

POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER.

DALLAS, SATURDAY, SEPT. 16, 1892.

REMOVED.

The ITEMIZER office has been removed to Hill street, one door east of the old office, up stairs.

ITEMS BY BRIEF.

Read M. L. Robbins' advertisement. He means business.

Alma fills teeth without pain. Pierce Clingan and Ben Harris intend starting for the Yellowstone country ere long.

C. S. Rowell has been very ill for the past week, but was able to ride out yesterday.

It has been trying harder to rain this week, without succeeding, than we ever knew in Weford.

Mr. M. Ellis, and Mr. Coad have bought the timbers of the old bridge with which to make a sidewalk.

Amos Holman, with his family, will leave next week for Spokane, where they expect to make their home.

Johnny Hughes left for Portland yesterday and will manipulate lightning at some station during Fair week.

Z. F. Vaughn, a first-class watchmaker and jeweler, is now in the employ of J. James. Give him your work.

D. N. Burns and the Stavis boys returned this week from a deer hunt at Upper Sals. They killed about thirty deer.

The boy who will tear up the walk at the Band Hall corner and search diligently in the race underneath, will find a quarter of a dollar therein.

Henry Howe and family will soon leave for Eastern Oregon, where they will remain this winter, in the hope of benefiting the health of Mrs. H.

J. B. Riggs and family returned on Monday from Upper Sals, where they had been for six weeks. Mrs. Riggs' health was materially improved by the trip.

Jan R. Miller has just received a large and complete line of shoulder braces, both for ladies and gentlemen. They are of the most approved patterns and his stock embraces all sizes.

Word was brought to town late last evening that a horse had fallen on Nat Hoffman, out on his farm, and that his collar bone was broken. Dr. Smith went out to attend him.

Prof. J. E. Fenton, formerly of Polk County and late Democratic candidate for the Legislature, has accepted the position of teacher in the Eugene public school. Mr. Fenton is a good teacher.

We see the Oregonian has printed the name of Hon. W. Trout, representative from this county, W. Smith. We hasten to rectify him from the bosom of the Smith family and consequently adjourn, for that it is that Trout is his name.

It is in the "Twilight," Gazette, by J. Oehl, is one of the latest and most popular publications from the press of Sherman, Clay & Co., San Francisco. The composition is of the kind that clings to one after being heard. The price is 40 cents, for which it can be had of any music dealer.

There came near being a fire at Airlie the other night. Fire was left in the engine house of the railroad, which blazed up during the night. Stables, a liveryman's road happened to get up during the night, discovered the fire and put it out. If it had not been for this timely discovery, the warehouse, cars and everything would have certainly been destroyed.

L. M. Hall returned from a trip to Tillamook this week. Joseph Smith, of Buena Vista, who accompanied him, has bought a mill-site and will put up a large lumber mill on Tillamook bay. Lark says it is a splendid spot for a mill, fish timber being abundant, and that "there's nothing like it" in Polk county as a dairy country.

However people may differ on the question of woman suffrage, there can be but one opinion about the excellence of the paper that makes the advocacy of it a specialty. The New Northwest is always readable and entertaining. Not the least pleasant feature about it, the more so from its rarity among Oregon papers, is its splendid typographical appearance. Its superior in that regard is not in the State.

Accidental Fall. Doe Robinson, the painter, while painting on the new bridge here, last Tuesday evening, fell from the scaffold into the creek about 15 feet, striking on the timbers of the old bridge beneath the scaffolding. His terrible bump went up his head, and he was taken to his home, where he recovered consciousness, complained of a pain in his head, with nausea. He went to his home at Independence on Tuesday. We hope he will not prove to be seriously hurt.

Death of William Wallan. From the Yamhill Reporter we learn that William Wallan died at the residence of his mother, a few miles from McMinnville, on Saturday night the 24 inst. William was the son of John Wallan, who formerly resided at Independence, in this county. He was a quiet boy and well liked by all who knew him. His age was about twenty years. His sister, Mrs. Mary Duval, now resides at Independence.

Christian College. Christian College, at Monmouth, this county, opens next Tuesday, with a program of exercises, consisting of songs, music, addresses and essays. There is a Normal School attached to the College, for the instruction of teachers in their profession. Prof. D. T. Stanley is president, assisted by a full corps of teachers.

To the State Fair. Commenting on Monday next, Berns & Morrison will run a hack to Salem every day during the State Fair. The hack will leave Dallas at 6 a. m., and returning leave Salem at 4 p. m.

