A company to construct a single rail and saddle-truck railway system has been incorporated in Oregon.

The creditors of the big cable company of Los Angeles are crowding it. A suit for a foreclosure on the second mortgage has just been entered.

Portland is thoroughly discussing the proposition to overcome the Columbia-river obstructions by a portage road around them at The Dalles.

There is trouble threatened at the Gallup (N. M.) coal mines. A proposed attempt to put in colored workers, it is thought, will produce a riot.

The Southern Pacific Company will not accept the reduced freight rate fixed by the Oregon Railway Commission, and a test case will probably be taken into the courts.

The Bear Valley Company has commenced its work in San Bernardino county, Cal., of building a new and expensive dam. Two years' time will be required to finish the work.

Artesian water has been struck near North Yakima, Wash., at a depth of 400 feet, and the flow increases as the bore goes down. The large body of arid land in that section has consequently assumed valuable importance.

Southern California proposes to furnish the Eastern markets with winter vegetables. There are three months in the year when the Southern California producer will have comparatively no competition in the Eastern market.

An art picture was ordered from the show window of a store at Los Angeles, and the proprietor substituted the portrait of Chief Glase, who is the Anthony Comstock of that city, and by whose orders the original picture was removed.

The latest news from La Plata, the new mining town in Ogden Valley, is to the effect that the first reports are fully confirmed. An immense body of ore has been discovered, which assays upward of 70 per cent. of galena and 44 to 55 ounces of silver.

All the region neighboring to Ogden, U. T., is excited over the discovery of lead deposits about twenty-five miles southeast of Ogden at the head of Paradise Canyon. The ore is found in enormous quantities, and a second leadville is predicted by the sanguine finders.

Captain Pasquel and Captain Jose of the Cocopah tribe of Colorado-river Indians, with forty-seven followers, are at San Bernardino, Cal., for the purpose of getting work for the Indians, whose crops and homes had been destroyed by the great earthquake in their country.

At the meeting of the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors the District Attorney presented an opinion that the avoidance of possible litigation is not sufficient ground to authorize the expenditure of county funds for the proposed purchase of the Bishop hydrocyanic gas fumigating process.

The discovery of gold on Soldier creek, four miles west of Harney, Or., consisting of quartz and placer, bids fair to create a little fever, for it is now evident that there is gold to be found in paying quantities. Miners of experience say the placers will pay $10 or $12 per day and expenses to the man by sluicing.

The City Council at Victoria, B. C., has decided to submit to the people by-laws appropriating nearly $3,000,000 for railway subsidies. One million is to be Victoria and North American Railway, or Northern Pacific, and the other to connect the Canadian Pacific at New Westminster with the roads at Blaine.

Indian Agent Cole has completed the work of enrolling the Couer d'Alene Indians entitled to a share in the distribution of $50,000 paid by the government for the lands recently ceded. It is found that 420 Indians are entitled to a share of this money, and that each will receive $1,100. Many of the Indians are already well to do.

The case of the Oregonian Railway Company (limited) against the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, which has been before the courts for several years, has been finally settled at Portland in the United States Circuit Court by the entry of an order made by Judge Deady approving the report of Master in Chancery Durham as to the receiver's accounts and discharging the receiver, G. N. Scott.

The litigation over the infected orange trees imported from Tahiti and now at San Pedro, Cal., is likely to be interesting. Alvin R. Meserve, who owns the shipment, has filed a complaint in the township court charging G. J. Mitchell, Secretary of the Board of Horticulture Commissioners, with having committed the crime of perjury in swearing to the affidavit upon which the injunction was issued.

Two men, who have followed the Colorado river, report that two or three miles from the junction of the New river and the Colorado a large sandbar has formed clear across the latter river below where it has cut through its banks, and as the bar is gradually growing larger, unless it is cut through, allowing the Colorado to resume its old course, a permanent flow will be maintained into the Colorado Desert.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

An Abridgement of News Collected at Washington City.

Governor Toole of Montana has informed the acting Secretary of War that in compliance with a petition of the citizens of Custer county the cavalry detachment at Tongue river is ordered from its camp there to the Indian agency on that river. In the opinion of military commanders this force will be sufficient to guard the interests of both Indians and settlers.

Acting Secretary Nettleton has signed an order dispensing with the services of Mrs. Catherine McGuire, an assistant keeper of the light station at Marquette, Mich. A singular feature of this case is that the woman's dismissal is based on complaints made by her husband, who is keeper of the station. He charges her with inattention to duty. In reporting on the case the inspector of the district suggests that the appointment of a man as assistant keeper would be best for the interests of the service.

Information has been received at Washington of a very important change made in the Mexican Custom-house regulations. Under the old system all goods imported were subject to two examinations—one at the port of entry and another in the Custom-house where the goods were delivered. By the rule just adopted the last inspection is dispensed with, the goods thoroughly examined upon their entrance into the country, sent to their destinations with due precautions and delivered to consignees upon presentation of proper documents.

Statistician Dodge of the Department of Agriculture says: "The year promises to be one of abundance in almost all lines of agricultural production. Preliminary returns of acreage made the wheat area about 40,000,000 acres. On that basis the crop should not fall below 525,000,000 bushels. Oats are the least promising of any cereals. Acreage in rye is little changed, but the August condition is better, promising a larger crop. Barley acreage is apparently the largest ever seen, and the present condition warrants that the crop will be considerably above the average."

For some time Sir Julian Pauncefote has been anxiously endeavoring to arrange a basis of negotiation with Blaine with respect to reciprocal trade between Canada and the United States, but with indifferent success. Premier Abbott sent a secret commission a few weeks ago to make an effort to establish an entente cordiale. This agent when at Washington submitted Sir Julian Pauncefote's memorandum to the effect that the present Dominion government was willing to have a reciprocity trade with such articles as are not imported into Canada in large quantities from England. Sir Julian now feels in a position to offer the United States reciprocity in coal, grain, meats, cattle and live stock, leather of all kinds, glassware, agricultural implements, flour and meal, paper manufactures, kerosene oil, cars, carriages, fish, metal goods, fertilizers, earthen and china ware and a number of other important articles.

PORTLAND MARKET.

A Resume of the Condition of its Different Departments.

Fruit dealers have their stocks pretty well cleaned up. Receipts are light. A few watermelons have arrived. Very few peaches have been received. Pears, apples and plums were quite plentiful and met with good sale. Tomatoes are about the only fruit that can be called in good supply. The stock is of fair quality, but is not in good demand. The market for country produce is weaker. Receipts of poultry were large. Butter is coming in freely, both Oregon and Eastern, and dealers do not expect to maintain present prices any length of time. The egg market is by no means overstocked. In other lines a good trade was experienced.
