During the thirty-four days that the Spokane exposition was open fully 50,000 visitors from every State of the Union beheld the products from the Northwest. The receipts reached about $25,000, enough to pay running expenses and a little more. The plant cost $108,000, while the capital stock is only $50,000, leaving a deficiency of about $55,000 to be met by the enterprising projectors.

Miss Ella M. Smith, who died at Portland, bequeathed $40,000 to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, $5,000 each to the Women's Union, Ladies' Relief Society and the Unitarian Church, all of ing for the use of the Portland Library Association. This last bequest will amount to about to at least $150,000.

Indications are favorable for a boom in the John Day country. A person representing the Union Pacific has lately examined the coal fields of that section and reported favorably thereon. The Union Pacific people have had an eye on that section for some time. The building of the Sumpter Valley railroad is generally supposed to be backed by them, and it is reported that the road will be extended to the John Day at an early
