LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A Paragraphic Record of Recent Happenings in and Around the City.

For groceries call at the new store.
For fine job printing call at The Scout office.

Closing out at cost, at the post office store, 12-3-4w.

The best job printing can be procured at this office.

The Scout subscription list is rapidly increasing.

Dr. North is permanently located at Union, Oregon, 11-19-1f.

Read the ad. of S. D. Williams, the grocer, in this issue.

Mr. James Rinehart, of Summerville, was in the city a few days ago.

A fine line of books, albums, Christmas and New Year's cards at Hall Bros.

Work has been delayed on the city hall on account of being short of brick.

Williams, the new grocer, one door north of Driver & Martin's blacksmith shop.

Mr. Geo. Beidleman was over from La Grande, Sunday, visiting relatives and friends.

For school books and supplies call on Geo. Baird, one door north of the Centennial hotel.

S. L. Hunter, who has been in Boise City for some time past, returned to Union Monday.

The finest display of dolls, vases and Japanese goods in town at Geo. Baird's variety store.

R. C. London called at The Scout office Monday and subscribed for the paper. He will reside in Union for some time to come.

Don't get a set of teeth that will rattle around in the mouth. Go and get a perfect fitting set at Dr. North's dental parlor, Union, Oregon, 11-19-1f.

Santa Claus has established headquarters at Hall Bros. again this year, where everything that is nice and pretty for Christmas presents can be found.

Do you want to secure a life size portrait of yourself or any of your family? If so it will pay you to call at Levy's store where you can get them free of charge.

Mrs. Arba Holbrook, of La Grande, has been visiting her parents in this city for the past week or two. Her little girl, Mabel, has been quite sick, but is much better now.

Mrs. Guild, who has been visiting in the east for some months past, returned last Thursday accompanied by her brother. We are pleased to note that she is improved in health.

The steamship Eastern Oregon, while being repaired on the gridiron at Olympia last Thursday, took fire and was totally destroyed. She was owned by the Oregon Improvement Company, and was valued at $180,000.

Centralia, Wash., was visited by a destructive fire last week. The loss is estimated at $400,000. The Centralia News office was among the losses. It is one of the best weekly papers in that state and will no doubt soon resume publication.

The sad intelligence of the death of John Buckman, which occurred Monday, at the home of his parents, on the Sand Ridge, has been received. He came home from Salem a few weeks ago, where he has been attending school, ill with typhoid fever, which resulted fatally.

A. T. Merwin, the Lower Powder stock grower, last week delivered at the stock yards in Baker City, fifty head of brood mares sold by him to Messrs. Hine & Calvin, of Evansville, Indiana, who will put the mares on a stock farm for breeding purposes. The mares were shipped over the Union Pacific.

S. D. Williams, late of Arkansas, has opened up a grocery store in the building just north of Driver & Martin's blacksmith shop. He has a nice new stock of staple and fancy groceries, confectionery, etc., and is selling them on a very small margin, for cash. Parties in want of goods in this line will do well to give him a trial.

The post office department has issued orders that hereafter circulars having anything printed on them with a rubber stamp will have to be paid for as first-class matter. The order is passed on the principle that the stamp is nothing more or less than writing, from the fact that it is used as a pen and the legends it produces are as individual as those of a pen.

A Victoria Chinaman recently married "a Mexican woman." But he soon wanted a divorce. In his plea he complains that she has "too muchee talkie with neighbors, too muchee paint face and eye brows, too muchee drink Yul-pean blandy, too muchee fight, too muchee snore, too muchee boss, too muchee deam, too muchee say 'killum husband,' and too muchee so good."

But the court held the Chinaman to his contract, possibly with the idea of making a notable example to others.

The east bound mail train was five or six hours late yesterday.

A special meeting of the council was held yesterday afternoon.

See the fine display of silverware in A. N. Gardener's window.

Miss Mollie Shaw returned last Friday from a visit to friends on Clover creek.

See the fine display of school books and supplies in Hall Bros.' windows.

Every family is in need of a good cook book. You can get it free of charge at Levy's.

Ferd Bloch, the genial clerk of the Reeves hotel, La Grande, was in the city Tuesday.

Fine Webster's dictionaries given away at Levy's store. Call and see how it is done.

The Scout will put in an electric motor with which to run its large cylinder press.

The proprietors of gambling games, in La Grande, have again been notified to close down.

Seventy-five head of horses to trade for cattle, grain or land.—M. H. Piv, Union, Oregon, 11-19-1m.

All the latest styles in millinery goods, trimmings and ladies' fancy goods, at Mrs. Rinehart's.

Remember that Hall Bros., as usual, have a full and complete stock of school supplies for sale.

Mr. Frank Cusick and wife, of Jimmie creek, were visitors to Union last Saturday and Sunday.

