WASHINGTON.

News of the Week From Our Regular Correspondent at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 17, 1891.
EDITOR OREGON SCOUT:—

Secretary Tracy has a copy of the following, adopted by the Federation of Labor, placed in his hands, and has referred it to Commodore Folger:

"Whereas, It has come to the knowledge of the Federation of Labor that two foreigners named Olsen and Jansen, lately employed in England, came to the United States several months ago with a letter of recommendation from an English official to Commodore Folger, and within less than a week after landing in this country were employed as fourth-class machinists in the Washington navy yard; and,

Whereas, The employment of aliens by the government of the United States in the navy yards and other branches of the public service in preference to its own citizens, many of whom are vainly seeking employment, is contrary to the professed policy of 'protection to American labor,' and is, in the opinion of this body, a flagrant violation of the spirit of the contract labor law, and in the case of Olsen and Jansen a violation of the letter of said law; therefore be it

Resolved, That the secretary of the navy is respectfully requested to issue an order prohibiting the employment of aliens in navy yards or bureaux under the Navy Department in preference to American citizens, unless it can be shown that the latter are incompetent to properly discharge the duties of the positions to be filled; and that the secretary of the treasury be respectfully requested to order an investigation of the circumstances attending the employment of said Olsen and Jansen in the Washington navy yard for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the contract labor law has been violated by their employment."

Secretary Foster is in New York, but he is expected back tomorrow or Monday, and his attention will be immediately called to this matter, which has awakened great interest among the workmen, and I am told that if the secretary refuses to act, the matter will be brought to the attention of congress by Senator Peffer.

Mr. Blaine has finished and delivered to Marquis Imperiali, who was left in charge of the Italian legation by Baron Fava, the reply of the United States to the last dispatch of the Italian government. It is a very long and elaborate document, but its import is practically the same as that of the answer to Baron Fava's original demand.
This country concedes nothing and will not interfere with the administration of justice by the regularly constituted authorities of a state, but if it can be proven that any of the men lynched were Italian citizens, which has not yet been done, it will consider the payment of an indemnity to their families or heirs. As soon as he had put a copy of his letter in the hands of the representative of Italy, Mr. Blaine left town for several days, presumably to escape being questioned by the newspaper men.

Secretary Tracy's private brand of reform, which appears to be a mighty good thing, is to be given an immediate trial in two navy yards—at New York and Norfolk, he having issued an order declaring all positions of foremen and master mechanics at the first named yard vacant June 1, and at the last July 1, and convening a board of naval officers to meet at the first place May 11, and at the last June 3, for the purpose of examining applicants for the vacancies, the examinations to refer exclusively to the requirements of the positions to be filled. The experiment will be watched with interest, both by the people who wish to see politics entirely eliminated from our navy yards and by the politicians who do not.

The extension of the civil service law to include about six hundred employees of the Indian Service has excited no interest here outside of official circles, and very little there. The very men who are charged with being responsible for nearly all the Indian troubles—the agents—are not affected by the extension, which Commissioner Roosevelt says "relates mainly to the Indian school work, and touches none of the agency employes proper, except the physicians." Mr. Roosevelt also thinks that this method will result in an absolutely non-partisan Indian service. Perhaps it will.

Mrs. Halford, wife of Mr. Harrison's private secretary, died here Wednesday morning. It was her illness that prevented Mr. Halford accompanying the presidential touring party.

The remains of the late Representa-
charge of a congressional committee, Wednesday morning.

Secretary Proctor gracefully acknowledges that a seat in the United States senate would be acceptable to him and that he would not object to filling the unexpired term of Senator Edmunds, whose resignation is to take effect the first of November.

THE GOVERNOR OF OREGON.

He Will Maintain the Dignity of His Position to the Letter.

PORTLAND, April 24.—In an interview with Governor Penneyer yesterday, he was asked whether he would act on the suggestions made by the reception committee as to meeting the president at the southern confines of Oregon and officially welcoming him to the state.

He said that he should do nothing of the sort. If he, the governor of Oregon, should visit Washington, nobody would expect the president to meet him at the outskirts of the city, or elsewhere, or at all; and there is no better reason why he, as the governor of Oregon, should meet Mr. Harrison.

Mr. Harrison, explained the governor, represents, in his official capacity, the official power and dignity of the federal government; "I, as governor of Oregon, represent the state of Oregon in the same way; we are equal; I have no business to go to pay homage to him; on the contrary, when he visits Oregon, he should rather pay his respects to me, as its official executive."

AN OLD-TIME PRECEDENT.

"There is a good precedent, too, for this," said the governor. "It happened during the first administration, when Washington, while president, visited Boston. Hancock was then governor of Massachusetts, and it was supposed that he should go to receive and welcome the greatest man of the republic, President George Washington. He flatly refused to do so. He claimed that the president should first pay his respects to him, as governor of Massachusetts. The affair was finally compromised by their meeting 'half way,' and, happily for the peace and dignity of the country, an open warfare was averted."

So the governor, while quite willing to pay all respectful attention to the president that his most exalted station deserves, will maintain the dignity of his own position, and let it be known that while Mr. Harrison is president, he is also governor of Oregon.

NOTHING TO TAKE BACK.

