FALLS CITY.

W. A. Raymond talks of going to California.

L. C. Starr is driving the Falls City and Independence stage.

Bevens Bros. are around again, ready to supply any or all who may want beef.

Crops are looking fine and good prospects for abundant fruit crop this season.

Mrs. T. A. Farley, of your city is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Travis.

Born, May 28th, to the wife of E. E. Gilliam, a boy. Elmer is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moyer have placed a neat tomb stone over the grave of their infant; the first in the new cemetery.

Lumber from Suitor's mill is going through town at a lively rate. R. M. Gilbert having hauled the first load last week.

Raymond Bros. have finished the school house and turned it over to the directors. It speaks well for them and is the pride of Falls City.

Frank Butler has platted the Sheldon donation land claim of 230 acres into 36 tracts of 8, 9 and 12 acres each, which he offers for sale on favorable terms. It will make desirable homes for an equal number of families.

Decoration day was observed in a fitting manner in Falls City. In the forenoon several men worked on the cemetery, and Mrs. Bryant with the Junior League carried an abundance of flowers and decorated all of the graves, thus presenting a very touching scene and at the same time teaching the little ones to hold sacred the memory of the dead. Services were conducted at the M. E. church in the afternoon and evening. The afternoon exercises were opened with very appropriate music furnished by the cornet band.

Song—Some Sweet Day—Choir.
The Object of Decoration Day—A. M. Bryant.
Scripture Reading—Mrs. Cramer.
Prayer—A. M. Bryant.
Song—Time—Choir.
Recitation—He Died for me—Miss Ida Bryant.
Recitation—The Picket Line—Lola Gilbert.

Decorating the Monument—Miss Ida Bryant and Willie Moyer.
Address—Major T. C. Bell.
Recitation—Decoration Day—Edith Montgomery.
Duet—Marching Home—Misses Graham and Carey.

To say that the address by Major Bell was good and to the point, is putting it very light. The songs, music and recitations were all rendered in a very pleasing and appropriate manner. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion. There were several old comrades from the Dallas Post present.

The evening programme consisted of music by the band.
Song—Star Spangled Banner—Choir.
Prayer—Rev. Fisher.
Recitation—The Flowers of Liberty—May Knaum.
Recitation—Blacksmith Story—Del Pugh.
Solo—Our Fallen Heroes—L. S. Frink.

Recitation—John Burns at Gettysburg—A. H. Dodd.
Recitation—The Baby Monitor—Mrs. Bell.
Recitation—Attention Comrades—M. Graham.
Song—Marching Through Georgia—All encores—Tramp, Tramp the Boys are marching.
Short speeches by veterans.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES

The May number of the Normal Journal is out.

Miss Allie Davis has returned from a visit to her Salem home.

Miss Helen Wolfe spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Perrydale.

Misses Lucy Humphreys Daisy West and Mr. Garrett of the junior spent Friday.

The examination in mental arithmetic and general history for the senior class was held last Saturday.

On Monday the senior class accompanied by Prof. Spillman made an excursion to Mt. Pisgah in search of botanical specimens.

Memorial day was observed at the normal by the following programme:
Song—Miss Ayres.
Essay—Prof. Getz.
Recitation—Miss Tutthill.
Song—Glee Club.

GRAND RONDE.

Reservation crops looking well.

Our old neighbor W. H. Kuykendall has been among us.

Mr. Freeland will soon complete a nine months school term.

Chet Ellis will go to Salem and bring over his mother and his sister, Mrs. Johns.

Alex Day, a Mexican, who has long resided on the reservation, died last Saturday.

The Indians are getting anxious to see the new agent, as we are now all demote.

Roads getting better and the tide of travel to the Tillamook seashore will soon set in.

Your correspondent has been over on the coast. When he saw a barren sand flat a dozen years ago is now the pretty little town of Woods. It has a saw mill, a cooper shop, a hotel, three stores and quite a number of dwellings. Harrison Booth is putting up a meat market. On the south side of the river a new town called Ocean Park is being platted.

We saw Tom Jennings in Salem with a load of wool the other day and heard Ed Hervey offer him 16 cents for it.

AIRLIE.

Mrs. J. B. Clark has six old China pheasants and about a dozen young ones a month old.

J. C. Hastings has been quite sick for several days and Dr. Hill, of Albany, attended him.

W. E. Williams has commenced hauling lumber for his new house. He is hauling from Falls City.

Some unknown person shot and killed a valuable young mare belonging to Mrs. H. G. Hastings last week.

C. E. Staats gave a social dance Tuesday night which was largely attended and all report as to having a good time.

Henderson Simons is having a barn built on his property here in town, size 45x45 feet. He will winter his logging outfit here next winter.

Sam Scanlon and family, of Portland, have been visiting here for several days. They will go to San Francisco June 1st on a month's visit to his relatives; the first visit in eleven years.

