

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A nice Jersey male calf for sale by M. L. Robbins.

Dr. Hayter, dentist, over Wilson's drug store, Dallas.

A. G. Roberts, of Crowley, has good seed barley for sale.

Be sure to always read what we print under the head of New Today.

Mrs. Fred Wagner spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Walker, at Corvallis.

Henry Koer and wife started Thursday to visit relatives in Pennsylvania and at Chicago.

Uncle John McQuerry and wife, now of Independence, visited Dallas friends the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Henry Quiring died at her home north of town Saturday of pneumonia, aged about 30 years.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. Biddle's next Tuesday afternoon and all ladies are cordially invited.

C. C. Doughty starts back on the 7th of May to Chicago as a delegate to the national convention of editors.

Gen. Grant will on next Friday evening assist Prof. Seaburg in a concert to be given by his music class at Independence.

In the M. A. Whiteman estate the appraisement and inventory has been made and the administrator charged with $4,710.

Another case has been placed on the circuit court docket, it being that of Lillian Morehouse vs. G. W. Morehouse, divorce.

Mrs. Soule, formerly Maggie Ward, now of Willapa, Washington, has been visiting her old Dallas home and her sister at Corvallis.

Karl's Clover Root, the new blood purifier, gives freshness and cleanness to the complexion and cures constipation. 25c, 50c and $1.

Miss Minnie Smith and Miss Emma Ludwig have moved their dressmaking parlors from over the bank to the building in the rear of Bell's drug store.

P. C. Sears, of McCoy, and F. A. Patterson, of Independence, took and so did Ed. Herren and Billy Livermore, of Salem.

Depuy Farley has been busy during the week riding over the county and serving the requisite papers upon those who are to serve as jurors at court week after next.

The 3-year-old child of A. J. McDaniel and wife was brought up from Portland Tuesday to their old home for burial. It had been sick some weeks with a fever.

Wright & Son are busy at work on their carpets for the new present ownership slips and maps, and expect, if they have good luck, to finish the job by the first of September.

L. Seibert has exchanged his place near town for Portland property and will soon move his family there. The parties with the city council will make their residence here.

Mrs. Helen B. Harf, state organizer for the W. C. T. U., will lecture at the Christian church Saturday evening at 7:30, and at the south Methodist church Sunday evening.

The business done by W. C. Brown & Son has increased to such an extent that they have been obliged to engage another assistant. Miss Mattie Martin now holds the yard-keep title.

J. K. Sears, of McCoy, J. H. Hawley, of Monmouth, and A. G. Roberts, of Crowley, were Dallas visitors Monday, and Miss Maggie McDonald, of Salem, was with relatives here over Sunday.

That miserable street near the residence of Mrs. Pinkie Riggs, which has so long been a breeder of mania throughout the entire neighborhood, has at last been ordered filled up and graded by the city council, and the work is now in progress.

Preaching at all the churches every Sunday morning and evening. Methodist and Christian Sunday schools at 9:45. Presbyterian 12:15. Baptist and M. E. south 3. Prayer meetings Thursday evening. The general public welcome at all these meetings.

On Monday evening quite a number of the Presbyterian young folks gathered at the church for the purpose of organizing a Christian Endeavor society. A temporary organization was had and they adjourned to meet next Monday evening and elect officers.

Correspondents will please bear in mind to write only on one side of the paper and to not abbreviate. The former prevents dividing up the copy among the printers, and the latter is very liable to lead to lamentable mistakes.

Quite a gathering of young folks assembled at the Christian church Tuesday evening to enjoy a regular old-fashioned candy pulling. To say that a delightful time was had hardly expresses the measure of their enjoyment, and those present desire to engage another pleasant evening.

W. A. Wash, the editor of this paper, has been confined to his bed during the week with intermittent fever, and the reader will have to lay its fault to the devil, who happens to be of the female persuasion and of course will not assume responsibility unless thrust upon her.

Elsewhere in our columns will be seen a notice in regard to a proposed motor line from Independence to Salem. From the names of the incorporators and their proposed plan of business the scheme seems feasible. Such a road would vastly benefit both towns and the people living along the intended route.

Felix Noel and wife spent Sunday at Portland.

Mason, dentist, in Campbell's brick block, Mill street, Dallas.

Rev. Greer has arrived from California on a visit with parents.

Wicks, bricklayer, was among the Dallas visitors at Portland this week.