Wheat 77 cents. Marshal Williams is able to be around again. A refreshing shower wet us down, Monday evening.

Vendors of divers and sundry articles have visited us this week. Old Town was afflicted with an one horse variety show, last Thursday.

Miss Emma Stannus, who has been sick with the typhoid fever, is convalescent. Prof. E. B. McElroy, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town, Monday.

Phil Johnson and family returned last week from a six weeks' trip to the McKenzie Springs.

A blind organ grinder and a deserted widow lady visited our town during the week and solicited alms from our citizens.

Adolf Wolf is building an addition to the lack of his store, which, when completed, will make his store-room 100 feet long.

A. P. Bonzy has returned from a short trip to the Mohawk Valley, in Lane County. He was not favorably impressed with the country there.

Adolph Wolf, of Independence, will hereafter sell goods at Portland retail prices. He means business. Give him a call and judge for yourself.

The Old Town school opened last week with forty-five scholars enrolled. Prof. Hartson, who taught the school last term, is principal, with his wife as assistant.

During the State Fair, which opens on the 19th inst., Cooper Bros.' stage will leave Independence for Salem at 7 o'clock in the morning, and returning will leave Salem at 5 o'clock in the evening.

Zed Rosendorf, of the firm of Rosendorf & Hirschberg, returned from San Francisco on the last steamer. He brought with him a large stock of fall and winter goods for their new store.

William Dittenhoefer, a long time salesman in Ad. H. Wolf's store, but now engaged in business of Sprague, W. T., has been in town a few days visiting friends. He returns home on Monday.

We learn that little Jessie Rowe fell from the platform of the depot building one day last week and broke his arm. Jessie seems to be an unfortunate lad, as this is the third time, we believe, that he has met with similar accidents.

Prof. J. S. Sweet, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived on the last steamer and came up on the train Saturday.

Prof. Sweet is principal of the high school, with his wife and Mrs. Jennie Logan as assistants. School opened Wednesday.

A little son of William Sliger was thrown from a horse, which he attempted to ride back last Sunday, and he received a severe cut upon the head. The wound was dressed by Dr. T. F. Smith and is doing well. Moral—Don't ride horses on Sunday—without a saddle.

Prof. V. Garrigus, prophet (weather), showman and philosopher, has returned again from his travels, and will winter among us. The Prof. has visited most of the southern and coast counties with his show and, we understand, did not meet with the pecuniary success which attended his last summer's tour.

On account of his rapidly increasing business, our enterprising merchant, Adolph Wolf, is having his store room enlarged and otherwise improved, making it the largest store-room in Polk County. He has recently put in an elegant glass front, and it is now one of the handsomest stores in the State, outside of Portland.

Wayne Williams and family, who were visiting at the Upper Soda Springs for the past six weeks, returned last Saturday. Wayne reports the hunting and fishing good there, and six deer fell before his rifle and he modestly refuses to tell the number of fish he hooked— from other camps.

The committee appointed to make the survey of the proposed water ditch have secured the services of W. T. Weber, an experienced engineer, who on last Monday made a preliminary survey. He reports the scheme practicable and that the ditch will not be to exceed five and one-half miles in length, and that a fall of over twenty feet can be had in that distance.

Last Saturday Mr. J. W. Kirkland and his son John got into their buggy to come to town to transact some business, and when near Jerome Dornick's place the spirited young horse, which they were driving, became unmanageable and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mr. Kirkland and his son to the ground with great violence. Mr. Kirkland, Sr., was badly bruised about the ankles, but received no serious injury. John escaped without a scratch.

Jacob Nash, of Buena Vista, returned last week from Dayton, W. T., where he has been stopping for some months past. He says that immigrants in vast numbers are flocking into the "upper country" from all parts of the Eastern, Western and Middle States, and Texas. As a rule they are poor, and, in consequence of the large immigration and the short crops, which prevail in that section, he thinks that "hard times" are bound to ensue. The Dayton mills are offering 62 cents per bushel, which is considered a high price there.

ONCE MORE IN THE FIELD.—Rosendorf & Hirschberg are now receiving an immense stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries and General Merchandise. Zed Rosendorf, who went to San Francisco to buy the stock direct from the importers, says that they can now sell cheaper than they ever did, and all the old Polk County folks will remember that they always sold cheaper and gave more for produce than any other house in the county. The latest styles of Satins, Dolmans, Dress Goods and Trimmings, and the finest Silks for dresses can be found there for as high as 95 per yard. They will be pleased to show the goods, though you may not wish to buy. Ladies' shoes a specialty. All are invited.

