PACIFIC COAST.

Huge Cave Discovered Near Shasta.

IT IS LINED WITH RICH ORE.

Southern California Citrus Exhibit Will be Continued at Chicago Until the Fair.

Spokane is to have a medical college. The main crop of California will be the finest ever produced.

The verdict on the railroad accident, in which Mail Agent Quimby was killed, was that the road was not to blame. The intense heat had spread the rails.

At a citizens' meeting at Needles it was decided to prohibit the erection and future maintenance in the town limits of Chinese laundries and opium joints.

The Oregon and Washington Railway Company failed to file a statement at Salem as required by law, and the Governor has been asked to have the law enforced.

It is reported at Shasta that in running a tunnel at Iron Mountain a mammoth cave was discovered in the bowels of the earth, lined with an exceedingly rich body of ore.

A special committee for the purpose of drafting an ordinance for the planting of trees and parking of streets has been appointed in Tacoma.

Graders are at work on the eastern end of the Lake Washington branch of the James-street electric and cable line street railway at Seattle.

The government architect, who has been looking at the sites selected for the public building intended for Stockton, is not satisfied with either of them, and will receive more proposals.

Circuit Judge Boise at Salem has decided the suit brought by the Union Pacific against the Oregon State Board of Railroad Commissioners for fixing a rate for grain charges against the Board.

The Southern California citrus exhibit will be continued at Chicago until the World's Fair in 1893. Many people have already been drawn to the southern part of that State through the influence of the exhibit.

It now looks as though the shipments of oranges and lemons from Riverside would foot up for the season very nearly 7,500 carloads. Already about 1,425 carloads have gone, and there is still quite an amount to go forward.

New Mexico has dedicated her first public schoolhouse. It is located at Las Vegas. Prize fights are, however, advertised with the information portrayed in glaring letters that "ladies with escorts will be admitted free."

Los Angeles is indignant at the manner in which the statistics for that section are given in the "Directory of Grape Growers," just issued by the Board of Viticultural Commissioners. It is claimed the figures for Los Angeles and San Bernardino are incorrect and absurdly below the acreage under cultivation.

Robert Evans, an experienced prospector, has just returned to San Diego from the Colorado Desert. He was nearly all around the Salton Sea, and says that the water is about holding its own in spite of the enormous evaporation. He does not believe there is any likelihood of the sea drying up, but that it will be largely augmented during the coming winter and be a permanent body of water.

A remarkable juvenile offender has come to light in the person of Lewis Case, a fifteen-year-old boy of Los Angeles. He confessed recently to setting fire to the Figueroa Hotel. He now admits having set fire to the Methodist Church on Fifteenth street, a Chinese laundry, a stable, a grocery store and a fire-engine house, which he first burglarized while the force were away fighting one of his conflagrations. He says he set fire to the church because his Sunday-school teacher was inconsiderate to him.

A horrible murder has been unearthed, committed at the eastern corner of San Luis Obispo county, Cal. On June 7 last Martin Heines disappeared, leaving no trace behind him. Within the last few days his blanket and clothes were found sunk in a well, filled up with stones and fragments of bones and flesh, showing that he had been hacked to pieces with an ax, which was found buried in a bog hollow near the shanty of John Silvia Gualarte, a pre-emptor, for whom the man worked. A coroner's jury found Heines was murdered by Gualarte. The evidence tends to show that Gualarte had killed Heines by shooting him in the back, and that he then chopped him up and fed the pieces to his dogs.

The Coast Labor Convention, just held at San Francisco, has adopted resolutions favoring one or more competing railroads into that State; instructing its Executive Committee to keep the general labor press of the East well advised as to the true state of the labor market on this Coast; favoring high taxation upon all land held for speculation, and recommending the government ownership of railroads and telegraph lines. A resolution endorsing the boycott on the Dunsmuir Wellington Coal Company was passed, asking all subordinate councils and unions to take active steps in the matter. Armstrong presented a resolution warmly sustaining the striking miners of Washington in their fight, and calling upon organized labor to render them financial and moral support, which was adopted; also a resolution endorsing the fight of the printers against the Los Angeles Times; also endorsing the boycott of the Weinhard brewery of Portland and calling on all of the Northern unions to push it. After deciding that the next annual session should be held in Seattle the convention adjourned for one year.

