Pressure of private business is given as the cause for resignation.

The handsome building for the Reform School, a few miles south of Salem, is fast assuming shape, and will soon be in readiness for the erring youth of Oregon. The roof is now just about completed and the inside work well under way.

Daniel Kelleher, attorney for Dominic Coella, the Port Townsend murderer, has received an order for a stay of all further proceedings in the case, pending an appeal. Coella was sentenced to death and time fixed for his hanging December 19.

Captain Andrew Haggard, brother of Rider Haggard, who is now at Victoria, B. C., says that the commander of Stanley's rear guard, Major Barttelot, who served under him in the Egyptian war, was remarkable then for cruelty and want of consideration for all beneath him.

Agent Andrew Andover of the Navajos, who is at Albuquerque, N. M., says there is gold enough in the Carrizo mountains on the Navajo reservation to make everybody rich. An effort is being made to give the Indians other lands in lieu of the mountain country and open the gold fields to the public.

A courier has reached Albuquerque, N. M., from Anton, a small Mexican settlement twenty miles south of Las Vegas, bringing news of a terrible running fight between fifteen or twenty cowboys and a large number of Mexicans. Hundreds of shots were exchanged, and several dead and wounded are reported on both sides.

Rev. P. B. Champagne, the old French Canadian Catholic missionary, who has established a good many congregations and built several Catholic churches in Montana and Dakota, has lately been appointed by the Most Rev. Archbishop Gross of Portland to the pastorate of the Catholic missions of Linkville, Lakeview and others in the surrounding country.

William Zeckendorf, Commissioner of the World's Fair for Arizona, has brought suit against United States Marshal Paul at Tucson for $25,000 for refusing to permit him to go to the polls on election day after he had voted. The Marshal says he simply carried out the election requirements.

The cases against the Chinese at San Rafael, Cal., for catching small fish with bag nets have been postponed until next March, owing to the exhaustion of the venire in obtaining a jury. The defendants are conducting an enormous shrimp-fishing business at Point San Pedro in Marin county, and should the case be decided against them it will throw about 300 Chinese out of employment at that place.

There is considerable talk of the gold mines on the head of Sprague river in Lake county. The Gaylord Bros., original discoverers, have worked down the sides of the ledge, and have also made a tunnel into the hill. They expect to commence active work on the ledge in the spring, at which time numerous prospectors will probably be found in the hills. Assays of the quartz vary from $30 to $65 to the ton, according to the location in which the rock was found.

Over $40,000 of the amount needed to purchase Union Pacific terminals at Tacoma has been subscribed. Chairman W. J. Thompson of the committee has been notified by Engineer Bogue that only thirty-three instead of thirty-eight acres will be needed, the Tacoma Land Company having agreed to give the railroad the right of way from the passenger station to and along the water from the channel of the Puyallup river. This change will result in a saving of from $12,500 to $15,000 to the citizens of Tacoma.