ROSEBORO & HIRSCHBERG.

Wm. Adams, County Agent, O. B. S. Married.

In Dallas, Friday, September 15, 1892, by Rev. J. James, Mr. Martin V. Prather and Miss Minerva Hornbuckle, both of Buena Vista.

Having enlarged my store and added to my already large stock of goods, I am now prepared to furnish my customers with anything they may call for.

ADOLPH WOLF, Independence.

Wheat 77 cents. Marshal Williams is able to be around again. A refreshing shower wet us down, Monday evening.

Vendors of divers and sundry articles have visited us this week. Old Town was afflicted with an one horse variety show, last Thursday.

Miss Emma Stannus, who has been sick with the typhoid fever, is convalescent. Prof. E. B. McElroy, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town, Monday.

Phil Johnson and family returned last week from a six weeks' trip to the McKenzie Springs.

A blind organ grinder and a deserted widow lady visited our town during the week and solicited alms from our citizens.

Adolf Wolf is building an addition to the lack of his store, which, when completed, will make his store-room 100 feet long.

A. P. Bonzy has returned from a short trip to the Mohawk Valley, in Lane County. He was not favorably impressed with the country there.

Adolph Wolf, of Independence, will hereafter sell goods at Portland retail prices. He means business. Give him a call and judge for yourself.

The Old Town school opened last week with forty-five scholars enrolled. Prof. Hartson, who taught the school last term, is principal, with his wife as assistant.

During the State Fair, which opens on the 19th inst., Cooper Bros.' stage will leave Independence for Salem at 7 o'clock in the morning, and returning will leave Salem at 5 o'clock in the evening.

Zed Rosendorf, of the firm of Rosendorf & Hirschberg, returned from San Francisco on the last steamer. He brought with him a large stock of fall and winter goods for their new store.

William Dittenhoefer, a long time salesman in Ad. H. Wolf's store, but now engaged in business of Sprague, W. T., has been in town a few days visiting friends. He returns home on Monday.

We learn that little Jessie Rowe fell from the platform of the depot building one day last week and broke his arm. Jessie seems to be an unfortunate lad, as this is the third time, we believe, that he has met with similar accidents.

Prof. J. S. Sweet, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived on the last steamer and came up on the train Saturday.

Prof. Sweet is principal of the high school, with his wife and Mrs. Jennie Logan as assistants. School opened Wednesday.

A little son of William Sliger was thrown from a horse, which he attempted to ride back last Sunday, and he received a severe cut upon the head. The wound was dressed by Dr. T. F. Smith and is doing well. Moral—Don't ride horses on Sunday—without a saddle.

Prof. V. Garrigus, prophet (weather), showman and philosopher, has returned again from his travels, and will winter among us. The Prof. has visited most of the southern and coast counties with his show and, we understand, did not meet with the pecuniary success which attended his last summer's tour.

On account of his rapidly increasing business, our enterprising merchant, Adolph Wolf, is having his store room enlarged and otherwise improved, making it the largest store-room in Polk County. He has recently put in an elegant glass front, and it is now one of the handsomest stores in the State, outside of Portland.

Wayne Williams and family, who were visiting at the Upper Soda Springs for the past six weeks, returned last Saturday. Wayne reports the hunting and fishing good there, and six deer fell before his rifle and he modestly refuses to tell the number of fish he hooked— from other camps.

The committee appointed to make the survey of the proposed water ditch have secured the services of W. T. Weber, an experienced engineer, who on last Monday made a preliminary survey. He reports the scheme practicable and that the ditch will not be to exceed five and one-half miles in length, and that a fall of over twenty feet can be had in that distance.

Last Saturday Mr. J. W. Kirkland and his son John got into their buggy to come to town to transact some business, and when near Jerome Dornick's place the spirited young horse, which they were driving, became unmanageable and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mr. Kirkland and his son to the ground with great violence. Mr. Kirkland, Sr., was badly bruised about the ankles, but received no serious injury. John escaped without a scratch.

Jacob Nash, of Buena Vista, returned last week from Dayton, W. T., where he has been stopping for some months past. He says that immigrants in vast numbers are flocking into the "upper country" from all parts of the Eastern, Western and Middle States, and Texas. As a rule they are poor, and, in consequence of the large immigration and the short crops, which prevail in that section, he thinks that "hard times" are bound to ensue. The Dayton mills are offering 62 cents per bushel, which is considered a high price there.