Another car of cedar shingles just received by Hall Bros. Buy them. They are the cheapest.

A large number are taking advantage of our premium offer of the Rural Northwest free for one year.

It will pay you to call on Geo. Baird for holiday goods. He carries a large line and is selling cheap.

The attention of our readers is called to the ad. of the masquerade ball to be given in this city on Christmas.

See A. N. Gardener's big holiday ad. in this issue. He has a fine line of goods suitable for Christmas presents.

A fine line of plush albums, dressing cases, perfumery, etc., at Brown's drug store. All nice Christmas presents.

A rare opportunity to secure a nice Christmas present, cheap, at the post office store. Everything is being sold at cost. 12-3-4w.

Laura Moore sent in this week and subscribed for The Scout to be sent to her address at the B. & E. mine, Baker county, Oregon.

Ladies, call and see the magnificent stock of new millinery goods just received direct from New York, at Mrs. Rinehart's millinery store.

Be sure and call at Dr. North's dental parlor, Union, Oregon, where you can get a full set of teeth for six dollars. Call and see for yourself. 10-1-1f.

Don't forget that we are still "in it" when it comes to Job Printing. We are better prepared than ever to turn out good work on short notice.

Mrs. Cusick, of the post office store, desires to announce that she will sell her entire stock of books and notions at cost between now and Jan. 1st.

The firm that advertises is the one to deal with, if you are looking for liberal, progressive and enterprising men. No live man questions the value of printer's ink.

Louie Brouiller, who has been at work at the B. & E. mine in Baker county for some time past, arrived in Union Monday for a few weeks stay. He will return to the Virtue mine in a short time.

Mrs. Ped Smith, of Idaho, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Morland, in Portland, arrived in Union a few days ago on her return home. Mrs. Rube Smith, of this city, will go back with her.

Wm. Connor, Silas Chapman and Wm. Cavanaugh were up before the recorder last Saturday morning, charged with drunk and disorderly conduct. Connor was fined $25.00 and costs, and Chapman and Cavanaugh $15.00 each and costs.

Mrs. Rinehart, the milliner, will be at the Western hotel, Elgin, next Tuesday, Dec. 15th, with a nice line of trimmed hats which she will offer for sale. The ladies of Elgin will do well to call and see her if they are in need of anything in this line.

Fire broke out at 3:30 p. m. Monday in the planing mill of Stoddard Bros., North Powder. The building and machinery were entirely destroyed, also 300,000 feet of lumber and 75,000 shingles. A box car which was side-tracked at the mill was also consumed. Loss $8,000; no insurance.

Two of the colored boys, held here as witnesses were released last Friday evening. They drew their pay, amounting to over $40 each, and at once proceeded to tog up. They were indeed happy, and one of them was heard to remark that he "wished de job would last fo' six months."

The following prisoners remain in the Union county jail: Frank Coleman, fined $150; Evan Carver, sentenced to be hanged Jan. 21, 1892; Paul Green, serving three months sentence; Jasper Libo, serving six months sentence; Abner Hall, charged with murder; John Larkin, fined $100; Geo. Duncan and Andy Johnson, held as witnesses.

THE ELECTION.

It Passes off Quietly—But Little Interest being Manifested.

The regular municipal election for the city of Union took place Monday. The day was very stormy and but few votes were polled, in fact it seemed to be the general desire of most everybody to retain the present officers in power, which was done with the exception of Recorder Thomson, Treasurer Brainard and Councilman Carroll. Thomson and Brainard declined to run and Carroll was absent from the city. An effort was made by one or two parties to defeat Johnson for marshal, but had but little weight, the opposing candidates receiving but a few votes. Following is the ticket as elected:

Mayor, W. T. Wright; Councilmen, J. S. Elliott and G. F. Hall; Recorder, O. F. Bell; Treasurer, A. N. Gardiner; Marshall, A. Johnson; Street Commissioner, John Blize.

Subjects for the Whipping Post.

Monday's train carried away from this city a strangely mated couple. It consisted of a "heathen Chinese" and a Mrs. Solberg, "a grass widow" lately from Enterprise, Walla Walla county. The woman came here with her children, four in number, about ten days ago and rented a house from P. Wade of this city with the avowed purpose of starting a laundry, but in a few days her Chinese paramour turned up and their escapade Monday morning was the result. It has come to light that she and the Chinaman were compelled to leave Enterprise and had their history been known here twenty-four hours sooner, they would have been treated to a liberal coat of tar and feathers and escorted out of town on a rail. This "libel on womanhood" is the mother of four intelligent looking children, one of which is a girl of about twelve, and it is a crying shame that she be allowed the custody of them and the authorities should take them away from her and place them where they will not be surrounded by such evil influences. As for the woman it is of little importance what becomes of her but she should not be allowed to raise children in the manner in which she is, and we are in hopes that any section which this oddly matched couple may chance to visit will give them such a warm reception that they will not tarry long.—Elgin Recorder.

