

THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY W. A. WASH. PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

DALLAS, FRIDAY, MCH. 24, 1892.

THE OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Per year $1.00, Per six months .50, Per three months .25.

The pope has promised to send a message to the Catholics of America by means of a phonograph...

The whole of German empire is in a state of dissatisfied anxiety over military matters. Every young man is compelled to serve a certain time in the army...

While Mr. Cleveland was out of the presidential chair the public did not concern themselves about what church he attended or his manner of life...

Almost the whole of Europe is suffering from business depression and labor troubles. Smaller sales and closer profits seem to demand a reduction of the already small wages...

Some people seem to think that the mere fact of one belonging to a church or secret order entitles him to more respect and confidence than outsiders. If he lives up to the obligations taken in either case, he is very apt to be above the average outsider...

You are constantly hearing of state, county and city officials all over the land going wrong when it was supposed that they were perfectly straight and reliable in all their doings...

Some time ago a large party of Grand Army of the Republic men visited Richmond, Virginia, and were entertained with such genuine hospitality that they asked permission to do as they pleased in the Confederate soldiers home there...

The state of Washington now has a law making it criminal for any one to buy, sell, give away, or manufacture cigarettes or cigarette paper within that state. At least half a dozen other states have lately enacted similar laws...

SOME seem to think it unfortunate that the president is not in full accord with all the senators and congressmen of his own party...

official trickery and stealings from Uncle Sam's big crib, and the third always favors a speedy and radical change from what the other party has been doing...

The beautiful cantata, Little Red Riding Hood, will be presented at the city hall next Wednesday evening with the following cast:

Scene first—Fairy queen and her attendants. Scene second—Little Red Riding Hood and her mother. Scene third—Enter wolf. Wolf, Willie Fowler, Wolf intercepts Little Red Riding Hood on the way to visit her grandmother.

Our paper makes its first publication next Wednesday. Wheat is hardly so far along as usual at this time of year.

Robert Greer soon starts back to his home in Missouri. We look for him back again before a year.

Henry Staats, of Tator Hill, was called to Independence Tuesday on special business. Mrs. Williams, our new blacksmith is giving entire satisfaction, as he is a first class workman.

The Staats brothers have 120 head of mutton sheep they intend putting on the market about the first of April. Wiley Norton, of Benton county, will erect a barn 24x32 and twenty feet high on his property near here this spring.

Fred Kau, of Peesee, passed through town Monday with a wagon load of hop roots, guess Fred is going to put hops on all the bald hills in that country.

Oregon Government Office seekers. Among those who have filed applications at Washington are: Will T. Webster, for collector of customs at Yaquina bay; Mary A. Brown, for re-appointment at the Hillsboro post-office; H. A. Robertson, for reappointment at Independence; A. Hampton, for reappointment at Newport; M. A. Moore, for postmaster at Prineville; Ben Brown, for receiver of the U. S. land office at Burns; J. F. Moore, for register at The Dalles; Eugene Freeman, for postmaster at Portland; Jeff Myers, for governor of Alaska; John Lane, for collector of customs of Alaska; Judge Crows, of Seattle, for United States district attorney for Alaska; Colonel R. A. Miller, for minister to Turkey; Hon. Herman Wise, for postmaster at Astoria; Dr. Mullinix and Mr. Van Dusen, for collector of customs at Astoria; M. J. McKinnon, for United States timber inspector; N. A. Ambrose, for assistant superintendent United States railway mail service at Portland; D. W. H. Snook, for postmaster at Woodburn; J. R. Blackaby, for postmaster of Jordan Valley; Richard I. Hammond, for postmaster at Klammath Falls; Louis Laugenberg, for postmaster at Roseburg; Laramie Mayer, for register at the United States land office at Oregon City; R. A. Hales, for United States marshal of Alaska; Zera Snow, for United States (Oregon) district judge; Henry Blackman, for collector of internal revenue.

Rev. Randall will preach at Perrydale Sunday. The mother of A. K. Wilson is dangerously sick in his home. A license has been issued for the marriage of John Wilson, of Cooper Hollow, to Miss Ida Lindie.

The Sheriff is now receiving taxes at the rate of about $900 a day. Taxes become delinquent after the first of April. The prospect is that the delinquent list will be larger than last year. At a Swiss Hotel. Landlord—Go and wake the gentleman at No. 7. Boots—But he told me to wake him in a couple of hours.

Landlord—Nonsense! Wake him now. He neither eats nor drinks anything so long as he is asleep.—Dorfbarrber. An Old Trick Restated. She—I believe you don't care for me as much as you say you do. With you, I think, it is "out of sight, out of mind." He (earnestly)—You are right, for when you are out of my sight I am out of my mind.—LIFE.

Had to grin and bear it. He (at midnight)—Furry custom the Chinese have. The hostess is expected to notify the caller when it is time to go. She (with a sigh)—But we are in America, you know.—Texas Siftings.

After having closely inspected and often bought from the grocery stock of Sloat & Gile, we are prepared to pronounce it second to none in the city. All sorts of California products. Strong restaurant never has the same bill for free two days in succession. Whatever is latest and best they buy and their chief cook knows exactly how to prepare it.

Whether or not Mr. Morrison is chosen councilman, he will keep right on furnishing the very best hardware as cheap as the cheapest. John E. Smith is the man you are hunting, if you wish to find the best blacksmith in the community. There are plenty of stores all around, but you say you are looking for a place where you can get everything you need under one roof, in one fall, of good quality and at a fair price. Then come along and let us introduce you to Craven Bros. We feel sure that after you have traded there once you will be inclined to go again.

