

THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY W. A. WASH, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

DALLAS, FRIDAY, FEB. 17, 1888.

THE OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Per year $1.00, Per six months .50, Per three months .25.

THE states of Mexico are one by one enacting laws abolishing the heathenish custom of bull fighting.

Moer Indian and many of their pale faced brethren always act on the principal of letting the future provide for itself.

The proposition for an insane asylum in the eastern part of the state is a reasonable one and sure to carry, either now or in a very few years.

The legislature has done away with the state board of charities, which was thought to have cost more than it amounted to.

The change in the assessment laws will bring to the light much property that has hitherto been hidden from view.

The official count of the presidential vote has at last been made and shows 277 for Cleveland, 145 for Harrison and 22 for Weaver.

The annexation of the Hawaiian islands to this country in some shape is one of the strong probabilities.

The Arlington hotel on Main street feels a majority of the farmers who line in town.

Sroat & Gile buy and sell everything obtainable produced in this state and California.

Even the members of the legislature, assembled from all over the state, seem to know that Patton's book store was the best one to visit for all things pertaining to the legislature.

In the English parliament this week Gladstone made one of the grandest speeches of his life in favor of Irish home rule.

When it comes to getting pictures to send away to first class people, most persons want the very best to be had, but do not always know where to find it.

A good dinner costs no more than a poor one. At Strong's restaurant you can get as good a meal for two bits as you ever sat down to at a four bit table.

Dugan Bros. must be extra good plumbers or they would not get so much work to do, and they sell lots of repairs and supplies for steam engines.

A well made, neat fitting suit of good material and proper color will greatly add to the appearance of any man, and all men should have a pride in appearing to good advantage.

We have dealt with Harritt & McIntire enough to know that they have one of the very best grocery stores in the city.

Mr. Barnes at the New York Racket store can and does under buy and under sell any credit concern.

Hellenbrand's patrons never grumble because he invariably sets a good table.

Both the Methodist and Presbyterian valentine entertainments of Monday and Tuesday evenings were attractive occasions and gave still more conclusive proof that we have home talent as capable of pleasing a public gathering as most of the traveling concerns.

Mrs. Baskett, of Salem, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fox, at Dixie.

INKLINGS AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

We undertake to say that J. H. Lawton has been far superior as a tonorial artist.

Yes, and we confidently affirm that Isaac Lynch will come as near giving satisfaction as a blacksmith as any one to whom you could go for that kind of work.

Nor is it an exaggeration to state that the Commercial has meals and rooms equal to the best.

More over you are hereby warned that in the Wilson block R. R. Taylor has a large amount of general merchandise, which he is selling at a very large discount to close out a stock he bought at a bargain.

Faul's hardware emporium is headquarters for everything made of tin iron or steel.

Ask to see those elegant and cheap ladies and children's shoes just received from Boston by Brown & Son.

We have here in our town an artist who is willing to compare his work with any artist in any adjoining county.

The Salem steam laundry does most of its work with the latest improved machinery.

Rubber boots and shoes will be in demand for some time to come and the best place in town to get them is at Gaynor's store.

It is so much more pleasant and convenient to trade at a store where you can get everything you want without running around to half a dozen different places.

Next door to the postoffice is a good place to get whatever you may need in the line of hardware, and in talking to your neighbors about such things you can always recommend Mr. Morrison's goods.

No other man has been hammering iron in Dallas so long as John E. Smith, and his work has always stood the test.

The Arlington hotel on Main street feels a majority of the farmers who line in town.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE NOTES.

It has been our great pleasure to have been visited by that should be the best and ablest men the state can produce.

Much that some would regard as very interesting reading we always omit from this paper, believing that such matter should not go into the homes of the county.

Had for the Doctors. "No, sir," said a prominent physician recently, "I'm not getting anything like the amount of work that I ought to have at this time of year."

Buying and Selling a Blind Man. A queer business transaction has just come to light in Paris.

The Horse Objected. Luther Springer, of Hancock, Mo., owns a horse, whose days of usefulness are over, he hired a man to kill.

A Dream of Wealth. "I'd like to be rich," said Tommy. "How rich?" asked his sister. "Oh," replied the young man, "after some thought, 'rich enough to wear my Sunday clothes every day.'"

The Main Point. "You shouldn't argue with mamma," said Mrs. W. to her son. "You got her all wound up this morning."
