POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER. THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER. ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY J. S. McCAIN. bacription Devoted to the Best Interests of Polk County in Particular and to the Pacific Coast in General.

DALLAS, OREGON, SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 1883.

THE SNOW FLEA APPEARS.

THE SLEIGH RIDE. Or, Two ways of Telling a Story.

TION MUST BE PAID IN ADVANCE.

He was, as I have told you, very old and infirm; his temples were "Cecile!" covered with thinned locks, which "Yes, papa."

A WISE CHOICE.

Young people commit more the frosts of eighty years had whitened; his sight and hearing, haired girl, with a rare grace and lips, and without another word he faults from thoughtlessness than too, were somewhat blunted by sweetness of manner-and approach-from intent to do wrong; and a age, as yours will be should you ed her father. Mr. Deswood pushed want of reflection leads children live to be as old. He was proceed- aside the heap of papers on the desk astray oftener than want of princi-ple. Indifference to the feelings of horse was old and feeble, like his ter with a look of impatience. the aged, a proneness to make light of peculiarities, are, however, oc-the scenes of his youth, when he of peculiarities are, however, ocof peculiarities, are, however, oc-cassionly indulged in by the young, and in the excitement of the mo-mentary gratification which such merriment may produce, all thought of the wrong and all sense of the mentary gratification which such scenes of his manhood, when he had preached the gospel of his di-of the wrong, and all sense of the vine Master to the heathen of the business to find out! See here, Ce-with a preached the gospel of his di-vine Master to the heathen of the business to find out! See here, Ce-Wr. Walton, and the two gentlemen operating apparently contained about "How much will be about to the business to find out! See here, Ce-

VOL. IX.

Here the spectra of the

as beautiful as any-body could de-sire, and the merry group enjoyed themselves in the lighest degree. It was a common custom of the school to which they belonged, and ins horse was increased, and the on previous occasions their teacher fad accompanied them. Some en-gagement upon important business, not at this time with them. It is horse just in time to prevent that the restraining influence of that the restraing influence of that the restraing influence of that the restraini now ever, occuping min, no nad seen out of his hands during "Why, Arden!" he cried, striving hard to stop quite likely, had it been otherwise, his horse just in time to prevent that the restraining influence of his being dashed against a loaded "Why arden!" he cried, striving hard to conceal bis own chigrin and embarrassment. "When did you ar-

"Do not be angry," she pleaded, "because I have told you the simple

A strangth series stands of the nearly ways at the stands of the nearly market with the set legan to the stand way is made at the nearly way is made at the nearly way way is ma

The energy that wins success be-A Pleague of Sibertan Wastes. gins to develop very early in life. The characteristics of the boy com-When the lamented poet-travel-

THE ENERGY THAT SUCCEEDS.

We were grieved to hear the other day of the death of one of Michigan's jolliest pioneer editors— almost the last man of the band who published weeklies in the State when a coon-skin would pay for a column "ad." and three bushels of corn dumped on the office floor would and habit one great difference be-

How that north wind whistled and stung the other day! It was the first singal of a long dreary does not matter a contraction of the library, where her father was sitting. She tool him all that had passed between too herself and Mr. Arden; but to her important discoveries made in this city by students and professors of the academies, it has been shown that the beautiful snow of poetry too the day it to be contracted in the state of the academies, it has been shown that the beautiful snow of poetry and uncertainted and the transformer and angular state and the transformer and the transformer and the torward with the drawing too the dr

NO. 14.

CHARITY THAT DID NOT REGIN AT

BOME.

