LOCAL NEWS.

Harvesting oils at J. D. Lee's.

Dried plums and plums at J. D. Lee's. One-inch rope for hay forks at J. D. Lee's.
Mr. Geo. Belt, of Independence, was in Dallas, Tuesday.
The new school house is being rapidly pushed to completion.
W. C. Brown has heaps of clapboards to sell cheap. Go and see.
Dr. T. E. Worthington, of McCoy, post Dallas, a visit on last Tuesday.
Mrs. Sarah J. Jones, of Linn county, is in town visiting relatives this week.
Mrs. H. Ellis has moved into the house which she bought of Mr. Burford.
J. E. Smith, our big blacksmith, is at work again, after a week of indisposition.
Dr. T. J. Lee and Jos. Hirschberg, of Independence, were in Dallas on last Monday.
The weather is hot, and the smoke as thick as ever again. When will we have a change?
Our correspondents are all too busy with the harvest to send any items. A little later.
West Virginia Lubricating oil at Jap. R. Miller's. The best Lubricating oil in the world. Try it.
Just received at Jap. R. Miller's drug store a fresh stock of Baker's cold cream. A. A. castor oil.
Mr. M. L. Bergman, of Buena Vista, the best looking bachelor in Polk county, was in town on last Sunday.
Mr. Geo. W. Harris, agent for the Rockford Tire Tugster gave us a pleasant call on last Thursday.
Father Howe went fishing to Little Lockamute last week and caught 15 nice trout. That beats most of boys.
Hay harvest is about over, and hay is selling at from $7 to $9 per ton in Dallas. Now is the time to buy for winter.
The families of Mr. James Campbell, and Jake Crider spent this week still in the mountains, having a good time.
In view of meeting at the Dixie camp-ground next Sunday there will be no Sunday school at the M. E. church.
There is but one vacant house in the city of Dallas, and that one is engaged. Who says that Dallas is not booming?
We have been looking around for apples for winter use, but have not found them. Apples are very scarce indeed.
Col. Neasmith, of Dixie raised a fine field of rye on his farm this year. He expects to sow about 120 acres in rye next year.
If the smoke gets much thicker we will be compelled to have our eyes steel-plunged in order to see any distance through it.
Henry Sheppard, the incorrigible book peddler, with his never-to-be-forgotten Baalme's romance, passed through town on last Wednesday.
The farmers are having the finest weather imaginable for the harvest work. Oregon beats the rest of all. No thunder storms or cyclones.
Look out for burglars and thieves. But I must sell my old home place adjoining town. Look out or you will lose a bargain.
We are glad to learn that Jap. R. Miller's hand is very much improved, and that everything is now favorable for a speedy recovery.
Mr. Newton Harris, had the misfortune to get one of his team horses foundered and another seriously lamed. It is a serious misfortune just at harvest time.
The stone quarry of Messrs. Holman, Rowell & Grant is rapidly becoming an important industry. They are not able to supply the demand at Portland for stone.
Mr. T. A. Lewis, agent for Tunison's Matchless Historical map of the United States, called in our office on last Wednesday. He is offering to furnish the map very cheap.
We learn that the basket meeting held at Dixie on last Sunday was a very pleasant and profitable one. Rev. E. P. Tower, of Salem, was present and preached two able discourses.
Mr. Dave Burns and party returned home from the Soda Springs on last Thursday. They gathered a fine quantity of berries, caught any number of trout, and had a good time generally.
Dr. A. E. Scott has his office fully fitted up and is prepared to treat all diseases scientifically. Chronic diseases of whatever nature a specialty. Office in rear of B. M. Smith's drug store.
We call the attention of our readers to the auction sale, at the residence of Mr. J. A. Miller in Dallas, on Saturday July 28, at 1 o'clock. If you want household goods now is your opportunity.
Mr. J. H. Townsend attorney at law will be found at his office opposite the Itemizer's office until the second door north of the burnt district where the court house is completed. Then he will occupy his old stand again.
Mr. Charles Sullivan, attorney at law, and Sullivan and Lyons, real estate agents, have moved back to the second door north of the post office, where they will be found ready at all times to transact business in their line.
Score one more for Mr. and Mrs. Gold Hubbard, of Smithfield. It is the tenth boy and fifteenth child. If any other couple in Polk county—or even out of it—can do better let them speak out.
Mr. Ed. East, of Salem, came over to Dallas on last Tuesday with the expectation of meeting with Dr. Sikes. The doctor not having arrived, he was compelled to return home on Wednesday morning.
From some unaccountable cause the Zema items sent us the first week in July

