

THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY W. A. WASH, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

DALLAS, FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1893.

THE OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Per year $1.00, Per six months $0.50, Per three months $0.25.

The California legislature now in session contains fifty-nine democrats, fifty-three republicans and eight populists.

The political situation in Kansas is intensely interesting. Their legislature meets next week on joint ball.

S. A. CLARKE, of Salem, has been in Chicago looking into the fruit business from an Oregon stand point.

The legislative mill will begin to grind next Monday. Ed. Hirsch, of Salem, and Mr. Fulton, of Astoria, are the prospective candidates for president of the senate.

The action of the state board of equalization will meet with opposition from all over the state. It is truthfully claimed that in many cases they had no evidence whatever that the county assessors and boards of equalization had failed to make a just valuation.

B. F. BONHAM, who began the practice of law in Salem in 1856, is still there. Twenty years ago he was supreme judge and has since been county general to India.

Very few people around Dallas ever go to Salem or Portland for photographs, because our home artist, Mr. Miser, makes as good pictures as they can get elsewhere.

Mrs. Gibbons is making the Commercial hotel a very popular place for farmers and the traveling public.

DR. W. C. MCKAY, one of Oregon's most widely known citizens died at his home near the Umatilla Indian agency last Monday.

Mono grange meets on January 7th at 11 o'clock, at which time W. L. Hayes will be present and install the new officers and also deliver an address.

snow and is almost a total wreck. Jay Brown's stock shed broke down, crippling a cow so badly she had to be killed.

When you need steam engine extra or anything of a plumbing nature you should always go to Dugan Bros.

Sroat & Gile have moved to Commercial street in the postoffice block. New store room and everything to correspond.

Cherington's art gallery workmen were not given a single day's recreation during the holidays for their patrons said they must have some of their elegant pictures to rest east before new years.

It is universally admitted that Johnson & Son have the best stock of clothing in the city and most people think they can get bargains there than any where else.

We have tried them and know they always do the fair thing by patrons. We mean Harritt & McIntire, the grocers just north of the postoffice.

Barnes, the cattle block Racker store man, has distanced his competitors in the matter of low prices. It is very annoying to him, but fun for him and profitable to his customers.

So many members of the legislature always do at Strong's restaurant that it is long and crowded for the next two months, but there will be no end to the good things dished up there.

At the Cronise studio—Caterlin's old stand, they are now prepared to take photographs on silk, porcelain or watch dials or print pictures to order.

At the Lynch blacksmith shop you can get as good work done as at any similar establishment in the county.

Hardware of all sorts ever used in this county can always be found at Faul's. As a timber Mr. Koser has but few equals.

When you want groceries, go to John Boydston, who keeps a large stock of choice articles and will give as much as anybody for produce.

Mrs. Christian Endeavor societies, Epworth Leagues, Young Men's Christian associations and kindred organizations are proving a power for good among the young people and deserve unstinted encouragement from all Christian people.

The Salem steam laundry is a very popular institution and employs a large force of hands. Scarcely a day goes by without it being in a good direction.

Where they deal in nothing else but foot wear is apt to be the best place to get such things. J. C. Gaylor has a large stock of boots, shoes and rubber goods.

Morrison's hardware store is now a strictly cash place and if you have the coin handy will let you have things remarkably cheap.

As an iron worker J. E. Smith has had a ripe experience and will come as near giving you satisfaction as any one we could name.

Of course you want the best goods to be had at as reasonable a rate as possible. Everybody will tell you that Craven Bros. keep a stock equal to any in the county and they flatter themselves that they can quote you as low prices as you can find anywhere.

He makes but little noise about it, but when customers come in he shows a quality of goods and gives prices that win. We refer to Davis, the hardware man.

County Court. PROBATE. Burch, J. Elizabeth A. Arthur was given the care and custody of Eleanor Gertrude Smith.

A. J. Richardson, N. E. Tyler and A. L. Shives were chosen to meet January 10th and appraise property of Whitehouse heirs.

February 7th was set for receiving and hearing probate of will of Wm. Perry, deceased.

Commissioners. Henry Byerley, Isaac Simpson. In the Houston road case the bonds were fixed at $150 and approved.

The Giraffe and the Kiwi. "No, Rudolph, this animal shall help us gain that lot of fruit. Twist his tail, Rudolph!"

Denise Downing, Waterbury, Vt. Cuticura Resolvent. The new Blood and Skin Purifier, internally and externally.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS. A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

CHRIST'S FEARLESSNESS. Customs and Observances Had No Influence on His Conduct. A few weeks ago the annual effort, "Christ Before Plaque," was brought to this country and placed on exhibition in New York city.

As one looked on that face and those eyes the thought came with almost irresistible power, "the feeble Christ." The angry Pharisee, the crafty scribe, the perplexed judge and the boisterous crowd which confront him in the judgment hall do not disturb his spirit.

Customs of long standing and of strict observance by the community have no influence on his conduct. He enters the houses of publicans and sinners—two inhomely obnoxious classes in the community.

Carlyle's Philosophy. Carlyle smoked opium and complained much of despondency. A friend once ventured to suggest that his smoking might perhaps injure and depress him.

Nice Flannel for Infants. Shaker flannel is a part cotton material—is the best for children, especially infants.