Two sons of Mike Boyer arrived with their families from Iowa last week to make their home here.

Harry Blodgett is helping Viggers & Priel to build a drug store at Perrydale.

Mrs. Henry Koser has gone east on a visit with relatives, and Mrs. D. T. Summerville will go back soon.

After the grip, when you are weak and "played out," Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your health and strength.

A pleasant social was held at N. Garwood's Oklake home by the young folks of that vicinity Tuesday evening.

Miss Blanche Bronson has purchased the interest of W. C. Brown in the millinery store next our office and is now sole proprietor.

The McCoy Old Fellows meet every first and third Saturday evening and the Perrydale A. O. U. W.'s assemble every Monday night.

You would not stop and throw a stone at every puppy that barks at you, then why pay any attention to the scold who barks at you from the street?

Postmaster Hoffman has moved the Hopkins postoffice in Kings Valley from the store to his residence, where there is much kicking by the general public.

The Amity city council has passed an act directing the city marshal to arrest a vagrant any one not having an occupation or some visible means of self-support.

Rev. Harrington will preach at Oklake next Sunday at 11 o'clock, and at 10 a meeting will be held at the school house for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarth Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cents.

For the benefit of many inquirers we will state that the postoffice at Dallas is a third class one and is governed by the rules laid down for that grade of offices.

F. A. Burden and Doc Denny, of Bethel, have bought L. B. Denny's teaching outfit, and M. E. Bailey, of the Bethel hills intends to attend a Portland Medical college.

Mrs. L. Adkins, of Monmouth, furnishes us with the following appointments for lectures by Mrs. Helen B. Harford, of Newberg: At Dixie on the 28th, at Dallas on the 29th and 30th, at Perrydale May 1st and McCoy May 2nd.

Many million feet of balm and white fir logs will this summer be cut along the bank-of our streams for use in the Oregon City paper mills.

The Salem postoffice has been raised to a first class one, and they are now able to receipt for money orders the same as the Portland office.

Dave McDonald is out with his old team made into a new one in appearance at least, and a fine new heavy set of harness made by Frank Stiles.

The primary department of the public school was dismissed Tuesday evening for the balance of the week on account of the illness of Mr. Wash.

Miss Adria Grigsby, of Monmouth, and Miss Myers, sister of Senator Myers, of Clackamas, were visiting the families of Dr. McCollon and W. B. Davis last week.

Whenever there is to be any new paper fighting it will nearly always be wisest for you to stand off in silence while the other fellow makes a fool of himself.

The state board has purchased the foundry at the penitentiary for $40,000. It will now be run by the state and R. J. Fleming will superintend the convict labor.

A Sheridan man was bragging to a freshly arrived easterner about their glorious sea breeze. After sniffing a few breaths of it, the fellow pronounced it nothing but common wind.

Cass Sargeant and Abbie Chandler started from Sheridan to McMinville in a buggy and landed, buggy on top, in a mud hole. Abbie thought Cass weighed a ton when he fell on him.

This spring numerous valuable sheep and lambs have been killed by worthless dogs. Sheep owners would not be doing very wrong to destroy all cur dogs that find roaming about their premises.

W. H. Cain, of Newberg finds him self about $200 out of pocket as a penalty for selling liquor contrary to law, and a fellow who runs a gambling den there is likely to run up against a costly consequence.

At the Evangelical conference in Dayton last week Rev. M. J. Ballantyne was sent to Burma Vista and Rev. G. J. Coleman to Dallas. C. N. Plozman was sent to Waterloo, J. L. Weaver to Corvallis and T. A. Yost to Kings Valley.

Edgar Collins has been made the use of the county clerk in circuit court work a case which is a model of neat workmanship, both in design and finish. It is for the proper filing of papers connected with the different cases and is just what has been long needed.

Let us again remind farmers of the importance of planting root crops as feed for their stock next winter. Do not make any excuse for neglecting or for putting it off until next year, for there is nothing you could now do that would in the long run pay you better.

J. R. Edwards and Mr. Wester, of Ballston, have forewarned the tobacco habit, so says the Patriot, the one first began beginning its use to mind the other from that place to McMinville, fifteen miles, in a hand barrow. Truly a novel agreement, and one that should make it binding.