ONCE MORE IN THE FIELD.—Rosendorf & Hirschberg are now receiving an immense stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries and General Merchandise. Zed Rosendorf, who went to San Francisco to buy the stock direct from the importers, says that they can now sell cheaper than they ever did, and all the old Polk County folks will remember that they always sold cheaper and gave more for produce than any other house in the county. The latest styles of Satins, Dolmans, Dress Goods and Trimmings, and the finest Silks for dresses can be found there for as high as 95 per yard. They will be pleased to show the goods, though you may not wish to buy. Ladies' shoes a specialty. All are invited.

ROSEBORO & HIRSCHBERG.

Wm. Adams, County Agent, O. B. S. Married.

In Dallas, Friday, September 15, 1892, by Rev. J. James, Mr. Martin V. Prather and Miss Minerva Hornbuckle, both of Buena Vista.

Having enlarged my store and added to my already large stock of goods, I am now prepared to furnish my customers with anything they may call for.

ADOLPH WOLF, Independence.

Wheat 77 cents. Marshal Williams is able to be around again. A refreshing shower wet us down, Monday evening.

Vendors of divers and sundry articles have visited us this week. Old Town was afflicted with an one horse variety show, last Thursday.

Miss Emma Stannus, who has been sick with the typhoid fever, is convalescent. Prof. E. B. McElroy, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town, Monday.

Phil Johnson and family returned last week from a six weeks' trip to the McKenzie Springs.

A blind organ grinder and a deserted widow lady visited our town during the week and solicited alms from our citizens.

Adolf Wolf is building an addition to the lack of his store, which, when completed, will make his store-room 100 feet long.

A. P. Bonzy has returned from a short trip to the Mohawk Valley, in Lane County. He was not favorably impressed with the country there.

Adolph Wolf, of Independence, will hereafter sell goods at Portland retail prices. He means business. Give him a call and judge for yourself.

The Old Town school opened last week with forty-five scholars enrolled. Prof. Hartson, who taught the school last term, is principal, with his wife as assistant.

During the State Fair, which opens on the 19th inst., Cooper Bros.' stage will leave Independence for Salem at 7 o'clock in the morning, and returning will leave Salem at 5 o'clock in the evening.

Zed Rosendorf, of the firm of Rosendorf & Hirschberg, returned from San Francisco on the last steamer. He brought with him a large stock of fall and winter goods for their new store.

William Dittenhoefer, a long time salesman in Ad. H. Wolf's store, but now engaged in business of Sprague, W. T., has been in town a few days visiting friends. He returns home on Monday.

We learn that little Jessie Rowe fell from the platform of the depot building one day last week and broke his arm. Jessie seems to be an unfortunate lad, as this is the third time, we believe, that he has met with similar accidents.

Prof. J. S. Sweet, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived on the last steamer and came up on the train Saturday.

Prof. Sweet is principal of the high school, with his wife and Mrs. Jennie Logan as assistants. School opened Wednesday.

A little son of William Sliger was thrown from a horse, which he attempted to ride back last Sunday, and he received a severe cut upon the head. The wound was dressed by Dr. T. F. Smith and is doing well. Moral—Don't ride horses on Sunday—without a saddle.

Prof. V. Garrigus, prophet (weather), showman and philosopher, has returned again from his travels, and will winter among us. The Prof. has visited most of the southern and coast counties with his show and, we understand, did not meet with the pecuniary success which attended his last summer's tour.

On account of his rapidly increasing business, our enterprising merchant, Adolph Wolf, is having his store room enlarged and otherwise improved, making it the largest store-room in Polk County. He has recently put in an elegant glass front, and it is now one of the handsomest stores in the State, outside of Portland.

Wayne Williams and family, who were visiting at the Upper Soda Springs for the past six weeks, returned last Saturday. Wayne reports the hunting and fishing good there, and six deer fell before his rifle and he modestly refuses to tell the number of fish he hooked— from other camps.

The committee appointed to make the survey of the proposed water ditch have secured the services of W. T. Weber, an experienced engineer, who on last Monday made a preliminary survey. He reports the scheme practicable and that the ditch will not be to exceed five and one-half miles in length, and that a fall of over twenty feet can be had in that distance.

Last Saturday Mr. J. W. Kirkland and his son John got into their buggy to come to town to transact some business, and when near Jerome Dornick's place the spirited young horse, which they were driving, became unmanageable and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mr. Kirkland and his son to the ground with great violence. Mr. Kirkland, Sr., was badly bruised about the ankles, but received no serious injury. John escaped without a scratch.