Should be Looked After.

A girl thirteen years of age by the name of Smith, whose step-father is a miner at Sanger by the name of Baker, ran away from home on Lower Powder, where her mother resides, last Sunday and arrived in this city in company with one Kelley, a sewing machine agent. The girl put up at the Commercial hotel and later on went to Kolb's hotel where she remained Sunday night and last evening went away with a man by the name of Smith, who said he was going to take her home. The girl related at the hotel, so we are informed, that she was determined to run away from home and had been promised by the sewing machine agent that he would make her his wife. She had $28 on her person and was very anxious to go out in town and buy her wedding trousseau. If the girl's story is true and the sewing machine agent can not find enough to do without enticing innocent children away from home, the public should see to it that he is given a job that will place him where the dogs won't bite him.—Baker Democrat.

The Columbia Daily Calendar.

An old friend in a new dress, and an article that has come to be one of the indispensables of an editor's desk, comes to hand in the Columbia Daily Calendar for 1892. The Calendar is in the form of a pad containing 367 leaves, each 5 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches; one for each day of the year, to be removed daily, and one for the entire year; the day of the week, of the month, and of the year are given, and each slip bears a short paragraph pertaining to cycling, or some kindred subject. At the bottom of each leaf is a blank for memoranda, every leaf being accessible at any time. The stand is an entirely new departure, being made of sheet metal finished in ivory black, and is very compact. At the close of the year the stand will be available for another pad. This is the seventh issue of the now well-known Calendar, yet all the matter is fresh and new, having been carefully collated from leading publications and prominent writers, most of it being specially written for this purpose. It comprises notable events in cycling, opinions of physicians and clergymen, hints about road making and numerous other topics.

A Prompt and Honorable Fire Ins. Co.

EDITOR OREGON SCOUT:—I wish to express through your paper my thanks to the Palatine Insurance Co., Manchester, Eng., for sending T. R. Harris as adjuster, a pleasant and honorable gentleman, and prompt payment.

ANOTHER STATEMENT.

J. D. and P. Heidenreich owned half of the buildings on the S. E. cor. of U. P. R. R. and Fir St., La Grande, which were destroyed by fire Aug. 6th, 1890. One of these buildings was insured by the Aetna Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn. Meils, their adjuster, was here Aug. 18th, 1890, and all proof asked by him was furnished, but not yet paid.

G. G. Grey, of the Cove, sent in this week and subscribed for The Scout, getting the Rural Northwest free for one year.

District Attorney Hyde took one of the little colored boys, held here as witnesses in the Coleman case, home with him.

The ties for the branch road between the city and depot have been distributed as far as Hutchinson Bros.' mill. The remainder arrived Monday and will soon be distributed.

The Misses Lora and Leah Warren have purchased the stock of millinery goods belonging to the estate of Mrs. J. C. Summers, deceased, and will continue business at the old stand.

Edgar Sanders has been busy the past week constructing a wind mill of a new design. He will use it in running various machinery about the house, such as churn, washing machine, etc.

Mrs. Thos. Turner, of Cornucopia, called on us yesterday. She will take her departure today for a visit to her son, Geo. Robertson, at Grand Forks, Dakota, and will be absent about six months.

The new engine for the Union Electric Light and Power Company has been supplied, and is expected to arrive any day. The new power house will be located on A street, a short distance below the new mill.

It is a noticeable fact, that money is always scarce just before a presidential election. Why this is true we know not, unless money kings keep the coin to bet on elections. If this is not the cause, will some one please explain?

Fifty Photographs for One Dollar.

If you will send us a cabinet photograph and one dollar we will return you the photograph in good order, and fifty postage stamp pictures, or twenty-five minette pictures copied from it. These are something entirely new in this state and are all the rage wherever introduced. The stamp pictures are the size of postage stamps, gummed on the back, and may be stuck to watches, visiting cards, fancy work, books, etc., and used in a variety of ways. The minettes are the same in every particular, only about four times as large. We have albums suitable for these pictures—twenty-five cents each. Address

A Nightmare.

Have you ever been visited by that frisky and uncomfortable animal, called a nightmare? Have you ever had it climb upon the bed while you were asleep and go through a lively performance which would make a fortune for the proprietor of a circus? You never can tell just when this nocturnal steed will make its appearance, but you are absolutely safe from it if you happen to be reposing on one of S. C. Miller's new bedsteads, which are unsurpassed in quality and price.

Life-Size Portraits.