A "school for domestics," the first of its kind, is to be opened in St. Petersburg. The object will be to teach poor women all kinds of household work, cooking, mending and sewing linen; also dress and shirt making.

Eugene Davenport, professor of agriculture in the Michigan Agricultural College, has been appointed professor of the college which is to be established in Brazil. He is to receive $6,000 a year, with a house and living expenses.

The students of the Kansas State University have organized a German eating club. The object of the society is not to cultivate an appetite for sauerkraut and blood pudding, but to perfect the Teutonic pronunciation of its members.

Dr. W. R. Harper, President of the new Chicago University and for some years Principal of Chautauque College of Liberal Arts, has been appointed Principal of the entire Chautauque system. Bishop Vincent retains his position as Chancellor.

Official reports of the great manufacturing centers of Russia show that 21,810 persons are employed in the various factories, and of this number only 6.8 per cent. are able to read and write, 93.2 per cent. being illiterate. One-third of the educated laborers are foreigners.

The Russian Ministry of Education proposes to make primary education compulsory in such villages as are provided with public schools. Free circulating libraries will be established in all such village schools under the management and supervision of the clergy.

The University of Zurich is considered one of the best places in Europe for a woman to study medicine, and has many American students. It has the usual four faculties, viz.: law, medicine, theology and philosophy, that of medicine being the best equipped. Zurich also offers fine opportunities for the study of modern languages.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Great Powers Will Act Jointly in Protecting Chinese Missions.

It is reported the administration is considering the advisability of making an overture for the acquisition of the island of St. Thomas as a naval and commercial station.

Mrs. Blaine is constantly in receipt of letters urging her to use her influence with the Secretary of State to induce him to correspond with Lord Salisbury on Mrs. Maybrick's case.

Many rumors are in circulation in the neighborhood of the State Department on the subject of Hawaiian annexation. It is believed that in the near future the question will become the most engrossing one before the American people. There are those who think they can foresee trouble between the United States and Great Britain, in which the cluster of islands in the Pacific ruled over by Queen Liliuokalani will prominently figure.

An order has been issued by the Commissioner of the general land office for the survey of the Fort Hall military reservation at Pocatello, Idaho, upon the request of Senator Dubois, who is in Washington. The survey is preparatory to the allotment of the lands in severalty to the Indians on the Umatilla reservation at Pocatello, which have heretofore been in the way of the development of that town. It is said the Union Pacific Railroad Company is considering the problem of building shops at Pocatello.

A week ago Secretary Tracy remarked: "If the American missions and American citizens in China are to rely upon gunboats instead of the Chinese government, our fleet in those waters must be very largely increased." While there is no formal alliance, yet the United States government has reached an understanding with the governments of Great Britain, France and Germany, by the terms of which, in the event of the failure of the Chinese government to afford adequate guarantee for protection of the lives and property of citizens of these nations, that duty will be undertaken by the governments of Great Britain, France and Germany, acting jointly. In case of any of the four nations will afford a refuge to the citizens of the other nations, and will undertake to protect their consulates and other interests.

Treasurer Nebeker has issued a circular, intended particularly for the Pacific Coast section of the country, giving information as to how persons can obtain fractional silver coin from the San Francisco subtreasury and the United States mint at that place. The circular says the fractional silver coin (halves, quarters and dimes) will be furnished in sums of $200 or more by express, free of charge, or by registered mail in sums or multiples of $50, registration free, for drafts collectable at San Francisco or for the deposit of currency or gold coin made in the San Francisco subtreasury. Drafts in payment must be drawn to the order of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States, San Francisco, and should be mailed directly to that office. New quarters and dimes in amounts of $200 or more, if desired, can be forwarded from the mint of the United States at San Francisco, and drafts in payment thereof should be drawn in favor of the Superintendent of the mint and mailed directly to that office. Silver coin will not be shipped from San Francisco to localities nearer to the subtreasuries at Chicago, New Orleans and St. Louis.

The supply of natural gas at Pittsburg is becoming exhausted.

Jay Gould is said to be after the Denver and Rio Grande road.

Sixty-two convicts are awaiting death in various United States prisons.

Corn in the field is selling as high as $20 an acre in Platte county, Mo.