Dr. Darrin will treat the poor free- except medicines—from 9 to 10 A. M. daily, and those who are able to pay will receive medical treatment at $5 a month for each disease, or in that proportion, as the cases may need, surgical and special diseases excepted. Consultation free. No cases taken if not deemed curable or improvable. Office hours, 10 to 5 daily, evenings, 7 to 8, Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic, acute and private diseases are confidentially and successfully treated. Circulars and question list sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctor's office. Dr. Darrin has three offices, the head office at 3704 Washington street, Portland; branch office at Review building, Spokane, Wash., and one at 310 Commercial street, Salem, Or.

Wilcox & Alley have opened a meat market at Ballston.

Several good milk cows for sale. Enquire of Robert Howe, Dallas.

Messrs. Arkie and Frank are back from a trip to the Nestucca country.

Anyone having a good gentle horse to exchange for lumber may apply here.

D. W. Sears is among the candidates for receiver of the Oregon City land office.

J. P. Morrison and wife, parents of Frank, have returned to their eastern home.

The Chautauquans will meet at D. P. Stouffer's residence next Tuesday evening.

Any amount less than $1 due this office may be sent in one and two cent postage stamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tharp, formerly of Grande Ronde, propose to take in the Worlds Fair.

Doug. Hubbard has sold his hop interest in the Lincoln hop yard to his partner, Ben Harris.

Scott Riggs, the Salem marble dealer, has been taking in this old home near Dallas this week.

Mrs. Kinsey has opened dressmaking parlors in Brown's brick over the grocery store of John Boydston.

At the school meeting at Amity to vote a tax of $9,000 for a new school building, the proposition was lost.

After several years residence in Washington, J. S. McCarty has returned to live at his old Perrydale home.

While back in America J. R. N. Bell patented a self-adjusting binding strap, to be manufactured at the commercial center.

John Ashbaugh has finished the making of the delinquent tax roll and it is now in the sheriff's hands for collection.

Silas Foster and James H. Ross, of Salem, have been appointed special police officers at the worlds fair from Oregon.

Steve Staats, the well known Polk county pioneer, has gone to Roseburg to live with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Madison.

Walter Hosford and Hattie Ruble, both formerly of the Eola Hills, were married at Waldport, Benton county, last week.

Mrs. M. Daniel and Mrs. Dr. Lormar, of Whitcomb, have been visiting their brothers, S. B. and W. H. Walker, at Independence.

Dr. Hayter's dental office will be closed until about June 15th or until he returns from Chicago. His patrons will please take notice.

Many million feet of balm and white fir logs will this summer be cut along the bank-of our streams for use in the Oregon City paper mills.

The Salem postoffice has been raised to a first class one, and they are now able to receipt for money orders the same as the Portland office.

Dave McDonald is out with his old team made into a new one in appearance at least, and a fine new heavy set of harness made by Frank Stiles.

The primary department of the public school was dismissed Tuesday evening for the balance of the week on account of the illness of Mr. Wash.

Miss Adria Grigsby, of Monmouth, and Miss Myers, sister of Senator Myers, of Clackamas, were visiting the families of Dr. McCollon and W. B. Davis last week.

Whenever there is to be any new paper fighting it will nearly always be wisest for you to stand off in silence while the other fellow makes a fool of himself.

The state board has purchased the foundry at the penitentiary for $40,000. It will now be run by the state and R. J. Fleming will superintend the convict labor.

A Sheridan man was bragging to a freshly arrived easterner about their glorious sea breeze. After sniffing a few breaths of it, the fellow pronounced it nothing but common wind.

Cass Sargeant and Abbie Chandler started from Sheridan to McMinville in a buggy and landed, buggy on top, in a mud hole. Abbie thought Cass weighed a ton when he fell on him.

This spring numerous valuable sheep and lambs have been killed by worthless dogs. Sheep owners would not be doing very wrong to destroy all cur dogs that find roaming about their premises.

W. H. Cain, of Newberg finds him self about $200 out of pocket as a penalty for selling liquor contrary to law, and a fellow who runs a gambling den there is likely to run up against a costly consequence.

At the Evangelical conference in Dayton last week Rev. M. J. Ballantyne was sent to Burma Vista and Rev. G. J. Coleman to Dallas. C. N. Plozman was sent to Waterloo, J. L. Weaver to Corvallis and T. A. Yost to Kings Valley.

Edgar Collins has been made the use of the county clerk in circuit court work a case which is a model of neat workmanship, both in design and finish. It is for the proper filing of papers connected with the different cases and is just what has been long needed.