Enlarged from old pictures, or taken from life and finished in crayon, water color or oil. We desire to call particular attention to this line of work. We guarantee to give you better work than you have ever had from San Francisco or eastern copying houses, and at a price so low that it will surprise you. Any work of this kind entrusted to us will be finished at once and patrons may examine the work as it progresses and have such changes made as they suggest.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepard, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at Brown's drug store.

Take it Before Breakfast.

The great appetizer, tonic and liver regulator. In use for more than 50 years in England. Positive specific for liver complaint. Bad taste in the mouth on arising in the morning, dull pains in the head and back of the eyes, tired feeling, dizziness, languor—symptoms of liver complaint. Remedy—Dr. Huxley's English Dandelion Tonic. Relieves constipation, sharpens the appetite and tones up the entire system. Get the genuine from your druggist for $1, and take according to directions.

The Examiner.

The Examiner and Boxer will both be sent to any address on receipt of $1.75 cash in advance. Each subscriber will also have his choice of the above pictures and a chance in the Examiner's grand drawing. Call at the Scout office and subscribe.

He Wanted Money.

An unknown man walked into Russell Sage's office on Wall street and demanded of him $1,250,000, and upon refusal of the money threw a satchel to the ceiling, containing dynamite. The building was shaken to the very foundation. A clerk in the office was blown through a window to the street below, while the man who threw the missile was blown to atoms. Russell Sage, who was standing near by, escaped with only a few slight bruises.

But one person was killed outright—the man with the pointed beard. He is supposed to be H. D. Wilson, the man who made the demand for money on Sage, and threw the bomb.

Benjamin F. Morton, who was thrown through the window, was a clerk in the office. He was removed to the Chambers street hospital, where he died at 1:30.

The following injured were taken to the hospital.

Frank Robertson, twenty years old, clerk for Imbrie & Co., brokers. He was in Sage's office at the time of the explosion. His skull was fractured, and he will probably die.

Charles W. Osborn, Russell Sage's cashier, has a fractured skull, and will probably die.

Samuel J. Calhoun, who was in the building at the time, received a fracture of the leg.

The Northern to get the Hunt Line.

It has been the general opinion since C. B. Wright became owner of the Hunt line the system would sooner or later become a part of the Northern Pacific. If the following from the Tacoma Ledger of Nov. 23rd be true the amalgamation is about to take place. It says:

Arrangements are said to have been almost completed for the transfer of the old Oregon & Washington Territory railroad in eastern Washington and Oregon, better known as the Hunt system, to the Northern Pacific railroad, to be made about the first of the new year. C. B. Wright, of Philadelphia, who purchased the Oregon & Washington Territory last spring, has undoubtedly come to an agreement with the Northern Pacific, as has been reported in regard to the transfer of the road. The Northern Pacific company will receive the entire capital stock of the Hunt system for guaranteeing the principal and 6 per cent interest on the bonds that will be issued at the rate of $25,000 per mile. Mr. Wright will take the bonds in payment, so that the Northern Pacific will not be called upon to pay out any cost at all. This statement is made upon authority of an official of the road, who was seen in reference to the matter.

Now is the Time to Subscribe.

The Scout has made arrangements whereby it is enabled to furnish its subscribers a first-class farmers' journal, the Rural Northwest, a semi-monthly paper published at Portland, free of charge, in the following way:

Every new subscriber who pays $1.50 for one year's subscription to The Scout between now and Jan. 1st. will receive the Rural Northwest one year free of charge. The subscription price of the Rural Northwest is $1.00 and it is an excellent journal for the farmer, fruit grower and stockman.

In order to give all our patrons an equal show to secure this excellent journal free we will also send it to all parties who are now in arrears that come in and pay up and pay for another year's subscription to The Scout in advance between now and January 1st.

This is an extraordinary offer and we trust our patrons will take advantage of it. Don't think for a moment that the Rural Northwest is a small and cheap concern, filled mostly with advertisements. On the contrary it is a 16-page paper filled with original and excellent reading of interest to the farmer, fruit grower and stockman.

Call and see a sample copy.

I AM GOING HOME, DEAR MOTHER.

[Written in memory of Miss Mildred B. Haggerty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Haggerty, who died at Cove, Oregon, January 8, 1891. Her mother, the following lines are respectfully dedicated.]

I am going home, dear mother, To that land so bright and fair, I am waiting for the summons That will call your loved one there; Fold thy loving arms around me—Clasp me to thy faithful breast, Tho' I soon must leave thee, mother, Trust in God, He knoweth best.

I am going home, dear mother, Soon I'll say my last adieu, To the dear ones gathered 'round me, With their love so fond and true; When the twilight shadows deepen, I shall rest in dreamless sleep—You will not forget me, mother? Mother, dear, oh! do not weep!

When the