Jacob Nash, of Buena Vista, returned last week from Dayton, W. T., where he has been stopping for some months past. He says that immigrants in vast numbers are flocking into the "upper country" from all parts of the Eastern, Western and Middle States, and Texas. As a rule they are poor, and, in consequence of the large immigration and the short crops, which prevail in that section, he thinks that "hard times" are bound to ensue. The Dayton mills are offering 62 cents per bushel, which is considered a high price there.

ONCE MORE IN THE FIELD.—Rosendorf & Hirschberg are now receiving an immense stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries and General Merchandise. Zed Rosendorf, who went to San Francisco to buy the stock direct from the importers, says that they can now sell cheaper than they ever did, and all the old Polk County folks will remember that they always sold cheaper and gave more for produce than any other house in the county. The latest styles of Satins, Dolmans, Dress Goods and Trimmings, and the finest Silks for dresses can be found there for as high as 95 per yard. They will be pleased to show the goods, though you may not wish to buy. Ladies' shoes a specialty. All are invited.

ROSEBORO & HIRSCHBERG.

Wm. Adams, County Agent, O. B. S. Married.

In Dallas, Friday, September 15, 1892, by Rev. J. James, Mr. Martin V. Prather and Miss Minerva Hornbuckle, both of Buena Vista.

Having enlarged my store and added to my already large stock of goods, I am now prepared to furnish my customers with anything they may call for.

ADOLPH WOLF, Independence.

Wheat 77 cents. Marshal Williams is able to be around again. A refreshing shower wet us down, Monday evening.

Vendors of divers and sundry articles have visited us this week. Old Town was afflicted with an one horse variety show, last Thursday.

Miss Emma Stannus, who has been sick with the typhoid fever, is convalescent. Prof. E. B. McElroy, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town, Monday.

Phil Johnson and family returned last week from a six weeks' trip to the McKenzie Springs.

A blind organ grinder and a deserted widow lady visited our town during the week and solicited alms from our citizens.

Adolf Wolf is building an addition to the lack of his store, which, when completed, will make his store-room 100 feet long.

A. P. Bonzy has returned from a short trip to the Mohawk Valley, in Lane County. He was not favorably impressed with the country there.

Adolph Wolf, of Independence, will hereafter sell goods at Portland retail prices. He means business. Give him a call and judge for yourself.

The Old Town school opened last week with forty-five scholars enrolled. Prof. Hartson, who taught the school last term, is principal, with his wife as assistant.

During the State Fair, which opens on the 19th inst., Cooper Bros.' stage will leave Independence for Salem at 7 o'clock in the morning, and returning will leave Salem at 5 o'clock in the evening.

Zed Rosendorf, of the firm of Rosendorf & Hirschberg, returned from San Francisco on the last steamer. He brought with him a large stock of fall and winter goods for their new store.

William Dittenhoefer, a long time salesman in Ad. H. Wolf's store, but now engaged in business of Sprague, W. T., has been in town a few days visiting friends. He returns home on Monday.

We learn that little Jessie Rowe fell from the platform of the depot building one day last week and broke his arm. Jessie seems to be an unfortunate lad, as this is the third time, we believe, that he has met with similar accidents.

Prof. J. S. Sweet, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived on the last steamer and came up on the train Saturday.

Prof. Sweet is principal of the high school, with his wife and Mrs. Jennie Logan as assistants. School opened Wednesday.

A little son of William Sliger was thrown from a horse, which he attempted to ride back last Sunday, and he received a severe cut upon the head. The wound was dressed by Dr. T. F. Smith and is doing well. Moral—Don't ride horses on Sunday—without a saddle.

Prof. V. Garrigus, prophet (weather), showman and philosopher, has returned again from his travels, and will winter among us. The Prof. has visited most of the southern and coast counties with his show and, we understand, did not meet with the pecuniary success which attended his last summer's tour.

On account of his rapidly increasing business, our enterprising merchant, Adolph Wolf, is having his store room enlarged and otherwise improved, making it the largest store-room in Polk County. He has recently put in an elegant glass front, and it is now one of the handsomest stores in the State, outside of Portland.

Wayne Williams and family, who were visiting at the Upper Soda Springs for the past six weeks, returned last Saturday. Wayne reports the hunting and fishing good there, and six deer fell before his rifle and he modestly refuses to tell the number of fish he hooked— from other camps.