PORTLAND, April 24.—Governor Pen-neyer today said that although his opinion, as expressed yesterday, as to the manner in which President Harrison should be received by him, was not intended for publication, yet he had nothing to retract today. He believed the opinion expressed by him yesterday that he should not meet the president at the state line, but that the president should call on him at the state house, fully accorded with the dignity of his position as governor of Oregon.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottle free at Brown's drug store, Union, Oregon.

Agents Wanted.

Our agents make $100 to $300 a month selling our goods on their merits. We want county and general agents, and will return back all goods unsold if a county agent fails to clear $100 and expenses after a thirty day's trial, or a general agent less than $50.
We will send large illustrated circulars and letter with a special offer to suit territory applied for, on receipt of three one cent stamps. Apply at once and get in on the boom. Address,
RENNER MANUFACTURING CO.,
4-9-ly Pittsburgh, Pa.

STARKEY STRIKES.

STARKEY OREGON, April 24, 1891.
Plowing is in full blast.

La grippe patients are all recovering.
Up to this writing Pat. has not seen any more cougars.

James Handaban, who has been spending the winter in Pendleton, arrived last Thursday and is now preparing to put in a crop.

Frank Chevett came in Thursday from Pendleton, with his stock, and returned the next day for his family.

James Boyd, who was injured some time ago by a U. P. snow plow, near Meacham, has been discharged from the hospital and is here on a visit to his sisters, Mrs. C. A. Tompkins and Mrs. Henry Schaffer.

A Birch creek, Umatilla county, stockman, whose name I did not learn, passed through Starkey last Saturday in search of stock range. He reports feed scarce in that section, and stock in a starving condition. Why not move to Union county and live where grass is plenty? These Umatilla county stock men run their stock into Union county during the summer, but make their home in Umatilla county and also pay their taxes there. This is an injustice to Union county settlers.
OLD SOCKS.

NORTH POWDER NUGGETS.

NORTH POWDER, April 20, 1891.
Trade seems to be flourishing.

Beautiful weather, but O! how windy!

The postoffice is moved and looks neat in its surroundings.

Another store is the latest improvement of our town. Verily North Powder boometh.

Farming is the go now, and all the farmers are getting along nicely in putting in their crops.

Mr. John O'Bryant, of Wolf creek, was severely hurt on the 16th inst. by falling from a horse, but is slowly improving.

The hills have again put on their showy garb of nice green grass, and are a beauty to behold as the cattle graze contentedly on the pasture they afford.

The sportsman is made happy by the return of the salmon, while the nonesuch many a weary tramp and nothing to return with but his empty fishing rig.

Miss Nina Bezarth, who has been sick all winter, is growing weaker all the time. There is not much hope of her recovery. We sympathize with her in her sufferings.

Solidity of the Wolf creek girls: Oh, if only that little, red, two-wheeled wagon, driven by—you know who—would come along and take us out riding, wouldn't we be happy?

Mr. John Simon's, who has been on the sick list all winter, is reported as growing better. Perhaps he will yet be able to spear the weary salmon as he slowly winds his way through the sawdust.

The whistle of the saw mill is again becoming familiar. How sad the Wolf creekers feel when they behold their irrigating ditches filled with sawdust.
It could have been prevented. Then who is to blame that it was not?

MORE AUNT.

"ANSWER."

North Powder, April 27, 1891.
We are having our biographical work.

A larger percentage of grain is put in this season than ever.

The North Powder hotel, under the management of Mr. J. H. Faulkner, is doing well.

Everybody is busy farming and the assurance of plenty of water to irrigate with promises good crops.

Salmon spearing is extensively included in just now, and a good many salmon have been caught.

The farmers alliance lodge at this place is doing well. They have long and well attended meetings.

H. O. Gorham and L. S. Kelsay have purchased, each, fine Norman stallions which they are parading on our streets.

Stoddard Bros., and the Oregon Lumber Co's mills are running in full blast, now, and turning out a good deal of lumber.

H. Rothchild and Wm. Gardner were chosen by the Odd Fellows as delegates to the Grand Lodge I. O. O.
F. which meets in May at East Portland.

North Powder Lodge No. 88, I. O. O.
F., celebrated the 72nd anniversary of the organization of their order by attending church as a lodge last Sunday, after which they all visited the photograph gallery and had their pictures taken.

OCCASIONAL.

FROM SPARTA.

SPARTA, April 25, 1891.

Not seeing any items from this burg in your paper for some time, will pen you a few lines once more.

The many friends of C. D. Reed are glad to welcome him back to our midst once more.

There are quite a good many people passing through here, en route for the Seven Devils.

Mr. Geo. W. Robinson is expected in a short time. He has been delayed by a severe illness.

Col. T. A. Hetherington is here again and says he is going to erect a mill on the Oro Dell mine immediately.

Dr. Jay Guy Lewis and wife have returned from an extended trip through the eastern states and report having had a very pleasant time.

Mr. Smith and Mayor Stevens, of Detroit, Mich., are examining the Marotte mine, owned and operated by a Detroit company. We trust they will be well pleased, as it is undoubtedly a very good mine.

Messrs. Weise and Farnsworth have bought the Sparta hotel, and took possession the 21st, J. B. Alderman's lease expiring at that time. Johnnie has gone to tilling the soil again on his ranch adjoining the town.