Let us again remind farmers of the importance of planting root crops as feed for their stock next winter. Do not make any excuse for neglecting or for putting it off until next year, for there is nothing you could now do that would in the long run pay you better.

J. R. Edwards and Mr. Wester, of Ballston, have forewarned the tobacco habit, so says the Patriot, the one first began beginning its use to mind the other from that place to McMinville, fifteen miles, in a hand barrow. Truly a novel agreement, and one that should make it binding.

Dr. Darrin will treat the poor free- except medicines—from 9 to 10 A. M. daily, and those who are able to pay will receive medical treatment at $5 a month for each disease, or in that proportion, as the cases may need, surgical and special diseases excepted. Consultation free. No cases taken if not deemed curable or improvable. Office hours, 10 to 5 daily, evenings, 7 to 8, Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic, acute and private diseases are confidentially and successfully treated. Circulars and question list sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctor's office. Dr. Darrin has three offices, the head office at 3704 Washington street, Portland; branch office at Review building, Spokane, Wash., and one at 310 Commercial street, Salem, Or.

Seward & Alley are to erect a livery stable at Ballston.

Rev. J. H. Beattie has moved from McCoy to Lincoln.

Uncle Jimmie Ayres is reported quite ill at his residence west of town.

The mite society will meet with Mrs. C. W. Smith this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

After a winter spent in Washington, Mike McNulty is again at his old McCoy home.

D. B. Richardson, after a two weeks' tussle with la grippe, is again able to go out on the streets.

Edwards Bros., will have their new store room at Ballston ready for occupancy by the first of May.

In about two weeks the Ballston band will place upon the boards the popular drama, Enlisted for the War.

A protracted meeting is in session at Perrydale under the management of Rev. Hazel, pastor of the Christian church there.

Miles Hendricks, of Amity, has rented the McCoy sawmill to the Messrs. Hawley & Co. and has engaged J. J. Hill to run it for him.

Jacob Pfau and wife, who have so long lived on their farm near Eola, have concluded to try the delights of city life, and have moved to Salem.

W. W. Wimp, a son-in-law, will now run the farm.

A Refutation. This is for the person who takes refuge behind the assumed cognomen of A. Junior in Wednesday's Transcript. In mentioning the social and presentation of the Methodist pastor with $9 in the Statesman, I simply gave the bare facts and made not one word of comment upon the occurrence. When he makes me say ought else, as set forth in his article, he simply makes a willful perversion of what he knows to be the truth. He has taken comments made by the editor of the Statesman and attributed them to me.

V. P. FISKE. A Refutation. This is for the person who takes refuge behind the assumed cognomen of A. Junior in Wednesday's Transcript. In mentioning the social and presentation of the Methodist pastor with $9 in the Statesman, I simply gave the bare facts and made not one word of comment upon the occurrence. When he makes me say ought else, as set forth in his article, he simply makes a willful perversion of what he knows to be the truth. He has taken comments made by the editor of the Statesman and attributed them to me.

MICKLEBALL. John Kirkland and wife are visiting relatives here.

L. W. McAdams, of Independence, was in town last week on business.

Mr. Hatton has been quite sick for some time, but is now reported better.

There will be a temperance lecture at the church here Friday evening by Mrs. Harford.

George Tatum, a former resident of this place, but now of Corvallis, visited with relatives and friends here last week.

Ask Charley Smith why he went home the other evening, with both of the hind wheels on one side of his buggy.

The mill will be ready for the machinery this week. The workmen have been experimenting on the osage orange wood, and find that it is capable of being used for most any purpose.

Jessie, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonald, died in Portland last Sunday and the remains were brought up Tuesday, and buried at the Pleasant Hill cemetery. A large number of relatives attended and furnished the singing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Williams and Sarah Sebring went to Monmouth last week to see Grandma Simpson, who has been quite sick for several months.

Forest Grove Country Yards. Now has 300 breeding birds, including twenty-five hawks, imported specially for the egg trade of 1893. They consist of: Red-wings, Plover, Rock, Light Brahmas and Brown Leghorns, which varieties make up the cream of all poultry. A single setting of egg $3 or two for $5. Some birds for sale. Write for catalogue to J. M. Garrison, Forest Grove, Oregon.