Buena Vista Loses a Good Citizen—The Basket Meeting Sunday.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
A great deal of sickness. Hay harvest in full blast. Mrs. Henry Smith is dangerously ill. Who can beat the storekeeper's garden! Prof. Garris paid us a flying visit last Sunday.
Mr. Linderman is putting up a new granary.
Mr. Estabrook has fifty tons of splendid hay for sale.
Jack seems to think he is learning farming fast.
Billie Burns sold his pony to Al. Gougeon for $45. Well sold.
James T. Yeater is quite lame, having jammed his heel while raking hay.
The daughter of Mr. Estabrook is recovering as fast as can be expected.
Uncle Dave Lewis has gone to Yagunia, where he intends to stay the summer.
Mr. B. F. Smith harvested a very fine piece of fall wheat last week. Who can beat him!
Messrs. Smith & Smith have completed making great alterations in their store. It is greatly improved.
Mr. Vincent and family left for Washington county last week for the purpose of settling on his farm. ALPHIA.
(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
Olive-Jory, of Salem, was among us last Sunday.
A. W. Crooks, of Jefferson, Marion county, is spending the week with friends near Zema.
This office has been left out, it seems, with "no cards," but we wish them much joy and happiness all the same.
Our vulcan is kept busy all day long, and he seems glad when night comes to his relief. This is what we might call the blacksmith's harvest time.
Little Ray, son of Joseph R. Sheppard, had the misfortune of breaking his leg in two places. The brave little fellow is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Reynolds, of Salem.
"Brick," in The News of Saturday last, writing from McCoy, rather under estimates the crops. He says the yield will be only 60 per cent. We think 60 per cent. is low enough.

ZENA.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
Absconded—Nate Clark, employed in the store of the late P. E. McClannan, at Plevna, in Oregon, near the California river, on Klamath river, and who was appointed administrator after the death of McClannan, absconded lately with about $1,500, which his bondsmen will be obliged to pay over to Mrs. McClannan. According to the law Mrs. McClannan could not act as administratrix in Oregon, not being a resident of that state, although she acted in that capacity in this state for the settlement of her late husband's business. Mrs. McClannan has been over at Linnville for some days past to see what she could do in securing Clark or the money, and found that Clark was out of reach of the officers, and that her only resource was to make the bondsmen sure for Clark's default as administrator. —[Yreka Journal.]

ISSUES MAN ESCAPED.

A very dangerous man escaped from the insane asylum on Monday last, and since then every effort has been made by the authorities to recapture him, but thus far it has been without avail. His name is Kahlrow, and it will be remembered that some months since he followed and killed a Jewish peddler, whom, in his insanity, he claimed had haunted him for weeks. He was held on a charge of murder, and Kahlrow recounted in detail how he had killed the man. A thorough examination was had, and the man being adjudged insane was a month ago brought to the territorial asylum. On the night named, he crept the bars from his window, reached the ground and made his escape. The woods have been searched everywhere with no success. He is an exceedingly dangerous man to be at large. —[Standard.]

Notice.

Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy horseflesh. Therefore, all persons indebted to me will please make immediate payment as I must have money in order to carry on business. Please rack up and save costs. NAT HOLMAN, July 19, 1883.

To the Public.

Notice is hereby given that I have started my first mill on Little Lockamute, near Lewisville, and am prepared to do grinding for all that may come. J. H. BYERLEY.

FOR SALE.

Word has reached here that H. W. Beecher will not visit this place while lecturing in this state, much to the disappointment of our people.

Our citizens are on their city ears because we are treated like a country cross-roads.

Wheat and oat hay is worth from $5 to $8 per ton in the field; timothy $10, and scarce.

Several cases of measles in town to be looked after. Little Edna was kept at home for good and sufficient reasons.

Mother Hirschberg is and has been quite sick for a week or more. Mrs. Nash is convalescing. One or two light cases of measles in town.

Mr. D. M. Calvert reports the chicken crop is rather short. Young chickens died by the acre, and the weather is too dry to transplant. Think his fall gathering will amount to three or four hundred dozens.

AIRLIE.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
Miss Allie Davidson, of Moskowitz, is visiting friends in Airlie.
Wonder why the boys don't carry gunny sacks with them goose hunting! Harvest has begun and the sound of the sickle is heard in the land.
Miss Anna Martin, of Lafayette, was visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Palmer, this week.
The first baled hay that has been brought to this market arrived Wednesday, by Mr. Joseph Henry. The price he received for it was $12 per ton.
Mr. W. P. Connaway was here Wednesday putting up a binder for W. E. Williams. As soon as it was put together they proceeded to the field to give it a trial. It worked perfectly.
Messrs. Thomas Hendrick and W. E. Dalton went to Portland last Friday on business, returning Monday. Will says he don't know what it was that made him "so sick," Dalton Bros. being the purchasers.