The committee appointed to make the survey of the proposed water ditch have secured the services of W. T. Weber, an experienced engineer, who on last Monday made a preliminary survey. He reports the scheme practicable and that the ditch will not be to exceed five and one-half miles in length, and that a fall of over twenty feet can be had in that distance.

Last Saturday Mr. J. W. Kirkland and his son John got into their buggy to come to town to transact some business, and when near Jerome Dornick's place the spirited young horse, which they were driving, became unmanageable and ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing Mr. Kirkland and his son to the ground with great violence. Mr. Kirkland, Sr., was badly bruised about the ankles, but received no serious injury. John escaped without a scratch.

Jacob Nash, of Buena Vista, returned last week from Dayton, W. T., where he has been stopping for some months past. He says that immigrants in vast numbers are flocking into the "upper country" from all parts of the Eastern, Western and Middle States, and Texas. As a rule they are poor, and, in consequence of the large immigration and the short crops, which prevail in that section, he thinks that "hard times" are bound to ensue. The Dayton mills are offering 62 cents per bushel, which is considered a high price there.

ONCE MORE IN THE FIELD.—Rosendorf & Hirschberg are now receiving an immense stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries and General Merchandise. Zed Rosendorf, who went to San Francisco to buy the stock direct from the importers, says that they can now sell cheaper than they ever did, and all the old Polk County folks will remember that they always sold cheaper and gave more for produce than any other house in the county. The latest styles of Satins, Dolmans, Dress Goods and Trimmings, and the finest Silks for dresses can be found there for as high as 95 per yard. They will be pleased to show the goods, though you may not wish to buy. Ladies' shoes a specialty. All are invited.

ROSEBORO & HIRSCHBERG.

Wm. Adams, County Agent, O. B. S. Married.

In Dallas, Friday, September 15, 1892, by Rev. J. James, Mr. Martin V. Prather and Miss Minerva Hornbuckle, both of Buena Vista.

Having enlarged my store and added to my already large stock of goods, I am now prepared to furnish my customers with anything they may call for.

ADOLPH WOLF, Independence.

Wheat 77 cents. Marshal Williams is able to be around again. A refreshing shower wet us down, Monday evening.

Vendors of divers and sundry articles have visited us this week. Old Town was afflicted with an one horse variety show, last Thursday.

Miss Emma Stannus, who has been sick with the typhoid fever, is convalescent. Prof. E. B. McElroy, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in town, Monday.

Phil Johnson and family returned last week from a six weeks' trip to the McKenzie Springs.

A blind organ grinder and a deserted widow lady visited our town during the week and solicited alms from our citizens.

Adolf Wolf is building an addition to the lack of his store, which, when completed, will make his store-room 100 feet long.

A. P. Bonzy has returned from a short trip to the Mohawk Valley, in Lane County. He was not favorably impressed with the country there.

Adolph Wolf, of Independence, will hereafter sell goods at Portland retail prices. He means business. Give him a call and judge for yourself.

The Old Town school opened last week with forty-five scholars enrolled. Prof. Hartson, who taught the school last term, is principal, with his wife as assistant.

During the State Fair, which opens on the 19th inst., Cooper Bros.' stage will leave Independence for Salem at 7 o'clock in the morning, and returning will leave Salem at 5 o'clock in the evening.

Zed Rosendorf, of the firm of Rosendorf & Hirschberg, returned from San Francisco on the last steamer. He brought with him a large stock of fall and winter goods for their new store.

William Dittenhoefer, a long time salesman in Ad. H. Wolf's store, but now engaged in business of Sprague, W. T., has been in town a few days visiting friends. He returns home on Monday.

We learn that little Jessie Rowe fell from the platform of the depot building one day last week and broke his arm. Jessie seems to be an unfortunate lad, as this is the third time, we believe, that he has met with similar accidents.

Prof. J. S. Sweet, accompanied by his wife and son, arrived on the last steamer and came up on the train Saturday.

Prof. Sweet is principal of the high school, with his wife and Mrs. Jennie Logan as assistants. School opened Wednesday.

A little son of William Sliger was thrown from a horse, which he attempted to ride back last Sunday, and he received a severe cut upon the head. The wound was dressed by Dr. T. F. Smith and is doing well. Moral—Don't ride horses on Sunday—without a saddle.

Prof. V. Garrigus, prophet (weather), showman and philosopher, has returned again from his travels, and will winter among us. The Prof. has visited most of the southern and coast counties with his show and, we understand, did not meet with the pecuniary success which attended his last summer's tour.