The joint efforts of the people of Union and Baker counties in the matter of road construction gives evidence of the fact that these sections are not on such unfriendly terms as many might have supposed judging from the recent war of words over the pathhandle section of the former county. When it comes down to a matter of business the people of Union and Baker lay aside petty jealousies and bickerings and join hands for a common end.—Democrat.

DIED.

BAIRD.—At Glenn's ferry, Idaho, April 23, 1891, Mr. Joshua H. Baird, aged 29 years and 18 days.

Deceased was suddenly taken down with pneumonia, and died in a very few days. His wife and child were stopping with Mrs. A. E. Eaton, of this city, when the news of his illness came on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Eaton, who is a sister to the deceased, immediately started for Glenn's ferry where they arrived and administered treatment, doing all in their power to save his life, but to no avail, and on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock he expired. His request was to be buried at Union, and accordingly a telegram was sent announcing his death, and on Saturday morning the remains were brought to this city. The funeral took place from the residence of A. E. Eaton on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, services being conducted at the M. E. church by Rev. J. P. Morris. The remains were followed to the grave by a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Deceased was born in Sullivan county, Mo., April 5, 1862, and was brought to this valley in his infancy, in 1863, where he was raised. He was well and favorably known. About five years ago he went to Idaho where he has been engaged in stock raising. He was married to Miss Ida Trader, at Halley, Idaho, on Oct. 31, 1888, and afterwards moved to Glenn's ferry where he resided up to the time of his death. He leaves a wife and child, two sisters and four brothers to mourn his loss.

Thus in the prime of life there comes A voice each must obey. 'Tis heard in many happy homes, And loved ones called away.

The wife is left in loneliness; The child's an orphan now— No one to cheer, to love and bless, Or soothe the aching brow.

Yet hope survives; and comfort gives Relief to mourning soul, That in a fairer clime he lives Where death hath no control.

H. C. EMERY.

SWIGER.—Near this city, April 28, 1891, Mrs. William Swiger. The funeral took place yesterday from the Presbyterian church, services being conducted by Rev. W. J. Hughes. Deceased leaves a husband and three small children to mourn her loss.

A QUAKER'S DOZEN.

Richard Stone, the well known proprietor of the Quaker Dairy, No. 39 Ellis St., San Francisco, last week sent the following letter to the Editor W. Joy Co.

"My family have been taking Joy's Vegetable Compound for months with splendid results. Our experience has been that after taking it regularly for a short time and getting the system started right, an occasional dose thereafter keeps the system in perfect condition. A peculiarity of your vegetable compound, unexplainable to me is, that it does not have the effect, but seems to accomplish the same results continually. As a liver and bowel regulator and corrective it is perfect. We would not be without it in our house. In fact I have just bought a dozen bottles to get the reduced price."

A. M. Bone, of 122 Jones street, S. F., also writes that it has been his habit for years to awake in the morning with a headache, and an exhausted feeling; but since the first bottle he has had to return of his old time debilitating headaches.
