

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Dr. Hayter, dentist, over Wilson's drug store, Dallas.

Elder Doty has returned from the east and opened a dental office in Moon mouth.

George Good, a former proprietor of this paper, is now running the Perkins hotel in Portland.

Mrs. A. B. Cooper, of Salem, has gone to Moscow, Idaho, to visit her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Williams.

Elder R. M. Messick, now stationed at Milton, in eastern Oregon, has been visiting his former parishioners at Moon mouth.

L. C. Parker, A. W. Teats and I. N. Woods are delegates to the Old Farmers grand lodge, which meets at Eugene in May.

Karl's Clover Root, the new blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation. 25c, 50c and $1.

Most of your damp and clammy soil can be drained and stirred until it is as good as any on the place. Untilled ground is worthless.

Miss Alice Chapin is teaching at Smithfield, E. A. Freeland at Grand Ronde, Miss Mary Stevens at Oak Point and C. L. Purvine north of Zena.

Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you need for dyspepsia, liver, yellow skin or kidney trouble. It is guaranteed to give you satisfaction. Price, 75 cents.

Oregon is not a good corn state and yet many of our best farmers annually raise a few acres for stock feed. It gives a variety of doing everything for cost of production.

We have large trespass notices, on cloth, at five cents each.

Mason, dentist, in Campbell's brick block, Mill street, Dallas.

Good, fresh milk cow for sale by Thomas Tatom, east of Dallas.

Plows, plows, plows for everybody and everyone warranted by W. B. Davis.

An electric railway is being built from Oregon City to the Tualatin river some three miles.

It is a wise editor who always knows what it is best to say and what it is better to leave unsaid.

Our advertising rates are so low that anybody can afford to use printer's ink in helping them to buy or sell.

Mr. Boyd has this week been severely afflicted with neuralgia of the heart at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy.

Blow, blow, blow! That disagreeable catarrh can be cured by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the constitution, I remedy.

We will be glad to furnish paper and envelopes to all who will occasionally send us in the news. Call or send for a package of it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thielen, of Derby, were among us Tuesday. They are thoroughly good citizens, worthy of imitation in many ways.

Shiloh's Cure, the great cough and croup cure, is for sale by all druggists. Packet size contains twenty-five doses, only 25 cents. Children love it.

The new assessment law is a puzzle. Some assessors view it in one light and some in another. It is to be hoped that the law will arrive at some uniformity of action.

Miss Velva Swann will again teach at Kings Valley.

C. C. Linden, of Williamina, is to teach at Sheridan.

This office is prepared to print horse bills in good shape.

Frank Post, a former McCoyite, is now a Salem real estate hustler.

Wm. Madison and wife think of moving from Independence to Roseburg.

What was the Bethel band moved to McCoy and changed name accordingly.

J. W. Buser has moved from Independence to Roseburg to engage in the drug business.

The Kiekapoo Indian medicine company, who were here, are now performing in Albina.

Out beyond Ballston, a man set a trap for a wild beast and captured a China pheasant.

Mrs. Elizabeth Whitman, of Moon mouth, is visiting her grandson, Seth Murphy, at Olympia.

The Little Palace hotel at Independence cannot be a very paying concern, judging from the frequency with which it changes landlords.

Turner, which is a few miles east of Independence, on the railroad, seems to be booming the wrong way, there being over a dozen empty dwellings.

Little Jimmie Chambers, of Kings Valley, though less than ten years old, has proved a very successful book connoisseur. Let other boys take the hint.

The Portland police have for several months been making it so warm for all sorts of unworthy characters that the city is now comparatively free of them.

John Ritter is the new director and Barney Cook clerk, just this side of Kings Valley, and at Red Prairie, W. J. Taratige and M. Syron have those places.

Sol Stump is the fresh director and Ois Wolverson clerk in the district west of Saver. For the school north of Zena Ira Hurley will serve as director and Frank Melnychuk as clerk.

The present members of the Ballston band are J. McCain, Geo. Hall, J. C. Wilcox, Elias Conner, David Bowman, John Cornelius, T. J. Butler, S. A. Ballard and W. B. Bowman.

We have had tax receipts for sale at a cent each. How many men whose time is worth anything can afford to furnish the paper and write out twenty-five such receipts for two bits.

J. D. Soward, of Ballston, answers the Moonmouth problem of last week, saying the farm must be forty miles square and would contain 1,024,000 acres and that many rails and stakes.

Several hundred good birds of different kinds were imported from Germany and turned loose in the Williams etc. valley, and are already beginning to multiply like the Chinese peasantry.

The Sheridan Sun man wants to know how the ladies will ride horse back when they begin to wear hoop skirts. When a woman says she will ride, she will have to ride like a clothes pin.

Noble red men must believe in woman's rights, for at the Dallas last week a squaw was seen treading along the street with a cooking stove on her back, while her legs rode walked leisurely behind carrying the lid.

We are constantly receiving an unlimited amount of would-be applicants, but most of it is at once chucked into the waste basket, for it takes money to run a newspaper, and those who get the benefits of advertising should pay for it.

