of success.

Miss Jennie Thompson an accomplished milliner and dressmaker is now employed at Mrs. Rinehart's millinery parlors. She is an expert trimmer and can change a very ordinary hat into a symphony of harmonious shades and make it a joy forever. Mrs. Rinehart employs none but first class artists and is always the first to introduce the latest fashions. The ladies should bear this in mind.

Parties arriving from Cornucopia state that there is not an idle man in that camp. The Eastern Oregon Gold Mining company under its new management are employing miners as fast as they arrive and the camp is taking on for the first time a permanent activity. The company's 25-stamp mill will soon be started up on ore from the Red Jacket mine and will be kept running for months to come.

An effort is being made by the citizens of Sparta and vicinity to open up a wagon road from Sparta to the bridge on main Eagle where the Union and Cornucopia road crosses. This road runs by Langrell's saw and planing mills and as the road has already been built within three miles of the bridge by private enterprise, the county court should investigate and, if deserving, render some assistance in the matter.

News is received here of a most horrible accident that befell Miss Hooton at the residence of M. Andros at Island City last Monday evening. She was sitting by a table on which was a lighted coal oil lamp, and in getting up she accidentally tipped the table causing the lamp to fall to the floor. It broke and the oil lighting set her clothes on fire and before the flames could be extinguished she was horribly burned, though it is hoped not fatally.

Attorney Shelton is having a porch and bay window added to his residence, and the building repaired. Others should do likewise.

Mr. B. V. Davis, of High valley, who has had an affection of the eyes for some time past, is now in Baker City having them treated. He went to Portland recently but the physicians there afforded him but little relief.

A thief entered the residence of Wm. James, in South Union, last Friday, in the early morning, and succeeded in getting away with $120 in gold coin, which had been carefully deposited behind a bureau for safekeeping. A party here in town is suspected of the crime, but no conclusive evidence against him is yet at hand.

From a private letter received from Prof. J. D. Letcher, of the State Agricultural College, we take the following: "The college has had a splendid opening, 139 already enrolled, whilst our boarding hall has already overflowed. We have five students from Union county. Please remember me most kindly to our Union friends, whose kindness, especially that of the press, I recall with a great deal of pleasure."

Alex Jones is informed by thirteenth authorities of Fairhaven, Wash., that an assessment of nearly one thousand dollars has been made against his property there for street improvements in front of the same, and unless paid the property will be held for it. Mr. Jones also is assessed about four hundred dollars on the same lay out. Now these gentlemen have lived in Union for some time where such improvements are made at the expense of the city, and they naturally don't like this move on the part of the doggedest moss-backs of Fairhaven and refer with much pride to the progressive city council of Union.

At Last!

The long expected illustrated History of Utah by the eminent historian, Hubert H. Bancroft, has at last appeared. It is absolutely a revelation. After visiting the field in person, taking testimony impartially from all sides, carefully reviewing the enormous number of 1000 different authorities, and searching many of the secret archives of the Mormon church, Mr. Bancroft now gives to the world this wonderful and remarkable work, the only true history of Mormonism published.

The work reads like a romance—the wonderful adventures of trappers and travelers, the bloody Indian wars, the thrilling accounts of massacres and miraculous escapes, the famous Dante Association or Destroying Angels, the story of Brigham Young—all this fresh from the pen of the brilliant and gifted author forms a narrative of exciting interest, as fascinating as a novel yet true to the letter. Above all in surprising interest is the unfolding of the great Mormon question and the mysteries of Polygamy which will be read with eager interest by all classes of people throughout the English speaking world. The work is published in one large volume of over 800 pages, bound in red and gold, and grandly illustrated with steel-plate portraits of the great Mormon leaders, exquisite half-tone engravings and dazzling colored plates. It is issued by the great publishing house of the Pacific coast, The History Company of San Francisco, and can only be procured through their authorized agents. We call attention to the advertisement in another column, under heading of $25. Reward.

NOTICE.

God's Blessing to Humanity—So Says an Oregon Pioneer, Ninety Years Old. FOREST GROVE, Or., March 18.—I have used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly ninety years old, came to Oregon in 1842 in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company, and since I began using the OREGON KIDNEY TEA I enjoy good health. DAVID MUNROE.

Behind the Bars.

An individual bearing the cognomen of John McDonald, a native of Ireland, was brought over from La Grande yesterday by the constable of that precinct, charged with larceny from a person. He had an examination before Justice Knowles and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury. A special grand jury will be drawn this morning to dispose of the case, so that he will not be compelled to lay in jail until the spring term of circuit court.

Mr. H. Ward, of The Dalles, made us a pleasant visit this week. Mr. Ward taught about the first school we ever attended and, we remember distinctly, could dust off a boy's back in the most approved style. At this date we are free to say that he never warmed us up when we didn't need it.

Rev. Alfred Thompson formerly of Summerville, is now attending the North Western University at Evanston, Ill. He writes to have the address of his SCOUT changed and says "I have always found it the most newsy paper in Union county and desire it forwarded to 1333 Ridge Ave., Evanston, Ill., instead of Salem as heretofore."

Attorney J. W. Shelton, delegate from the Union Board of Trade to the convention held at Portland last Monday for the purpose of organizing a State Board of Trade, returned home Tuesday. His wife accompanied him on the trip. The delegates were entertained in a superb manner, free of charge, at the Hotel Portland, during their stay.

AT THE COURT HOUSE.

The Docket Being Rapidly Disposed of by Judge Clifford.

The citizens of the sixth judicial district who, by their suffrage, elevated Morton D. Clifford to the judgeship of their district, may well feel justly proud of their choice for that dignified position. The judge, by his good knowledge of the law, his indefatigable energy, his honesty and fairness in all things and his pleasing address, has not only gained the good will and best wishes of his constituents, but also of the citizens in general who are compelled to resort to litigation in the courts to settle their disputes. The business of the court is greatly expedited by the efficient manner in which Turner Oliver, our county clerk, performs his important duties. There is never a hitch in his department.

The docket is being rapidly cleared and the September term gives promise of coming to a speedy termination. The grand jury finished its work last Friday. They deviated from their usual custom of presenting to the court a lengthy and verbose report, but in a plain and concise manner submitted what was done. This should be made an example by future organizations of this kind. It is as follows: To the Honorable the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County: We your grand jury for the present term of this court respectfully beg leave to report:

That we have been in session five days; that we have found and returned seven true bills and five not true bills of indictment; that we have visited and examined the county poor farm and the county jail, the former we found to be in splendid condition in every respect and the county poor well treated and provided for.

We found the jail well kept but with the exception of the vault inclosure for the safe-keeping of prisoners, and recommend that the jail be made more secure, and that some suitable system of cleansing the closets be made.

We have also visited and examined the offices and books of the sheriff, clerk, recorder, treasurer and assessor, and found them all properly and neatly kept.

We find a large amount of delinquent taxes due the county and earnestly recommend that speedy action may be taken for their collection. We extend our thanks to the court for uniform courteous treatment and to the district attorney and bailiff for attention and assistance at all times.

Dated, Union, September 24, 1890. LORENZO S. KELSAY, Foreman.