a ing the wind. They crept closer and closer to each other, and their chins quivered and their noses grew ded as they grew colder. Hundreds of men and women passed up and rown without care, but by and by along came a whistling, joval lad of fourteen, who was swinging his them fore with conce why is it How their have their have stand again a pir have do a rare. so m with this not a this ply i that atain and i of this is the amage so m n la out mai

pist this

wh

of c

at the control of the presence would have prevention of the prevent would have prevent to seen which is the main features. as he entered the school-room, he ward to ride. The fails and hald, on the fails and hald, on the fails and hald, on the is the main of the band will be add hald and the fails and hald and hald and hald and hald and hald and here would have prevent to some inquiries which he add here add hald and here who he hold hand, hand would have sunk all on board hald it. as the entered the school would prevent to ride. The fails are prevent to some inquiries which he add here add hald and here the add hald and here add here add here add here add hald and here add here add hald and here add here ad drew near the end of his story, he rather think I shall give him the said to hersell. No inatter what exclaimed, Oh, sir, there was one little circumstance which I had "A short distance brought him to little circumstance which I had simost forgotten to tell you. To-his journey's end; the house of his his journey's end; the house of his to tell you. To-his journey's end; the house of his on. His old horse was comforta-"Yes, sir; I will see you in the noon, as we were coming home, we bly housed and fed, and he himself drawing-room just as soon as you are saw, at some distance ahead of us, abundantly provided for.

a queer-looking affair in the road. "That son, boys, is your instruca queer-looking affair in the road. We could not exactly make out what it was. It seemed to be a sort of half-and-half monstrosity. As that out for you, but who We could not exactly to be a sort what it was. It seemed to be a sort of half-and-half monstrosity. As we approached it, it proved to be a rusty old sleigh, fastened behind a covered wagon, proceeding at a slow rate, and taking up the whole stow rate and taking t not disposed to turn out we deter-inined upon a volley of snow-balls imagine the effects produced by pasive little hands in his own. and a good hurrah. These we gave with a relish, and they produced own narrative. Some buried their "Cecile," he began, in a kind tone, "I came here to day to ask you to be the right effect and a little more, for the crazy machine turned out cried; some looked askance at each and fair. You can think it over. If into the deep snow by the side of other and many hastened down to handsome fortune, and give your the road, and the skinny old pony the desk of the teacher, with apolstarted on a full trot. As we pass-ogies, regrets and acknowledge-red, some one who had the whip gave the old jilt of a horse a good pardoned, but were cautioned that the world. If you marry me, little orack, which made him run faster they should be more civil, for the one, you shall have everything that way rund stream. A run faster they should be more civil, for the one, you shall have everything that than he ever did before I'll war- future, to inoffensive travelers, and your heart can desire -- money, costly of snowballs, pitched into the front infirm. horse was frightened again, and friend and well-wisher. ran up against a loaded team, and I believe almost capsized the old creature-and so we left him."

ing service is ended. I will take my turn and tell you a story, and all tiary, he says: 'Poo' feller, I al-Having finished the reading of a ways did like him.' Dat is de difabout a sleigh ride, too."

commenced as follows:

"Yesterday afternoon a very venerable and respectable old man.

him the simple truth.

ready. The old man's thin hips were comrant. And so, with another volley more respectful to the aged and dresses, rich jewels (the Arden dia-tor, "that is quite an incident. But she never did like her, no how, but newspaper--the toil and drudgery had had an attack of a take your seats, and after our morn- when a man learns dat his best of it were good discipline for him, the night. When when a man learns dat his best when a man learns dat his best of it were good disching the Henry fren' has been sent to the peniten-tion were good and the day was coming when Henry Walton would be known as one of with a hatchet, broke open the neads the first editors and publishers in the of his wine and whiskey barrels, and Having finished the reading of a chapter in the Bible, and after all ference 'twixt de friendship ob a had joined in the Lod's Prayer, he commenced as follows: Ways did like him.' Dat is de dif-ference 'twixt de friendship ob a man and a woman."—Arkansas Traveller. Having finished the reading of a ference 'twixt de friendship ob a man and a woman."—Arkansas toil along, and hope for a brighter venerable and respectable old man, and a clergyman by profession, was on his way from Boston to Salem, to make the residue of the winter in the second distribution of the side walk to make the residue of the winter in the side walk in the side your heart can desire — money, costly dresses, rich jewels (the Arden dia-monds are among the finest in the dence in Lancaster Mr. Stevens was of snowballs, pitched into the front of the wagon, and three times three cheers, we rushed by. With that, an old fellow in the wagon, who was buried up under an old hat and beneath a rusty cloak, and who had dropped the reins, bawled out. "Why do you frighten my horse?" Why don't you turn out, out. 'Why do you frighten my horse?' Why don't you turn out, then?' says the driver. So we gave him three rousing cheers more; his had had an attack of apoplexy during rubber boots while sweeping off News, the night. When Mr. Stevens the sidewalks in front of their Stevens the sidewalks in front of their heard of it he went into his cellar masters' residence. Professor Jas.