New Road for Oregon. Independence, Or., April 24.—Articles of incorporation of the Independent & Salem railroad were taken to Salem today for filing. The capital stock is $100,000, and the incorporators are: W. A. Vones, of Prescott & Vones; J. M. Vandort, merchant; R. D. Cooper, capitalist; J. M. Stark, lately of the City hotel, and Phil Metachan, state treasurer. The road will be 10 miles in length, starting at Independence and running to the Salem bridge in Polk county. It is to be a standard gauge, using 50-pound rails, and will be equipped with first-class rolling stock. The stockholders will be required to pay one-fourth the amount of stock subscribed as one-fourth the distance is completed. The road goes through a rich farming country and will have an almost level grade for the rest of its length. The projectors have an abundance of financial backing, and the road will be built this year.—Oregonian.

Coming to Dallas. One or more Surgeons of the Nation at Institute, which is established at 319 Bush street, San Francisco, will be in Willamette Hotel, Salem, Thursday, Friday, April 27th and 28th, and at the Hotel Holman Dallas, Saturday, April 29th. This Institute is especially devoted to the treatment of curvature of the spine, diseases of the hip and knee joint, crooked limbs, club feet and all bodily deformities. Their success in treating these troubles as well as nasal catarrh and all chronic diseases has made for the Institute a national reputation. All persons who are suffering from any manner of disease or deformity, or who have children or friends so suffering, should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity for relief. Ask your postmaster for circulars. This Institute reviewed the Gold Medal at the World's Fair Philadelphia for the best apparatus and method of treatment in the world. Thousands of References will be given on application.

Glenside Farm McCoy and Vicinity. Ep. FRIZZERS: On account of rain nearly all of the spring sowing and plowing remains yet to be done. The prospect for fruit is good, and fall sown grain looks well. There is still about 22,000 bushels of wheat in the McCoy farm house, waiting a raise in price. One hundred and fifty thousand bushels of wheat and oats was the amount stored here besides large quantities of hops, wood, potatoes, etc. There was shipped in live stock the first three months of the year 3,045 head of sheep and 255 of hogs. The real estate market is on the ragged edge at present, but prospects are brightening.

The wife of E. F. Gaar, who has been sick all winter, is no better.

The old school Baptists hold services here regularly every fourth Sunday.

Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Libbie Vaughn.

Mrs. Cordelia Wilson, of Astoria, has returned home, after a long visit with her sister, Mrs. J. O. Davidson.

The Oregon Pottery company are shipping six carloads of clay from here each week, requiring a force of four men.

D. M. Calbreath has a cow that has lost the use of her tongue and cannot get food into her mouth. It is a very singular case.

Helmeck Bros. last week bought and shipped 4,000 bushels of wheat to Portland. The producer realized 60 cents a bushel for it.

A Magnificent Present. The Woolen Mill Store in Salem are determined to keep our home made goods to the front and as an inducement to get an interest aroused are going to give away a pair of blankets valued at $25 on the 15th of May. For particulars see them. Blankets on exhibition in show window.

Our school is running along very smoothly.

H. Simpson was down from his logging camp Saturday.

Cricket Bevens will shortly open up his pasture for sheep again.

A. Nolmer, of the Portland Dispatch, was among us last week.

John Lewis, of Philomath, is down on a visit to his brothers at Lewisville.

Our farmers are looking pretty well. Most all have their oat crop to run yet.

Mrs. J. B. Clark returned from Portland last Saturday after a week's visit with friends.

Brown Bros. of Soap Creek, have been buying cattle and sheep through this vicinity.

Mr. Bateman will go back to his old home in Michigan next fall. He will not have too much rain here for him.

Misses Hattie Estes and Lillie Rose, of Independence, were the guests of J. C. Hastings' family several days last week.

J. S. Stump, our road supervisor, commenced working the roads Monday. Sol is the right man in the right place.

Miss Mattie Petyman accidentally pulled a coffee mill from a shelf, which struck her on the head, cutting a very ugly gash.

W. L. Phillips and family are talking of going back to their old home in Michigan on a visit, and take in the worlds fair.

Born, on Saturday April 23rd, to the wife of W. E. Williams, a boy, weight 8 pounds. Bill says he looks just like Grover Cleveland.

Dode Gobleman, fireman on Conductor Clark's train, will move his family up from Portland in a few days, having rented Grandma Vanderpost's house here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Williams and Sarah Sebring went to Monmouth last week to see Grandma Simpson, who has been quite sick for several months.

