The president acknowledged that he had little or nothing invested. Wm. Tillotson, Lemuel Tillotson, Eddie Bonnell and Ellen Guy have been cited to appear before the probate court June 6th, and show cause, if any, why certain property of the George Tillotson estate should not be sold to pay debts of same.

Oliver Smith is administrator of the John H. Smith estate and all persons having claims against the estate must present them before Aug. 5th. All having claims against the George Jackson estate must present them to W. A. Jackson prior to Aug. 17. The Corvallis Times says: D. R. Hodges and Cam Vanderpool, solid Soap Creek farmers, paid respects to the Times Friday. The former, in 1848, handled the first two bushels of wheat into Corvallis. It came from Portland and was consigned to C. A. Avery.

Judge Burnett has written to Judge Collins that court will be opened promptly at 10 o'clock, Monday, May 5th, and that he will be ready to try a jury trial at 10 o'clock. He proposes to waste neither the people's money nor the valuable time of those who must attend court. In ending up a labored political editorial in the West Side says: It is our settled conviction that Grover Cleveland is well aware that his party is without any advance ideas which will satisfy the people, and he is now at work in regard to the Sabbath day, and all present went away perfectly satisfied that the scriptures do not prove that Saturday is the day which is all original to keep. Rev. Wm. Robb will speak on the same subject next Sunday at 11 o'clock, about 3 and 7. The old time Seventh day people never come out to such meetings for fear some one will convince them that they are wrong. It will do no one any harm to attend religious meetings. Denominations makes no difference—the great truth can be learned at all of them. Come to Sunday school next Sunday at 10 o'clock and remain to Rev. Rubie's sermon.

Mrs. Shelton always aims to make it pleasant for her customers at the Arlington house. A complete assortment of first class general merchandise means much, but that is exactly what Craven Bros. have in the line of groceries they are supplied with everything our people ever call for, and the same is true with reference to dry goods. When it comes to ladies' dress goods or men and boys' clothing all they ask is that you see what they have before buying elsewhere. ACROSS THE STEEL BRIDGE. Hop and fruit spraying will be done by nearly everybody engaged in those lines of business and Dugan Bros are prepared to furnish everything they will need. See them about it.

Mrs. Fiester is distancing her millinery competitors in desirable new things and low prices. The young ladies will be charmed with her new lace and trim. Ask to see her fancy straw, chip hats and leg-horns. The cunning fingers of her ambitious assistants are constantly creating head gear that would fascinate anybody. Hellenbrand is a jolly fellow and always has something good to eat.

Send by stage to Davison's market for salmon eggs to catch trout. He will buy all your fat poultry and can furnish you any kind of fish wanted. The New York Racket store will guarantee you a saving of 15 per cent on almost every article in ribbons, dresses and the like. It is the cheapest place in town to get a hat, pair of overalls or suit for a boy.

For a copy of the new game law apply or send one cent to Brooks & Salisbury. See their large and attractive display of fancy Indian baskets. You never saw more beautiful combinations of colors, no two being alike. The balmy spring weather will cause many a mother to want a nice baby carriage, and they have them. The people have given an old established concern a new name. John-John is called the Happy Home Clothing House, because so many homes are made happy by getting men and boys' clothing there. They have pants jumpers and shirts made especially for laboring men. They will not rip, can scarcely be torn, and are cheap enough for anybody.

Not soon again will you have a chance to get crockery and glassware as cheap as at the present closing out sale of Harritt & McIntire. Many desirable pieces and sets are still on hand. Elegant upholstery and recovering of furniture is done by J. W. Thibault in the State Insurance block. He can remodel or repair anything in his line. Cronis & Cronis, the State street photographers, have as fine an unrivaled display of genuine artistic work as you ever saw. Their cards are beautiful and want all Polk county ladies who visit this city to call and inspect her fine display and the bargains offered. The goods will speak for themselves as being a little nicer than anything ever before seen in the city.

Dearborn lets the other fellows do all the blowing, while he and his clerks keep busy as bees wrapping up books, stationery and kindred things for scores of customers. Without a comfortable and neat fitting corset a lady is neither happy nor well dressed. The best thing of the kind in existence is Thompson's glove fitting corset. It is warranted to fit exactly as represented or the price will be refunded by Jos. Meyers, sole agent, at the White Corner. That is the very best place to get everything worn by women and children.

All must die, and then an important question is where to get the burial outfit. If Salem is your natural trading point, you cannot do better than to go to A. M. Clough on State street. Sroat & Gile not only lead in the sale of fine groceries but handle more California products than any other firm and buy Oregon products to ship there. Did you ever notice the fact that there is a continual change of programs and keep our home made goods to be had in the markets.

Annual Teacher's Picnic. It will be held at Falls City, Saturday, May 29th. The opening address will be by Prof. Hitchcock, of Independence. Each school in the county is requested to furnish two exercises for the occasion and report their selections to the county superintendent as soon as they can, so as to be assigned a proper place on the program, and prizes will be awarded to two best productions. Two other prizes will be offered for the best productions by graduating classes. All schools are requested to make a list of their work. A Magnificent Present. The Woolen Mill Store in Salem are determined to keep our home made goods to the front and send an inducement to get an interest aroused are going to give away a pair of blankets valued at $25 on the 15th of May. For particulars call and see them. Blankets on exhibition in show window. Grain is looking fine. J. W. Edgar has been making some new improvements in the way of fencings. D. R. Hubbard is running the post-office and shipping eggs to Portland. School is prospering, although some have been absent on account of sickness.