Dr. Denker, of St. Petersburg, answered at last, "I know it is a society and an energetic man in

"Hey?" querried the old man as he wheeled around. "Yes, I'll pay five cents a line to have it published." "Say, let me tell you something," replied Mark. "I've got 200 more circulation than the Banner, and I'll publish your attack on me for 2 cents a line and take it out in mill questionably be the signal for man complaint. The insects, which can complaint. The insects scrutiny be "I will land you safe at the dock "I will land you safe at the dock publish your attack on me for 2 complaint. The insects, which can man to his post. "I will land you safe at the dock in Liverpool," said he, "If you will to Ienia when you can help build up your town!" and cling there until the person He did land us safely; but, the your town!" Mark would have published it enters a warm temperature, when vessel sank moored to the dock. The captain stood on the deck of Mark would have published it word for word, just as he said, and throw in a cut of a horse or a stump-puller free gratis, but the official puller free gratis, but the official the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous, it is for a the bite is not poisonous at the passed down the gang-gers as they passed down the gang-gers as they passed he grasped my the bite is not poisonous stayed ball at the passed by the pa a rule, the bites are mainly confined to the legs, for the snow flea does me?" I told him I was not aware

"Do you remember that boy in dent of Frankford, was a few days Cincinnati?" 'Very well, sir; William Haverly." "I am he," he said. "God bless

"And God bless you, noble Captain Haverly."-|Youth's Companion,

"When a 'oman finds out dat her best fren' ain't got a good character poverty. He was ambitious and tal. "Well, boys," replied the instruc-tor, "that is quite an incident. But

Ingersel thinks Moses made mis-McArchfield of this city has pre- takes, but he is very sure Stephen

Boston Post British Architects appear to concede that plumbing and other sani-tary arrangements of American houses are far better than those of on how old he is when he purchases a on how old he is when he purchases a mowing machine.

> There is nothing like a molassescandy pulling to make young peo-ple candid when giving taffy.

"You are a coward, sire and the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of the wicked are being tortured by being compaged to driving storms in the solution of "Well, I'll give as much," replied during their short marvied life that black his boots beside. You'd bet- as their trunks had been sent on in ter run along home now. What's ye goin' to tell yer mother?" "I'll tell her we come awful near going to heaven, and my little brother he thanks you too, and now ma'am, ever so many times, good-byc!" The man looked after them through a window with softer lines in his face than had been there for months. The how stood outside on months. The boy stood outside on the walk and watched until they had turned a corner and then ex-claimed: "Phew! but I most feel that I prime nobilities. At Alexandria she begged a lock from Mehemet Ali. who said that in a collection con-taining Neilsen's, Napoleou's and taining Neilsen's, Napoleou's and

taining Neilson's, Napoleou's and Wellington's his was unworthy to be included, but that if she thought otherwise he would leave a request to Ibraham Pasha to present her with his beard (he had no hair on his head) and if she did not outlive his head) and if she did not outlive McArchfield of this city has pre-pared an exhaustive article on the subject, which will be read at the next meeting of the academy.— Daily News. Hakes, but he is very sure Stephen W. Dorsey din't. In spite of Bob's assurances, the general public will believe that Moses would have been a better man in Dorsey's place.—

which it is to be

Mr. Mahone, the Virginia senator, wears no rise waistcoat, but a river of gold chain tries to make up the deficiency. His customary headgear of gold chain tries to make up the deficiency. His customary headgear is a white sombrero. He has a very the Atlantic, f board of her titled long beard, and his trousers are board of her t plaited into the waistband, to return to it, grandoise figure compared to the pigmy Khedive of to-day.

was engaged to that gal!"