Forest Grove Country Yards. Now has 300 breeding birds, including twenty-five hawks, imported specially for the egg trade of 1893. They consist of: Red-wings, Plover, Rock, Light Brahmas and Brown Leghorns, which varieties make up the cream of all poultry. A single setting of egg $3 or two for $5. Some birds for sale. Write for catalogue to J. M. Garrison, Forest Grove, Oregon.

New Road for Oregon. Independence, Or., April 24.—Articles of incorporation of the Independent & Salem railroad were taken to Salem today for filing. The capital stock is $100,000, and the incorporators are: W. A. Vones, of Prescott & Vones; J. M. Vandort, merchant; R. D. Cooper, capitalist; J. M. Stark, lately of the City hotel, and Phil Metachan, state treasurer. The road will be 10 miles in length, starting at Independence and running to the Salem bridge in Polk county. It is to be a standard gauge, using 50-pound rails, and will be equipped with first-class rolling stock. The stockholders will be required to pay one-fourth the amount of stock subscribed as one-fourth the distance is completed. The road goes through a rich farming country and will have an almost level grade for the rest of its length. The projectors have an abundance of financial backing, and the road will be built this year.—Oregonian.

Coming to Dallas. One or more Surgeons of the Nation at Institute, which is established at 319 Bush street, San Francisco, will be in Willamette Hotel, Salem, Thursday, Friday, April 27th and 28th, and at the Hotel Holman Dallas, Saturday, April 29th. This Institute is especially devoted to the treatment of curvature of the spine, diseases of the hip and knee joint, crooked limbs, club feet and all bodily deformities. Their success in treating these troubles as well as nasal catarrh and all chronic diseases has made for the Institute a national reputation. All persons who are suffering from any manner of disease or deformity, or who have children or friends so suffering, should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity for relief. Ask your postmaster for circulars. This Institute reviewed the Gold Medal at the World's Fair Philadelphia for the best apparatus and method of treatment in the world. Thousands of References will be given on application.

Glenside Farm McCoy and Vicinity. Ep. FRIZZERS: On account of rain nearly all of the spring sowing and plowing remains yet to be done. The prospect for fruit is good, and fall sown grain looks well. There is still about 22,000 bushels of wheat in the McCoy farm house, waiting a raise in price. One hundred and fifty thousand bushels of wheat and oats was the amount stored here besides large quantities of hops, wood, potatoes, etc. There was shipped in live stock the first three months of the year 3,045 head of sheep and 255 of hogs. The real estate market is on the ragged edge at present, but prospects are brightening.

ing. McCoy is well located and surrounded with the best farming land in the county, the people are generally out of debt, and living on the income of their capital invested. Improved land will sell at from $40 to $75 per acre, but few residents wish to sell at any price. Asparto Beckett has been doing these parts lately and his valuations seem to suit the people generally. Oakgroves are well along with their farm work, as usual, the school under the management of Chas. Wester doing finely. Their grant meets every second and fourth Saturday, and members are requested to be present at each session as much important business is to be transacted.

SOIL CHANGING HANDS. Here are some of the recent real estate changes: J. B. Stump to J. M. Sparks; 273 acres in T 10 S, R 4 W, $ 5,218. N Garwood to Tom Tatum; 33 acres in T 8 S, R 5 W, 300. Tom Tatum to N. Garwood; 10 acres in T 8 S, R 5 W, 100. Sol Crowley to S. D. Tucker; 11 acres in T 7 S, R 4 W, 1,105. Geo Skinner to J. S. Cooper; lot in Monmouth, 200. H. Hill to W. W. McCabe; land in Ballston, 1,000. W. A. Frost to E. B. Wood; 57 acres in T 8 S, R 6 W, 464. Orlando Alderman to O. Ira Alderman; lot in McCoy, 150. Wm. Shape to M. H. Shope; lot in Dallas, 300. Geo Skinner to Alice Skinner; lots in Independence, 400. C. C. McCarty to Polk Co Bank; lot in Monmouth, 400. W. H. McDaniel to V. and J. McDaniel; 500 acres in T 8 S, R 5 W, 16,000. E. F. Shaw to J. W. McCabe; lots in Independence, 91. D. C. Saling to Wm. Parker; lot in Ballston, 100. D. C. Saling to D. B. Johnson; lot in Ballston, 75. Rachel Brooks to A. Wyman; 32 acres in T 7 S, R 3 W, 648. Chas. Lafollet to W. G. Lafollet; 312 acres in T 6 S, R 7 W, 750. E. H. Hancock to F. H. Hancock; 4 acres in T 8 S, R 6 W