Summers & Layne, the tinners and hardware dealers of this city, have just completed a 2800 gallon tank for J. J. Conley, of the Sandridge. This firm has turned out several of these large tanks for wind mills, and our farmers should give them a call if they are in need of anything of this kind.

While here he appointed the firm of Smith & Waterman as the company's agents for the sale of their goods. Knowing the ingredients contained in the Montreal Stomach Bitters we bespeak for them a ready sale.—Baker City Blade.

Saturday, July 25th, was Mrs. J. P. Morris' birthday. She very quietly invited her Sunday school class and the Epworth League to spend the evening at the parsonage. A surprise was being planned at the time this was made known, and was not wholly given up, for a number of friends clubbed together and bought her a very pretty piece of goods for a summer dress. Over thirty were present, and after spending awhile in pleasant conversation and games, were served with ice cream and cake.

Allen Irwin, Moline Irwin and William Murphy, living near Telocost, were arrested last Friday upon a warrant sworn out by H. A. Burns, who charged the parties with threats to do him bodily harm. The trial was concluded Tuesday before Justice Blakeslee who bound the two men over in the sum of $500 each to keep the peace. The woman was turned loose. Burns claims to have found a piece of giant powder, with fuse attached, underneath his house, and thinks they intended to blow him up. At last accounts the men had not furnished bail.

L. B. Rinehart, who has had charge of the subscription paper for raising the woolen mill subsidy, is deserving of great praise for the manner in which he performed the work. He succeeded in raising the full amount in a very few days.

Samuel Sands, probably the oldest printer living, died at Baltimore, Maryland, on the 26th of the age of 92 years. Nearly half a century ago he published the "American Farmer," the first agricultural paper started in this country.

The road supervisors throughout the county are perhaps not aware of the fact that there is a state law requiring them to exterminate the Canada thistle in their respective districts. This is a matter that should be looked after, and each supervisor should see that the law is complied with.

The world owes its progress and its wealth to those who give thought, time and money to new industries. Those who hold back, hunt for easy places for themselves and perfectly safe places for capital, are not the greatest benefactors of mankind, nor the great openers of ways to wealth.

The Edison Electric Light company, of Spokane, will erect a line of arc lights to the ball grounds, and the work will be rushed to completion for the Seattle series, when two games will be played by electric light. Great interest is already manifested in the scheme. It is expected the electric cars will carry 5000 people to the first evening game.

We will say to our Eagle valley correspondent that the party who reported the loss of hay in that valley was probably misinformed, and had no intention of reporting anything to the detriment of the farmers there. Flying reports sometimes get into print, but we are glad to note that there is no truth in the statements made in a recent issue in regard to the matter.

Capt. A. Tyler, of Forest Grove, accompanied by W. G. Page and M. B. Fuller, two Tacoma capitalists, arrived in Union yesterday en route for Cornucopia, where Mr. Tyler is extensively interested in some mines. The party will take their departure today by private conveyance, fitted out with a good supply of provisions, etc., and will probably remain some time at Cornucopia.

A Paris dispatch of the 21st inst. says: It is now reported that two hundred people were killed or injured as a result of the St. Maude collision yesterday. Many of the unfortunate people were imprisoned beneath the wreck and drowned by the firemen who poured torrents of water upon the wreck and seemed to be utterly unaware that they were drowning the people they were attempting to rescue. Today the town of St. Maude presents a fearful spectacle. The backened bodies in rows upon the floor and tables in some cases, remain little more than a heap of cinders, intermingled with portions of limbs. One pile of charred limbs and human cinders is especially conspicuous, consisting of a mass of unidentified and unconnected bodies placed in a heap.

A WOOLEN MILL.

The Enterprise an Assured Fact at Last.

AMPLE WATER POWER SECURED.

Mr. A. E. Eaton Will Give a Bond for $25,000 for the Construction of the Mill.

For several years past a number of our citizens have been working incessantly to induce outside capital to erect a woolen mill in this city. On several occasions it was thought arrangements had been made and that we would soon have the mill, but not till the last few days have matters assumed a tangible shape. Mr. A. E. Eaton, one of our most enterprising citizens, has been working hard for the past few months and has secured two excellent water powers which, combined, will give ample power for running a very large mill. He has been in constant communication with eastern parties in regard to putting in a mill here, and now has matters so arranged that he agrees to give a bond in the sum of $25,000 to have a woolen mill completed and in operation within our corporate limits on or before July 1, 1892, in consideration of a bonus of $4,000. A subscription paper was made out last Thursday and the amount has been raised. Mr. Eaton took his departure for the east, Tuesday, for the purpose of examining the machinery and facilities of a company that is desirous of moving here. If satisfactory arrangements can be made with this firm, the mill will be moved here as soon as possible; if not, Mr. Eaton will secure aid from other parties and the mill will be built anyway.

Union may be slow, but she will surely get there. She is destined to be a manufacturing town and as soon as the woolen mill is set in operation new life will be infused in our citizens; our town will attract attention abroad; other outside capitalists will become interested; new industries will follow, and inside of two years the little city of Union will be second to none in Eastern Oregon.

Base Ball.

The Cove and Union clubs crossed bats at Union again last Sunday. The game was anything but interesting, both teams playing very poorly. The score was 31 to 31 in favor of the Cove.

