

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

The Editorial Barrens Which a Genius of the Press Has to Bear Gracefully.

We extract the following items from the last issue of the Arizona Kicker:

THEY WILL KNOW MONA.—A combination, calling itself the Acme Opera company of Chicago, gave a show of some sort at Reynolds' hall last Friday night.

NOT SAYING A WORD.—Many of our subscribers are asking why the Kicker has nothing to say in favor of either of the local tickets now in the field.

There's nothing mean about us. We simply want what is due to the profession, and what has been granted it from time immemorial.

We have been warned that we must come out and support one ticket or the other, or go to the wall.

Nor JUST YET.—The Tom Cat Silver Mining company sent us a certificate of stock of the face value of $500 last week and asked us to editorially mention the fact that the mine would prove one of the greatest bonanzas of the age for investors.

THEY TOOK EXCEPTION.—Tall Bill, of the Gem Saloon, Ohio George, of the Arcade Poker Rooms, and Lovely Jim, of the Red Front Sink of Iniquity, took exception to our kindly remark in last week's issue that whisky and poker were trying to run the town.

We don't claim to own this town, and we never set out to run it, but we propose to talk in plain English on all subjects and guard the public interests to the best of our ability.

An Early Riser.—"Pat, you must be an early riser. I always find you at work the first thing in the morning."

Plenty of Them.—"Who is that man you were talking to, Cuzmo?" "I don't know him, Fangle; but he says he belongs to the most numerous branch of the Grant family."

He Demonstrated It.—A picture showing a man demonstrating something to a group of people.

Why, Mr. Brown, what is the matter? exclaimed a young lady as the gentleman who was calling on her leaped from his chair in intense dismay.

"Nothing," I was simply demonstrating a problem in physics for your little brother."

"A problem in physics?" "Yes, keep the points of support are sufficient to keep a properly bent in a given position until disturbed by some outside force superior to that of gravity."

Life Without Liquor Valueless.—One often hears of people killing themselves because they could not control their appetite for intoxicants.

Three score years in prison! It is rare indeed that a criminal survives that length of confinement.

CAPTURING A MURDERER.

Run Down in the Streets of San Francisco by an Old Acquaintance.

"Stop him! Stop him! He's a murderer!" Such a frantic cry as this naturally raised an excitement on the border of Chinatown, San Francisco, where it was heard the other day.

Of course, scores of men joined in the pursuit, and at length two policemen caught the fugitive in the rear of a restaurant, through which he had run.

He gave his name as Patrick Spain, late sergeant of Troop L, Fifth United States cavalry, but retired lately by reason of his age.

A few weeks ago the old sergeant encountered him in Los Angeles, but he escaped. This time the sergeant determined to have him and he did.

Many are the strange conditions set down in wills by eccentric testators. It is because she cannot comply with certain requisites that Mrs. Laura Fulton, aged thirty, of Atchison, Kan., is unable to grasp a fortune.

The marriage of Mrs. Haffenden and Mr. Fulton occurred about a year after the death of Watson, but they lived together only a few months.

The detective is made the subject of all sorts of stories—heroic, romantic, deplorable and ludicrous. A gentleman writing to a London paper says that as he entered a railway carriage the other day he recognized in the compartment a well known detective.

Whenever man attempts to improve on nature, nature nearly always demands an appealing sacrifice of human life. Hardly a great building has gone up, a huge bridge spanned a river or a line of transportation completed where the cement has not been mixed with human blood.

Why Don't You Advertise? "Sharp practice" is a thing which the courts of England seem to hold in great disfavor.

The Downfall of Edward Noland. Edward T. Noland was state treasurer of Missouri—he is now a convict, sentenced to two years in state prison.

Under the circumstances the public naturally wants to know how the jury arrived at the verdict.

SHE ASKS HEAVY DAMAGES.

A Story of a Suspicious Clerk and an Irate Actress.

Fifty thousand dollars is all that Mabel Sterling, actress and elocutionist, wants of Simon Leland, clerk of the Manhattan Beach hotel at Coney Island, and if she and her brother tell the truth she was indeed badly treated there.

MABEL STERLING.

After traveling as a star for four years and then as elocutionist and vocalist, her health gave way and she went down to Manhattan beach to recuperate.

She and her brother declare that Clerk Leland entered the room in a rude and insolent manner and peremptorily ordered her to leave the house at once.

A Fortune Beyond Her Reach. Many are the strange conditions set down in wills by eccentric testators.

Wanted Particulars.

Miss Ethel—Poor Clara! I'm so sorry for her. You knew that she had lost her sister, didn't you?

Young Fitzherbert (absentmindedly)—No; I hadn't heard about it. Where did she lose her?—Judge.

Cruel Work. Skeezicks—You must be hard hearted to do so much embroidery.

Miss de Temps—Why? Skeezicks—Because it is such crowd work.—Lawrence American.

Anonymous. Teacher—Anonymous means without a name; write a sentence showing you understand how to use the word.

Small Girl (writes)—Our new baby is anonymous.—Life.

"August Flower" For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician.

A worn-out with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it.

W. B. Utsey, St. George's, S. C., writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an excellent remedy.
