

BLINDNESS.

Shall I be ready when the shadow falls? When my eyes become's his walls...

A Singular Man. On a Baker street car the other day a man who had taken a car ticket from his wallet...

WHY DO YOU EAT?

A Pertinent Question—Violation of Nature's Law—The Penalty. Why do you eat? This query, if responded to by the majority of people...

Oysters Are in Season. She (blushingly)—Why do you say my teeth are like pearls? He (gallantly)—Because they are. I can't compare them with anything else...

Ting-a-ling-ber-rers.

Tired Stranger (2 o'clock a. m.)—I've been traveling since yesterday morning. Can you give me a quiet room where I can sleep till 10 o'clock? Don't care where it is, nor what it costs...

How to Cork Political Prophets.

Blinks—There comes Jinks. Let's get away from him. He thinks he's a political prophet, and does nothing but bore everybody he meets.

For Once.

Maiden Lady—I think I will visit a chiropractor while I am in the city. Friend—Have you corns? M. L.—No. F.—Banions? M. L.—No. F.—Why, then, visit a chiropractor? M. L.—I want to have it to say that I had a man at my feet once in my life.—Boston Courier.

Likely.

A news item says that a mule in Colusa county, Cal., was struck by lightning and paralyzed, but recovered after twenty-four hours and was as frisky as ever. It is not stated what became of the lightning, but it is inferred that it is still lingering in a hospital.—Norristown Herald.

A Temporary Loan.

Chumley—I'm in a little fix today, Brown, for money; what would you say if I were to ask you for a temporary loan of a hundred or two dollars? Brown—Well, Chumley, if the loan will be temporary, I might let you have the two dollars.—Accident News.

When Time Files.

Sweet Girl—Mercy! It's 10 o'clock. Has time ever passed so quickly with you as it does now? Devoted Lover (a traveling salesman)—Never, except at railroad dining stations.—Philadelphia Record.

Accounted For.

"I see," remarked Withers, "that the Prince of Wales wears a black silk ribbon; instead of a watch chain. Funny, isn't it?" "Well, I don't know," returned Smithers; "perhaps he's lost the ticket."—Judge.

An Unkanny Joke.

Mr. Khan, the Persian minister, who has arrived in Washington, will doubtless form a very favorable opinion of this country, if some wretch doesn't ask: "Can Khan dance the can can?"—Norristown Herald.

More Habit.

Philadelphian—That St. Louis friend of yours is the most quiet, unobtrusive, unobtrusive western man I ever met in my life. St. Louis Man—Yes; he used to be a policeman.—Philadelphia Record.
