New Fire Bell.
 The need of a good fire bell for our town has long been felt; and the firemen are lately being agitated the matter, and now seems that we are in a fair way to get one. The firemen have been attending their meeting Monday night appointed a committee to wait upon the "city daddies," inform them that the financial aid would not come too quick, and that they are ready and willing to render what assistance they could, pecuniary and otherwise, towards the purchase of the bell. In their generous action in the matter of purchase of the new truck, and at their last meeting returned them a vote of thanks.
A Cowardly Act.
 On last Sunday while three little girls were gathering flowers, just on the outskirts of the town, they were discovered chased by an unknown man. When the girls saw him coming towards them they fled towards town and having to pass a fence, they were considerably held in their haste to get over it. It was some time after they had arrived safe some before they got over the effects of their fright, and the bruise, or sprain, averted on the wrist of one of the girls quite painful. It is possible that the man who chased them wanted to give a little scare, but he ought to be whipped all the same, and it is to be regretted that the girls failed to recognize him.
A Strange Bird.
 Mr. A. Nelson brought into town a beautiful and strange bird, which was captured by Mr. Adkins a few days ago, considerably larger than a pigeon; white, except under the wings, where are dashed with a touch of canary red feathers several inches long, extending backwards. Its bill is crossed, upper mandible lapping over the lower. It is a mystery where the bird came from, as it is not a native to these shores. Doubtless a Southern American. Mr. HOBBS BROWN has sent it to Prof. O. B. Johnson of Salem, for the State Museum.

Buena Vista Items.
 Our citizens are agitating the question of improving our river front. This is a move in the right direction, a good landing or wharf with a secure, freight depot would add greatly to the convenience of our town. Now, we have twenty dollars for that purpose. Who will straddle it? Mr. D. M. Calbreath has just received a choice lot of California and Oregon garden seeds. Parties may choose from either kind. Dan. warrants his seeds to be fresh and of choice varieties.
 We think this a good location for a harness maker one who will do good work and stay with the people until they know he means business. A good business may be built up here in that line. Do not come expecting to step into a fine trade. Come to stay and the trade will come.
 Seeing so many children on our streets during school hours has induced me to make mention of the wrong parents are doing their children by keeping them out of school. You are depriving them of what is their God-given right. The right to an education. And why is it so? Perhaps some trivial or fancied wrong that the teacher may be innocently guilty of. Forgetting that you are doing what your own offspring will esteem as a greater wrong than any teacher would dare do to them. Some complain that they are not able to pay for their schooling, consequently cannot send their children to school. Now let us examine the family purse closely and see if we cannot find a tobacco leaf, that were it corked up with a determination to use it no more tobacco, would more than pay the school bill and buy some extra books for general use.—Let those that vote look to it that Polk county legislators favor a compulsory school law. Also that the property pays the school bills. Garden plowing has commenced in earnest. We think it a little early for such work. Our large experience in farming and gardening gives us a good chance to know all about such things.
 The Democratic primary passed off quietly. Have no idea that there was any packing done. Never. Why was April first selected as the day for their convention? Anything significant in it?
 Our saw mill is turning out 12,000 feet of lumber per day and of a superior quality. They have a splendid lot of logs this season and will make an extra effort to supply the demand for lumber.

Notice the ad. of Rosendorf & Hirschberg. When they get upon "their ear" you may look out. They undoubtedly mean to sell their stock, as they say, at cost. Here's the place to get your money's worth.
Mr. Ezra Poppleton has gone to San Francisco to buy his new stock of goods. His elegant store, when he opens it, will be the attraction. The arrangement of the store is modern, and reflects credit on the business sagacity of the owner. Be ready to examine his stock as soon as it is opened.
Mr. L. Keller has an ad. in this week. Mr. K. is a quiet, but very sure business man. He has moved into the brick store of T. W. Belt. As a solid, reliable business man he merits the patronage which he is sure to receive. Special attention is called to his offer of men's and boys' clothing at wholesale prices. This is not a catch but a square fact. Call and satisfy yourselves.
Bear in mind that the stock of goods to be placed by Mr. Poppleton in his new store will be entirely fresh. There will be no old remnants, nor goods out of style, as he is closing out everything preparatory to a new deal all round. The latest, freshest and best, and don't you forget it.

Good-Bye.
 Did you ever hear two married women take leave of each other on a mild evening? This is how they do it:
 "Good-bye!"
 "Good-bye! Come down and see us soon!"
 "I will. Good-bye!"
 "Good-bye! Don't forget to come soon."
 "No, I won't. Don't forget to come up."
 "I won't. Be sure and bring Sarah Jane with you next time."
 "I will. I'd have brought her up this time but she wasn't very well. She wanted to come awfully."
 "Did she now? That was too bad. Be sure and bring her next time."
 "I will; and you be sure and bring the baby."
 "I will; I forgot to tell you that he's cut another tooth."
 "You don't say! How many has he now?"
 "Five. It makes him awful cross."
 "I dare say it does this hot weather. Well, good-bye. Don't you forget to come down."
 "No, I won't. Don't you forget to come up. Good-bye!"
 "Good-bye!"
 "Good-bye!"

 A. S. LATTIMORE, Ph. D., B. S., L. D., Professor of Chemistry in the University of Rochester, N. Y., knowing the popularity and merit of WARREN'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE, after a thorough Chemical Analysis, has furnished the following statement:
 UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER, Chemical Laboratory, ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 8, 1880.

Mr. H. H. Warner has placed in my possession the formula of the medicine manufactured and sold by him under the general designation of WARREN'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE. I have investigated the process of manufacture, which are conducted with extreme care and according to the best methods. I have also taken from his laboratory samples of all the materials used in the preparation of this medicine, and upon critical examination I find them, as well as the medicine into which they enter, to be entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances.
