Port Orchard Will Get the Navy Yard and Dry Dock.

The Artesian Wells Near Boise City Have a Flow Sufficient to Supply a City of 50,000.

All the gambling games at Portland, Or., have temporarily shut down.

The street graders at Port Angeles, Wash., have struck. They complain of having to submit to great hardships.

It is currently reported at Washington that Port Orchard, Wash., is selected for a navy yard and dry dock.

The Artesian Wells near Boise City have now a daily flow of pure water sufficient to supply a city of 50,000 people.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce has declared in favor of consolidating East Portland and Albina with Portland.

The inaugural ball at Sacramento, Cal., will be held on the 5th of January instead of the 16th, as originally intended.

The Lost Confidence mine of Iron Mountain, Shasta, has just shipped to Denver thirty-seven bars of silver bullion, weighing one and three-quarter tons, the proceeds of one month's run.

On behalf of Huntington & Little, contractors of Tacoma, a suit has been instituted to compel the State to pay them $48,000 for work done in the construction of the Medical Lake Insane Asylum.

The extortion and embezzlement cases against Quincy A. Brooks, ex-Collector of Customs at Port Townsend, and his chief deputy, John Harned, have been dismissed by the United States District Court.

The murderer of Mrs. Moss, near Port Angeles, Wash., has been captured, and he has confessed. He is James Woods, alias "Stubby Jim," and is aged twenty years. He was captured by the Indians.

Lillie Campbell was arrested and fined in the Police Court at Tacoma for vagrancy and drunkenness. She is a woman of about 50 years, of Spanish descent, and was one of the first settlers in Washington Territory. She once owned the property on what is now Pacific avenue, one of the principal streets of Tacoma.

The Board of Trade of Yaquina Bay have forwarded resolutions to Representative Herrmann, complaining that the contractor of mail service between Yaquina City and Newport, having taken the contract too low, has failed to carry the same, and it is asked that steamer service be put on. The department has made an order directing the Yaquina postmaster to provide special service that will make schedule time.

It is reported that the ground owned by the recently incorporated copper mining companies, the Hecla and Copper King on the Big Mashell river, near the foot of Mount Rainier, in Pierce county, Wash., has been bonded to a syndicate, who have an option on it long enough to organize and inspect the ground, and that a $20,000 plant is to be put in to make a complete test of the richness of the ore. The amount of the bond is not given.

A complaint has been filed at San Francisco against the Oregon Improvement Company by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York, to foreclose 5,000 $1,000 first mortgages which have been in existence since December, 1880, with 6 per cent. annual interest. Only one payment of $30 has been made on the interest. There are already four similar suits pending against the Improvement Company, but the one in question is on first mortgages and will probably swallow the assets in toto.

The Pomona (Cal.) Progress says: At the Chico ranch nurseries 30,000 Italian chestnut trees are to be started this season. Mr. Hanson, the proprietor, believes there will be a large demand for Italian chestnuts in a few years more. Several fruit growers near Anaheim have bearing trees of the nuts, and they make a good thing on the sale of the crops.

Suit has been begun in the United States District Court at San Francisco by Charles Heritman against the American schooner Sophia Sutherland for $1,164. Complainant shipped to go on the vessel on a seal hunt. He went off in a boat to shoot seals, but he was unable to return to the vessel. He sues to recover what he claims should be his "lay" or share of the cargo, which, when sold, brought $20,875.76.

The Southern Pacific Company has completed its estimates of fruits and vegetables shipped east over its line from January 1 to December 1: Canned goods shipments were 3,553 carloads, or about 42,400 tons; raisins, 877 carloads, or about 10,500 tons; dried fruits, 1,580 carloads, or about 18,900 tons; green fruits, 2,028 carloads, or 35,136 tons; vegetables, 1,219 cars, or 14,25 tons; total of California products, 10,137 carloads, or about 121,644 tons, an increase of from 20 to 100 per cent. in each branch over last year.

There is a coal blockade at the Black Diamond mines caused by the inability of the Columbia & Puget Sound Railroad Company to provide rolling stock to move the output of the mine. Last month the company shipped 21,000 tons of coal. Thus far this month but 3,000 tons have been moved. As a result the bankers at the mine are full, and 100 men have been idle several days during the present month. With the full force employed, the mine would yield 1,000 tons per day, if the railroad company could provide cars to move it.