In the Lewisville school district M. D. Turner is now a director and D. W. Lewis as clerk. At Ballston Henry Bell is to serve as director and W. W. Stockton clerk, while Wm. Fuqua and D. M. Calbreath occupy those positions at Parker.

J. M. Campbell's uncle has sent him from Iowa a piece of wrought steel, which was used over 100 years ago in striking fire, before matches came into use. As our pioneers read this multitude of memories in connection with flint and steel fire making will come trooping back.

The Presbyterian Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at the church on Monday evening at 7:30. Instead of Sunday evening as heretofore. Song service and Bible reading. Regular Y. P. S. C. E. topics, God's Promises, special topic, The Household of Bethany. All young people cordially invited.

The governor and secretary of state to select the most eligible location for the new penitentiary authorized by the legislature. Half a dozen different sites were considered, and all think they give the very best of reason why they give their respective localities.

Oregon has five living ex-governors, John Whiteaker, of Eugene, S. F. Chadwick and Z. F. Moody, of Salem, L. F. Grover and W. W. Thayer, of Portland, Mr. Moody being the only republican among them. It is singular that a republican state should have so many democratic governors.

The California legislature has passed a law making criminal to sell short weight of butter. Hereafter a two pound roll there must weigh thirty two ounces. Oregon needs something similar. If buyers would have merchants to weigh it and pay for just what they get, it would have a tendency in the right direction.

We are in receipt of Salem's new paper, the Independent, published by L. H. McMahon. It starts in as if it had come to stay, and is sure to make the three other papers there realize its presence. It looks as if there were brains, push and coin at the back of it, although the proprietors will probably not expect many dividends for a year or so.

A recent case of corporal punishment in a Salem school has brought forth a flood of opinions on the subject. The same thing has been up a thousand times before with the same diversity of opinion. The boiled down conclusion is that the most experienced educators are in a row and that the only sane and should avoid corporal punishment, but that now and then cases arise where nothing else will fill the bill. The teacher should always insist upon being absolute master of the situation, no matter what it requires to do it so. Let prompt and unconditional obedience be the invariable rule of the school.

Spelling school has adjourned sine die.

Baptist prayer meeting changed to four o'clock Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to hear that our former neighbor, Bert Hibbert, has the Bridgeport school.

Henry Farley is enjoying a badly cut knee. Andy Siskler has carved a small ball out of his foot.

Quite a mining camp is being found down at Fox Ford's place. Claims are being sold and staked off. Blasting, sinking shafts, passing around sample ore and other things in connection with quartz mining are going on. Of course the mine will be advertised in the IREMIZER.

Headed at Cost.

For cash in hand or good notes, until further notice you can have at cost anything I have in stock, consisting of a fine line of hardware, stoves, tinware, farm machinery, buggies, wagons, harness and plows. Come with your cash and be convinced. W. B. DAVIS.

Miss Minnie Tetherow, of Independence, will teach upon the Luckiamute.

The Independence tile works are doing a good business, with an increasing demand.

Miss Stella Umphlette has gone from the normal school because her mother is sick at Astoria.

E. C. Hall, formerly of Beuna Vista, has at Moscow, Idaho, an opal mine supposed to be worth $25,000.

Glenn Graves bought at $800 the eighty acres of the C. B. Graves place sold at administrator's sale last Saturday.

We have reasons to be proud of the kind things being said about this paper and all the time trying to make it still better.

A Scio girl has a tongue so colossal that she can wet a Columbia postage stamp at one lick. The man who marries her will be entitled to the sympathy of the world.

Daniel Hollingsworth, of Dallas, answers the inquiry of last week that he can wet a Columbia postage stamp at one lick. He says the field must be forty miles square, and gives the figures to prove it.

Henry Statts, of Lewisville, had one ewe to give birth to the lambs and another four. If they keep on at that lick he will have to enlarge his farm to suit sheeplets play room and pasturage.

Tomorrow there is to be a neighborhood meeting at the Williamsina cemetery to grub and clear it up. There ought to be at the old Dallas cemetery an early date a similar meeting for a similar purpose.

An exchange says: "It has been discovered that the home-grown, hand-spun, ragged, hair-foot country boy makes a better fighter in the battle of life than does the well pampered, well clothed city boy, the seat of whose pants are dusted with a golden clipper. Give us the hand-spun country boy every time."

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

RICKREALL. All feel good over the certainty of having a new and better flouring mill. Miss Nonie Burch has been engaged as a regular assistant in our public school.

Mrs. Henrietta Ellis, of Salem, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Kuykendall, and a sister of Mrs. Ben. Lucas is up from McMinnville.

Zenas Hinshaw is grubbing for P. L. Frazier's boy yard, and J. M. Davis is excavating a hillside for his hop house.

Stock is doing as well as could be expected, considering shortness of feed and lack of shelter.

Mr. Martin, his wife and their son Bert have a gripe.

Christena Brown and Kitty Corwell were among their Hazel Dell friends last week.

Mr. Wellman and family have moved into the Huber house and he is working for Mr. Tolal.

Mr. Edlemann's infant child died last week.

The motor cars were laid up for repairs several days this week.
