THE SOCIAL COSSIP.

who is sometimes absent from his home and family for six weeks at a time, traveling by land and water, on the railroad, in lumber wagons, in steamboats, canoes and sloeps, through rain, mud, snow, wind and heat. Sometimes he is up all night to make connections, misses his meals, is compelled to walk niles and miles, and yet he never stops. I am not a presiding elder, and it is not very likely that I shall ever reach that position, but my position as an "itinerant" enables me where never least listened to if not my position as an "itinerant" enables me where their foul insinuations and out-spoken slanders are, at least, listened to, if not willingly received and commented upon.

These scandalous gossips are not confinen to either sex. There are male social scavengers as well as female. Men who appear from their conversation never to breathe a pure breath, or entertain a pure thought in reference to others. Their whole nature seems to be a mass of festering corruption; and the rottenness of their own inwardness is forever cropping out in their conversation in reference to their meighbors. Readers of the the Commercial can not well Readers of the the Commercial can not well forget that a large space has for years been takee up by Kendall's advertisements—especially of a certain Spavin Cure. We have had dealings with Dr. Kendall for many years and the truth is fully and faithfully proven not only that he is a good honest man, and that his celebrated Spavin Cure is not only all that it is recommended to be, but that the English language is not capable of recommending it too highly

B. J. KENDALT & Co., Gentleman:—I feel it a duty to others suffering with piles and falling of the rectum to write you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five taling of the rectum to write you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agenizing pain. Tried everything without relief, but after ten days use of Kendall's Spavin Cure I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I feel at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and boucht a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort.

With gratitude and best wishes for your success. I am faithfully yours.