W. S. and Lillie Dennis have been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity. Sunday school at the church every Sunday at 10 o'clock and everybody requested to attend. Forest Grove Poultry Yards. Now has 300 breeding birds, including twenty-six fowls, imported specially for the egg trade of 1893. They consist of Wyandottes, Plymouth Rocks, Light Brahmas and Brown Leghorns, which varieties make up the cream of all poultry. A single setting of egg $3 or two for $5. Some birds for sale. Send for catalogue to J. M. Garrison, Forest Grove, Oregon.

RICKLEALL. Our Arbor day exercises were well attended. T. S. Burch has been quite sick for several days. Miss Blanche Bronson, of Dallas, spent Sunday with friends here. The frame work of the mill is all together and they are at work on the third story. Miss Fannie Orr, who has been attending the normal, quit last Friday, and Mrs. Cora Dempsey, from there, spent Sunday with her parents. Harness and Saddlery. T. S. Coffey at Perrydale or keeps on hand good eastern stock or will make to order anything you want in those lines. Be sure to see his goods and learn his prices before buying elsewhere.

Rev. C. E. Crandall will preach at Perrydale Sunday. Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report. Royal Baking Powder. ABSOLUTELY PURE.

LUCKIAMIUTE. Charlie Brown is still in very poor health. Jesse Walker and wife spent Sunday with relatives near Dixie. Mrs. Albert Tedlow has been quite ill, but is now convalescent. Columbus Tetherow is doing quite a lot of grubbing on his place. Ben Critchlow, of Salem, has been visiting relatives in this part. Our school is progressing nicely under the able management of A. J. Shipley. Mrs. Helmiok, of Albany is visiting her sons, James and Louis, of this place. Fall grain is looking well, but not much spring grain has yet been sown. W. W. Miller, of your city, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Holman, last week.

Not Holman was through here Saturday and Jim Tetherow was at the county seat on Friday. The child of Wm. Mulkey, brother of Ham Mulkey, who is visiting here, died last week of croup. COOPER HOLLOW. V. G. Hedley's father is out from Indiana on a visit. Miss Mata Brown, who recently went east, is soon to be married. I. B. Whitcomb has been over from his new home at Talmage. Miss Ora Towns spent Sunday in Dallas with her cousins, the Misses Cobb. Allen Towns has a new wagon from the factory of O. H. Cobb at the county seat. W. H. Mack has been ditching for tile and is planting strawberries from the state agricultural experiment station.

MOUNT PISGACH. N. Carr will soon erect a good new barn. L. Scober is on a business trip to Portland. A son has appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sticher. A Portland real estate man has been around trying to unload city property for a good farm. D. E. Gilman has leased to other parties thirty acres of ground, which they are planting in hops. Leslie Thurston's eggs and Will Bressler's apples ought to have choked the boys who concocted them. It took Lee Scober and Leslie Thurston five hours to come in a buggy from Independence to the latter's home five miles. Their horse was far more inclined to back than to pull, but the boys kept it in a good humor. SHERIDAN. Whooping cough and la grippe in town. Everybody pleased with our new teachers. The proposed saloon license failed to materialize. A. J. Switzer recently died on the Upper Willamina. Frank Simpson was over on the Nantuxco last week. Levi Wright and John Wright and family are back from Newberg. The United Brethren quarterly meeting was held here the other day. Somebody has been poisoning meat from the smoke house of H. T. Graves. Prof. L. W. McAdams, the Independence tombstone man, was here last week. Elder H. B. Morgan, pastor of the Christian church at Tillamook city, passed through town some days ago.

Coming to Dallas. One or more Surgeons of the National Institute, which is established at 319 Bush street, San Francisco, will be in Dallas, Hotel, Salem, Thursday, and Friday, April 27th and 28th, and at the Hotel Holman Dallas, Saturday, April 29th. This Institute is specially devoted to the treatment of curvature of the spine, diseases of the hip and knee joint, crooked limbs, club feet and all bodily deformities. Their success in treating these troubles as well as nasal catarrh and all chronic diseases has made for the Institute a national reputation. All persons who are suffering from any manner of disease or deformity, or who have children or friends so suffering, should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity for relief. Ask your postmaster for circulars. This Institute received the Gold Medal at the World's Fair Philadelphia for the best apparatus and method of treatment in the world. Thousands of References will be given on application. Anyone having a good gentle horse to exchange for lumber may apply here. C. C. Ragsdale, a Monmouth stock man, died suddenly in Portland last week. H. C. Notson has gone back to his old Kansas home, and his family will soon follow. Hon. N. L. Butler is to deliver the annual address at the pioneer's meeting in Portland, June 15th. All the ladies should be sure to closely inspect these beautiful dress goods in the show window of Penton & Toner. Arbor day was duly celebrated by our public school, the various parts being well performed. The trees planted were named Washington, Grant, and Alice Carey. Perhaps in no former school term were so much encouraged to do extra work for display both at home and abroad. Many of their productions would be a credit to either heads and more skillful fingers.