The story that the Atchison has control of the Rio Grande is denied.

Oklahoma yearns to be invested with the dignities and attributes of Statehood.

The New England tobacco crop is bigger and better this year than ever before.

The Methodist Michigan Conference has voted to admit women as lay delegates.

A census of New York dogs will be taken, as Mayor Grant wants every one licensed.

A little over $14,000,000 of 4½ per cent. bonds remain to be extended or redeemed.

The State National Bank at Boston has had $18,180 returned to its conscience money.

Thirty sod growers from different parts of the country have put in bids for decorating the World's Fair.

A Baltimore grand jury has declared that the prevalence of gambling there is due to negligent city officials.

Chicago traffic officials are grumbling because the bulk of the wheat traffic from Kansas and Nebraska is going to St. Louis.

Secretary Tracy awarded the contract for building torpedo boat No. 2 to the Iowa Iron Works of Dubuque, Ia., the lowest bidder, at $111,500.

Texas has a fat man's association, the initiation fee of which is a cent a pound. Men who weigh less than 225 pounds are ineligible to membership.

The death of a large number of Indians in Oklahoma as the result of eating watermelons emphasizes the great disinclination between the red man and the negro.

United States 2 per cent. bonds are quoted at 99½ and British 3 per cent. consols at only 95. We certainly have a right to boast of the splendid credit of our government.

The opening of the Monterey and Gulf railroad to Tampico, Mexico, has produced wonderful activity in trade. The exports at Tampico, it is predicted, will exceed those of Vera Cruz by January.

It is probable that, as soon as a new system of inspecting cattle has been thoroughly tested, American cattle will be allowed to enter British ports free from the ten days' quarantine now imposed.

Commissioner Owen of Washington, D. C., has directed that fifteen Russian Hebrews, who entered the United States at Suspension Bridge, N. Y., be returned to Canada. They were in an utterly destitute condition.

The arrest of Manuel Seona, attache of the Spanish legation, for overdriving a horse at Cape May is likely to cause serious trouble, as it is claimed there was no cause of action, and the Spanish Minister has taken up the case.

A small oblong steel box passed through the Chicago Customs-house a while ago. It didn't look like much of a box, but it contained $150,000 worth of diamonds and rubies for an Illinois watch company, and the duty was a small fortune.

In the treaty with the Sac and Fox Indians the words "open to white settlement" occur. These words are apt to cause some trouble. The Indians say they will insist on their stipulations and will not permit negroes to take land in their country.

Chinamen are making great efforts to enter the country at Richmond, Vt., and the customs officials are on the alert. Quite a colony has been at Sutton, Quebec, for two weeks, awaiting a favorable opportunity to smuggle themselves into the United States.

The American Agriculturalist declares that the half has not been told about the European shortage in breadstuffs, which not even a bountiful crop this year would have relieved. The continental powers, especially Russia, have suppressed the facts.

The wealthiest insane asylum in America is said to be the Sheppard Asylum in Baltimore. It was endowed in 1857 with $500,000. Since that time the trustees, using the interest alone, have expended $880,000 in buildings and land, and still have a capital of $600,000.

A special to the New York Evening Post from Washington says: New York may get another Cabinet portfolio out of the present shifting of things preparatory to the great campaign. It has developed that Platt and Hiscock have agreed to join their forces to put Belden in, and it is believed just now that the scheme will succeed. Belden, if appointed, will probably be given the War Department.

Irving M. Scott of the Union Works, San Francisco, was at the Navy Department the other day, arranging matters connected with work now being done by his firm for the government. He stated that the coast-defense vessel Monterey was so near completion that it would probably be ready for the contractor's trial in October and thus be available for the official trial early in the winter and undoubtedly be commissioned in the spring.

Governor Buchanan of Tennessee wired Governor Brown of Kentucky that he had reliable information that Kentucky miners were preparing to release convicts in the mines at Briceville, Tenn. Governor Brown said he would do all he could to prevent a raid of that character, but called Governor Buchanan's attention to the fact that Kentuckians doing unlawful acts in Tennessee are liable to punishment under the laws of that State.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ex-Queen Natalie Sues Her Husband for a Large Sum of Money.

Bret Harte is getting on finely. His English publishers paid him last year $15,000.
