We wish to repeat that if we want permanent prosperity he our towns we must foster manufacturing in their borders.

We wish also to preclaim to the world that Dallas has a splendid water-power, easy to be made available, and only waiting to be used in running machinery for purposes of home manufacture.

Who will be the first to improve it?

THE TEMPERANCE RALLY.

There was quite a good attendance at the temperance rally, at the Baptist church, on last Wednesday evening. Short speeches were made by Prof. Parker, Judge Hewitt, Judge Truitt, and Ruben Robbinson. Also a short recitation by L. Belle McCain. The speeches were interspersed with songs, and the evening was spent quite pleasantly.
