THE PLATFORM.

First-To labor for the education of the agricultural classes in the science economical government, in a strictly non-partisan spirit, and to bring about a more perfect union of said classes.

Second-That we demand equal rights to all and special favors to no

Third-To endorse the motto, "In things essential, unity, and in all things charity." Fourth-To develop a better state mentally, morally, socially and finan-

Fifth-To suppress personal, local, sectional and national prdjudices, all unhealthy rivalry and all seffish ambi-Sixth-To constantly strive to se cure entire harmony and good will to all mankind and brotherly love among ourselves.

Seventh-The brightest jewels which it garners are the tears of the widows and orphans, and its imperative commands are to visit the homes where lascerated hearts are bleeding; to assuage the sufferings of a brother or sister; bury the dead, care for the widows and educate the orphans; to exercise charity towards offenders, to construe words and deeds in their most favorable light, granting honesty of purpose and good intentions to others, and to protect the principles of the Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union until death. Its laws are reason and equity, its cardinal doctrines inspire purity of thought and life, its intention is, "On earth, peace and good will to men."

The following resolutions were also adopted:

That national banks as banks of issue be abolished.

That the government issue a sufficient amount of money to increase the circulating medium to not less than $50 per capita, said money to be full legal tender, all previous contracts notwithstanding.

That the government of the United States nationalize all railways, telegraphs, telephones and other natural monopolies. That all officers be elected by a direct vote of the people. That the American saloon is a curse and an evil, and should theretore be abolished. That the ownership of land be restricted to the citizens of the United States, or those who may have declared their intention to become such, and that the holding of land for speculative purposes be condemned.

be limited to the actual needs of the government, economically adminis-

That a graduated tax on all incomes exceeding $2,500 be levied.

That the coinage of silver be free and unlimited.

That the government issue at once a sufficient amount of treasury full legal tender notes to be paid over to the Union soldiers who by the contraction of the currency received but a part of their pay, while the bondholders received theirs many times over.

Crop-Weather, Bulletin No. 18.

The observer of the Oregon Weather Bureau, of Portland, Oregon, has issued the bulletin for the week ending Saturday, July 11, 1891, the same being based upon reports received from 147 correspondents, which is as follows:

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather.-The temperature has been four degrees a day below the average. The weather has been partly cloudy with general rains on 9th, 10th President-Nathan Pierce, of Milton, and 11th. In some localities nearly an inch of rain fell. Over half an First Vice-President-J. Bruce, of | inch fell in this section.

Crops.—The rains did some damage to the hay cut and down. Considerable hay has been already housed, and Secretary-Treasurer-H. W. Myers, some remains to be cut. Generally the crop has been heavier than for many years. Five tons per acre of clover hay is reported from Curry county. The wheat prospects continue to be unusually good. Twentytwo to thirty-four stalks stooled out from one grain in Yamhill county. The heads are large and berry full and plump. The grain is turning yellow on the 25th day of May, 1891, and ordering the sale of the following described heretoand harvest will begin in ten days. fore attached real estate, to wit: All the Oats and barley are promising large yields. Fruit trees are heavily laden and indicate more of a crop than was expected. Insects are few and no damage from them as yet. Hops are coming on well. The lice have not been as destructive as was anticipated. Early corn is in the silk. Early potations and beautiful and interest of the defendant, A.C. Cook, in and to the undivided one-half of NW4 of SE4 of Sec. 20, and S½ of NE34 and NW4 of SE4 of Sec. 20. Tp. 4 S. R. 40 E. W. M., in Union county, Oregon. Now, therefore, under and by virtue of said as aforesaid. I will sell at public auction at the court house door at Union, Union county. State of Oregon, on Wednesday the 15th day of July, 1891, at 1 o'clock p. m. of said day, all the right, title, interest and claim that the said defendant. Oats and barley are promising large toes have been a very full crop. Cherries are yet quite plentiful. Peaches are ripening. Warmer weather and more sunshine needed for all vegetation.

EASTERN OREGON.

Weather.—The temperature has ranged from 1 to 6 degrees a day be low the average. Partly cloudy weather and general rains prevailed, extending over the entire wheat belt of Eastern Oregon as well as Washing-

Crops.—Haying is in progress, state, for the period of one year; and in yielding well, but some has been injured by the rains. The hay crop through the stock sections is especially heavy. The rains will have a tendency to help spring grain fill better. Fall wheat has headed remarkably well and the excellent prospects continue. General reports indicate that the largest yield, per acre and total, will be obtained. Oats and barley are fine crops; in sections rye is a poor