Last Saturday evening as soon as the train came in the following gathered up a camping outfit and struck out for Soap Creek on a fishing expedition. T. M. Schering, J. L. Hastings, T. E. Williams, Charley Young, Everett Staats and two gentlemen from Portland. They returned Sunday evening with about two hundred of the speckled beauties.

Wood in Exchange for Papers.

We will send the ITEMIZER and the San Francisco Call, an excellent eight page paper, a year, a cord of fir or grob oak wood. If your neighbor is not taking the ITEMIZER, refer him to this proposition.

Holmes & Kuykendall had about 800 sheep to shear. Some were shedding their wool, but most turned off good sized fleeces.

The business man who will not advertise goes jogging along while his more enterprising competitors leave him behind.

All the people who ever have to travel out that way during the winter will be glad to hear that the Lee Hill and Guthrie lane on the Lewisville road are to be constructed. We should be glad to learn of other important road improvements anywhere in the county.

The officers elect of the Dallas Odd Fellows lodge are: E. Hayter, N. G.; F. J. Cook, V. G.; B. P. Mulvey, secretary and F. A. Stiles, treasurer.

Dave Ashbaugh and wife, of Salem, came over decoration day with two beautiful floral designs for his sister Ella's grave.

Report of Pleasant View school just north of Dallas, for month ending May 28th: Arthur Johnson, Cornelia Brown, Earl Parker, Everett Garbutt, Elsiea McDaniel, Dick and Robert Miller were absent, and these were perfect in department, Bertha Koub, Earl Parker, and Johnson.

E. JEAN WHITE teacher.

Chicago used to be called the wicked city. So, too, California, was rightly named the windmill city and San Jose is known as the garden city, and now a proper appellation for Salem would be the bicycle city, for no place in America has more of them in proportion to population.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve ice cream and cake this afternoon and evening in the Wilson building; price 25 cents.

Hood's Cures

Mrs. C. B. Card, Oakland, Cal.

Made Over Anew

Chronic Headache Cured—Weak Lungs Made Strong and Well.
"For years I had sick headaches every day, and I also had very weak lungs. Since I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, I have been entirely cured of headaches, and my lungs are strong and well. Friends often say 'How Well You're Looking.'"

I tell them it is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am small in stature—never weighed over 100 pounds before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and at the time I began taking it I had run down to 85 pounds, but now I weigh 115 lbs. My friends thought I would be dead long ago, but I am perfectly well. I am unable to express my thanks for the good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me."

Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me. Mrs. C. B. CARD, 1212 Adelaide Street, Oakland, California.

Hood's Pills cure all Liver Ills, Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Sick Headache.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a blood purifier and a tonic. It cures all skin diseases, such as Eczema, Psoriasis, and all other eruptions of the skin.

GOOD PLACES TO TRADE.

When you next go to Salem be sure to visit the places named below. They are enterprising and will offer inducements to win your patronage.

The best home made spring wagons in the state can be had of H. Pohle, who also carries a superior line of buggies. Everybody will tell you that you can rely on whatever Mr. Pohle says about his vehicles.

Jarnes, the Cattle block racket store man, never puts down the prices of a few articles as a bait to get people there and then sell them other things at enormous profits. Every article in his store is constantly quoted at an average of one-fourth less than they cost elsewhere.

Hellenbrand's dinners are good, his soda water better, and his ice cream best of all.

The Happy home clothing house of G. W. Johnson & Son has the reputation of being the best place in the state to buy a suit of any grade. They have everything from the finest wedding garb, to such as is suitable for all classes to wear every day. Tell them what you wish and they will show you the grade of goods wanted and quote you a price just as low as such things can possibly be sold.

Sroat & Gile still keep at the head of the procession as grocers. They have the finest groceries in the city, and fresh importations of all the latest and most desirable California productions.

Miss Pinkham, the milliner, particularly deserves that all Polk county ladies visiting the city shall drop in and see the many attractive things she has to offer at 109 Court street.

The Salem soap and chemical works is turning out an article for both toilet and laundry purposes that has no superior, only pure ingredients being used. Ask for the Salem soap.

Sperry, The Artist, over Dalrymple's store, is making special terms to graduates individually or as classes. A beautiful tinted oval presented to all who order as many as three dozen pictures. As a photographer she ranks among the very best. Remember the name and location.

Be sure to not buy elsewhere a hop or fruit sprayer or spraying material until you have seen the goods of and had a talk with Dugan Bros. on Commercial street.

Who has or can get any Chinese pianos for sale. At Steiner's field and poultry market 250 pair of them would meet with a ready sale at a good price.

A kit of what seemed to be burglar tools was recently found secreted under the undertaking establishment of Olinger & Rigdon, just north of the Opera house. It is hard to find owners for such things.

Mrs. Fister advertised some cheap hats, but her customers were not hunting anything of the kind. Her Bourdon lace for trimming hats is something new and all the ladies take a fancy to it. She has fancy braids, chips and plaques of all colors. Many of her shapes are entirely original and pretty as they can be. Her Polk county trade is constantly increasing.