The Inter-State League games Saturday and Sunday at Walla Walla between the La Grande and Walla Walla nines were won by Walla Walla by a score of 15 to 4 and 5 to 3. The Baker team won Saturday's game at Pendleton by a score of 15 to 11, but Pendleton won the game Sunday by a score of 12 to 7.

The Summerville base ball club visited Baker City last Saturday and Sunday and defeated the Polar Bear club of that city in two games.

There is some talk of a purse being hung at Eagle valley during the Harvest Home picnic, for base ball teams, and our boys are talking of going over. They will have to do better than heretofore if they expect to win.

Ed. Segamond and H. C. Clark were arrested at La Grande last week on a charge of larceny. It seems that Segamond stole some goods during the recent fire and Clark assisted in hiding them. An examination was held and they were both placed under $250 bonds to appear before the next grand jury. Failing to give the necessary bonds they were brought to Union yesterday by Constable Jo Jones and placed in jail.

The fence enclosing the school building is in a very bad condition. It is a common practice of the school children to break down the fence, knock off the pickets and mutilate the furniture and everything connected with the premises. It seems as though some one should be held responsible for their acts. In our opinion the directors should hold the teachers responsible for the care of the building and surroundings during school terms. The parents of such children should be made pay for damage to school property.

It is rumored that Colonel Houghton will tender his resignation as colonel of the Third regiment to take effect September 1st. This is, of course, a matter which largely concerns the colonel and regiment, but we shall be sorry, indeed, if the colonel's resignation should result in the removal of headquarters from this place, as, in the opinion of some, is likely to be the case, and sooner still if the city should lose that which has, for so long, been the pride and pleasure of the community—the regimental band.—The Dalles Chronicle.

News has reached this city in regard to a young man in the vicinity of Elgin who is running wild and creating terror among the residents of that neighborhood. It seems he is laboring under the hallucination that he is a horse or some wild animal and runs about the country with only a shirt on, eating grass, and performing many strange and curious feats. The father of the young man has been notified to bring him before the proper authorities for examination, but as yet he has not been captured. A warrant of arrest will probably have to be served and an officer dispatched to capture him if he is not brought in soon.

The county court should make some provision to enlarge the county jail. The present building is insufficient to accommodate the prisoners now confined therein, and from present indications the jail will be full to overflowing before the next term of court. If the county fails to furnish a sufficiently large and safe place for keeping prisoners, the sheriff should not be blamed if any of them make their escape. Union county is rapidly increasing in population and the number of crimes is becoming more numerous, and there is no reason why the present county buildings should not be enlarged in order to meet the demands.

A Normal Institute.

Prof. Strange informs us that preparations are being made to hold a normal institute in this city, commencing August 17th and continuing two weeks, to August 25th. The following lecturers will be present: Prof. F. Rigler, Oregon City; Supt. D. W. Jarvis, Umatilla county; Prof. A. D. Carper, Pratt, Kansas; Supt. H. S. Strange, Union; Prof. D. Vanscoy, D. D., Portland; Rev. A. Le Roy, D. D., La Grande, and others. The day sessions will be devoted to normal work for teachers. The evening sessions will be devoted to music, recitations, lectures, etc. All teachers and friends of education are invited to be in regular attendance.

Written for THE SCOUT, A Dream.

I met a charming maiden, That seemed not born of earth; With smiles her lips were laden, As one of heavenly birth. Her sylph-like form of beauty I cannot ever explain, But it seemed to be my duty, Her a moment to detain. Can you tell me, pretty stranger, Of your country and your home? "Yes, there is naught of harm or danger In the land from whence I come." Do the birds, their carols singing, Rest within your shady bowers? "Yes, on leafy sprays they're swinging At the dawn of morning hours." Have you grassy hills and mountains, With their balmy, fragrant air? "Yes, and many rills and fountains With their finny tribes, are there." Have you flowers in gardens blooming, With their petals fair and bright? "Yes, that sweetly are perfuming All around with pure delight." Have you school and pupils learning? "Yes, close by a purling brook, And their minds are truths discerning As they study Nature's book." Is there labor in your home, Or aught but endless rest? "All most labor when they come To make each other best." Have you no idle pleasures, Your labors to console? "We find our richest treasures As we help some darkened soul." "Farewell," said she, "I now go home, I can no longer stay, But when you leave this land to come, We'll meet you on the way." —H. C. EMERY.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

The Road to Wealth. Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors. DR. HENLEY'S English Dandelion Tonic exerts a specific influence over the liver, excites it to healthy action, resolves its chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their popularity purely on their merits.—R. H. Brown, Druggist, Union, Oregon.

CLEAR YOUR FACE.

It has been heretofore shown to these columns that modern medicine has demonstrated that a pimply skin is not the result of blood diseases, but is caused by impaired digestion, for which they now give vegetable correctives instead of potash and mineral blood purifiers. Two short testimonials are here given to contrast the action of the potent sarsaparillas and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. C. D. Stuart of 1221 Mission street, S. F., writes that she took one of the leading sarsaparillas for indigestion and dyspepsia. Its only effect was to cause pimples to appear on her face. Upon taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla the first effect was the disappearance of the pimples and she was subsequently relieved of her indigestion and dyspepsia. Robert Stewart also writes from Petaluma, Cal., that being troubled with boils he found that one of the leading sarsaparillas actually increased the eruptions, which responded at once to Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and disappeared almost immediately.