WE anticipate a big yield of fruit. We have no flour trust, all cash. The grangers talk of erecting a new hall. Sunday school regularly with W. B. Birks as superintendent. The Parker boys will start an incubator if they have the eggs. Quite a few in this corner of the county expect to visit the world's fair. Sol Stump and E. E. Staats have taken horses to Revere to be trained. Roadmaster Chamberlain has begun plowing along the sides of the roads preparatory to filling up the chuch holes. In answer to your request for correspondents throughout the county, I will give you a few items, hoping they may be of some interest to a part of your readers. Marshall Thompson, who has been working for James Spigler, has rented a farm in Kings Valley. C. N. Tharp is getting ready to see the sights of Chicago soon after May 1st. Rev. L. S. Fisher will preach his last week sermon here next Sunday at 3 o'clock. He may come back another year, but of that the conference will say. The city council have bridged the street at the south end, near the blacksmith shop, and put in an open sewer four inches deep in front of W. F. Cauthorn's, it emptying into Mud lake west of Saver. Other improvements will be noted as they occur. Wm. Fuqua has sold to Mr. Patterson, fatherless of Marsh Hill, seventy-four acres of land between Saver station and Luckiamute for $2,750. Mr. Patterson will put out about twelve acres of hops. James Wheeler was surprised about two weeks ago by the arrival of his nephew from Missouri, a young man, the son of Mr. Wheeler's youngest sister, who was only 15 or 16 years old when he last saw her. Mr. Wheeler left Missouri for Oregon about 1843 and has never been back since. Mr. Hayes, state lecturer for the grapes, gave a talk at Cedar Hill Saturday night to an attentive audience. He seems to fully understand his work and made some hard hits at capitalists. For several years the year's average at preaching or Sunday school, but, instead, had a saloon. Four years ago last November Rev. James Beachamp held a meeting for about a month and when it closed a class of the church he represented was organized, also a Sunday school. The saloon was closed and has never been opened, but the Sunday school has been for more than four years, winter and summer, you could see people going toward the school house. Rain or sunshine the school has been kept going and the first quarter of the present year's average attendance of twenty-seven will give the reader an idea as to what our school is at the present time. Men pass away, but the gifts of their work are seen for years. How much better to be for good than for bad. In closing this budget of news I wish to say that I have not the least intention of crowding out the regular reporter for this place, but to allow the readers of the TRIBUNE, and they are many, that there are times at least when things happen here as well as other places. We have aimed only to get the freshest items or we could have given much more. With best wishes to all we will vial for the present.

BUENA VISTA. A. P. Bonney is up from San Francisco. A. McLaughlin has lost several head of cattle by poisoning. Miss Emma Hughes, of Dallas, has been visiting among us. John Andrews has had and Eston Bonens is having the mumps. The public school will give an entertainment on the evening of the 29th. Mrs. Jennie Smith is in Portland with her brother, George Lee, who is dangerously ill. The division line land contest is between John Yerkes and John Byers, instead of Mr. Byers as stated in the Monmouth Record. T. J. Jackson and his pupils of the public school had a pleasant social gathering at the home of J. E. Smith Wednesday evening. Dr. Hayter's dental office will be closed until about June 15th or until he returns from Chicago. His patrons will please take notice. With pride we again call attention to the amount and quality of our correspondence from all parts of the county. No wonder we lose so many subscribers and gain so many new ones.

NEW TO-DAY. CHAS GIBSON, NEAR DIXIE, HAS SEVERAL hundred bushels of good food for sale. FOR SALE—500 ACRES OF GOOD CATTLE LAND with some improvements. Apply to J. B. Dale on 6th street. SOME GOOD YOUNG HORSES, MUTTON AND stock always for sale by Sam. Smith, of Bethel, Dallas, Washburn. FENTON & TONER WANT ALL THE MOHAWK in Polk county and will pay the very best price for them. A BARRIEN IN LAND—TEN ACRES TRACT in the Polk county, near the mouth of the Willamette. It can be bought very cheap by applying to W. H. SMITH & COMPANY.

Trespass Notice. WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HEREBY GIVE notice that we will prosecute any and all persons who shall trespass on our land for cutting or carrying away any of our timber, or for any other purpose. J. B. SMITH, J. E. SMITH, J. C. SMITH, J. D. SMITH, J. E. SMITH, J. F. SMITH, J. G. SMITH, J. H. SMITH, J. I. SMITH, J. K. SMITH, J. L. SMITH, J. M. SMITH, J. N. SMITH, J. O. SMITH, J. P. SMITH, J. Q. SMITH, J. R. SMITH, J. S. SMITH, J. T. SMITH, J. U. SMITH, J. V. SMITH, J. W. SMITH, J. X. SMITH, J. Y. SMITH, J. Z. SMITH.