Perhaps the best steam laundry in the state is at Salem. It is not often that they fail to give satisfaction. Leave your bundle of soiled clothes at Lawson's barber shop. They will be taken over and brought back for a dime.

At the Cronise art gallery, the state of the weather has but little to do with their pictures, so do not put off having your negative taken because it is a cloudy day. They make it their business to satisfy customers without reference to the time or trouble required. For a choice dinner always go to Charlie Heilenbrand's eating palace. Harritt & McIntire continue to reap a rich harvest of trade because of their superior groceries and low prices. You can get crockery and glassware at cost because they are going out of those lines.

Some might think that we had already said everything that could be said in favor of the Johnson clothing store. But not so, for there is no end to the sermons that can be preached from a good text. We hereby assert that at no town on the Willamette river can you get better or cheaper clothing than from G. W. Johnson & Son.

White Corner bargain store is what many persons call the dry goods emporium of Joe Myers. They have eight different kinds of fancy silk from all sorts of great variety of materials. Their new styles or patterns of dress goods must be seen to be appreciated. No Polk county lady will make a mistake in going there for wearables. Everything pertaining to the plumbing trade is kept by Dugan Bros. and they have everything needed to doctor a steam engine, such as valves, packing and lubricators.

Whoever tries to get ahead of Dearborn the look seller in the way of any other car, will find it a great disappointment. He is a keen observer, close buyer and manages to always have the most saleable things. The State Insurance block racket store, has the cheapest ladies and childrens shoes in town, they have an elegant line of hats for young men, nice satcen and wood dress skirts, gloves of all sorts, a great variety of napkins, towels and other household necessities.

Yes, and all of the eating places in Dallas are the Arlington houses second to none. Clean and comfortable beds. Whether or not Mr. Morrison is chosen councilman, he will keep right on furnishing the very best hardware as cheap as the cheapest. John E. Smith is the man you are hunting, if you wish to find the best blacksmith in the community. There are plenty of stores all around, but you say you are looking for a place where you can get everything you need under one roof, in one fall, of good quality and at a fair price. Then come along and let us introduce you to Craven Bros. We feel sure that after you have traded there once you will be inclined to go again.

The Commercial hotel is conveniently located, the fare good, and terms low enough. Miser's art gallery has no superior in any inland town of the state. He keeps right up with every advancement in the business and will guarantee his work to please you. We saw a bald headed rascal scratching his head the other day with a far away look. When asked what he was thinking about, the reply was that he wanted to find, if possible, a cheaper second hand store, but he could not remember where he had ever gotten better bargains.

Maybe some one else can tell you a better place than Gaylor's to buy boots and shoes, but we cannot. He has the largest variety and as good stock as you will get anywhere. There are several things to be taken into consideration when you want to buy hardware. Where can you find a full stock, does it consist of first class articles, and are they held at reasonable figures. We think all those conditions are met in the firm of Fausell & Co., who would be glad to show goods and compare prices.

L. V. Lynch acknowledges no superior in these parts when it comes to doing any kind of iron work whatever. He wants you to make him prove it. After nearly a life time in the business, J. M. Campbell ought to be a good furniture dealer. He claims to have everything needed by the community at bottom prices.

No lady in this vicinity should think of going elsewhere for millinery until she has inspected the fresh, spring stock of Miss Bronson over Brown's store.

The grocer and the Pretty Girl. She is pretty and pert, and as she enters the grocery store the eyes of the proprietor follow her around in silent admiration. She asks for celery, and while she is trying to make up her mind as to whether she will take 10-cent bunch or a 15-cent bunch she sits out of a basket and throws the shells on the floor. The eyes of the proprietor still follow her, but there is a different look in their depth. After having nibbled at some dates, whose stones follow the shells, she tries some crackers, samples some cheese and finally decides on the 10-cent bunch of celery, which she requests the grocer to send around as soon as possible. With a final grab at a handful of nuts she makes her way out leaving a trail of shells, stones and cracker crumbs. The grocer orders the boy to "sweep up" and spends the rest of the evening in trying to calculate how much he lost on that bunch of celery.—New York Herald.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE. For 1892, just issued, contains the latest list of flowers, plants, shrubs, etc., and is the most complete and reliable guide ever published. It is a beautiful and useful book, and is sold by all the leading book and stationery stores.

Frank Myer, of Smithfield, has bought 30,000 feet of lumber to build a new house and barn.

A New Kind.

The two drummers were standing up at the railway restaurant counter feeling pretty soon one of them, after a slight manipulation, handed something to the other. "Have a Lilloukaiaki sandwich," he said. "What in thunder kind of a sandwich is that?" said the other, taking it. "Try it and see." "Come off!" exclaimed the other one as he tried to open with his knife, "there's a bunnet came for me at the same time."—Cloak Review.

Witherby—Have my collars and cuffs come home from the laundry? Mrs. Witherby—Yes. They were C. O. D. and I want $25. Witherby—Great Caesar! Why the bill couldn't have been over $1. Mrs. Witherby—True, my dear, but a bunnet came for me at the same time.—Cloak Review.

Sensible people profit by experience. Last year many found that their expenses had been unreasonably large and upon examination of the various bills rendered, found it was caused by too much trading at High Priced Stores. This year they have turned over a new leaf and trade where they can get the best bargains. They now buy everything in the book and stationary line of PATTON BROS. AT SALEM.

"Seeing is Believing." And a good lamp must be simple: when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, beautiful, good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a wonderful lamp, for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp freely by express—your choice of over 1,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World. ROCHESTER LAMP CO., 45 Park Place, New York City.