We have told of the dozens and scores of elegant things for ladies and children to be had at the White Corner and now come and inform the gentleman that they are likewise prepared to meet their wants in neck wear, white or negligé shirts, gloves, hosiery, straw hats and other things. If any of your neighbors are not acquainted in the city tell them it is the leading dry goods store.

Keller & Sons have succeeded Keller & Marsh in the furniture business. They are now remodeling their store and have made wonderful reductions in the prices. Go and see their attractive house furnishings.

Here is what was on the bill of fare at Strong's restaurant the other day: Cream chicken soup, baked halibut, fried train, orange fritters, peach pie, coconut pudding and other good things.

Blank books, diaries and memorandum in great variety at Dearborn's book store. His pictorial papers and magazines would adorn any parlor, and be attractive to both company and home folks.

Some of the dealers cannot understand why the Salem woolen mill store sells so much clothing. The secret is easily explained. The goods in the store are made, and no middlemen's profits have to be charged. It is all pure wool instead of shoddy, the work is done at home and not slighted as is so much that comes from the east. It will all bear close inspection.

All must die and Mr. Clough on State street is ever ready to furnish on short notice, caskets, common coffins, burial robes or anything else pertaining to the business.

It will soon be time for tents and awnings, and E. F. Osborn can furnish the cheapest and best in the city. He is still selling footwear away below ordinary prices, and the same is true of all manner of underwear.

Harritt & McIntire, the popular grocers, make it their business to keep the best quality of everything ever called for by their host of customers. Their small profits bring them many sales.

Mrs. S. C. Reed believes in pushing her business. She uses more printers ink than any other milliner ever in the city and as a result her store is continually crowded with buyers from every point of the compass. Many of them beyond Salem's natural trade boundary. All she asks of the ladies is to come and see what she has; the goods will sell themselves.

COUNTY SEAT INVITATIONS.
John E. Smith invites all the farmers to come to his shop when they want first class iron work.

If you are not going to the World's Fair and to visit your eastern kindred, the sight of your picture would do them good. Go to Miss's gallery and have a dozen taken and send them to your relatives.

The cash dry goods and grocery business of Brown & Son has grown to such an extent that they are compelled to erect a storage room in rear so as to carry a bigger stock. Choice goods and low prices will always tell. They are drawing advertisements and so is printers ink.

Lawton's barber shop is head quarters for a smooth hair cut or refreshing bath.

Mr. Gaynor keeps three hands constantly employed making stout boots and shoes for farmers use. It is more serviceable than any eastern goods you can get for the same money. Repairing promptly done.

The Salem steam laundry has no equal in the valley. A large corps of experienced men and women are constantly turning out thousands of snow white garments for the people all around the country.

At Boydston's grocery store you can always find the freshest and best to be had in the grocery line. Marketable produce counts the same as cash, with him. He allows no one to undersell him.

As a hardware dealer M. Morrison is a success. He keeps only the best, sells it at a fair price and so treats his customers that they are very apt to come again.

Many farmers who know how well Mrs. Gibbons cooks, always go to the Commercial hotel for dinner.

Mrs. Kimsey, up stairs near this office, is a first class dress maker and never fails to give satisfaction in both work and prices.

He Lynch will repair your machinery or shoe your horses a little better than anybody else in the business. Try him.

Miss Bronson has just received another lot of seasonable and fashionable millinery, such as the ladies will want for the 4th of July, picnics and the like.

Many of the neat fitting and stylish new suits you see being worn by men and boys were bought of Craven Bros. who also carry all manner of underwear. They have hats to suit everybody. Nor have they neglected to provide for the ladies and children. They have many lovely dress patterns and trimmings to match. While buying your clothing you can there get all sorts of groceries.

The Arlington hotel on Main street is as good as any of them.

Chapman's furniture store on Mill street is full of useful and ornamental things, such as are needed in many Polk county homes. Do not conclude that you cannot afford to get them until you have seen the goods and learned their terms.

Faul & Co. are now full stocked with hardware suitable for this market. From a paper of tacks up they have or can get all manner of hardware. They do not carry the cheapest grades of anything. Buying on favorable terms, they can and do sell as cheap as you can get such goods anywhere. While buying your goods are arranged.

FOR COOKS.

Vine Pearce, of Salem, has a new boy.

J. W. McDowell is doing some excellent road work.

Mr. McDowell has lost forty lambs by coyotes and dogs.

The Pearce boys have a pair of fine spotted fox hound pups.

Mr. Brady, of Linn county, has been visiting his brother at John Sykes.

Sheep shearing is now in full blast, the shears getting 6 cents per fleece.

Some of them can unclothe not more than forty wool bearers in a day, while a few can double that. Robert Richards, of Tillamook, says he can unclothe about fifty, while Mr. Shinn, of Independence, and Mr. Zimwalt could turn themselves loose and disrobe ninety of them in a day.

MARRIED.

Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hill, Henry Campbell and Miss Ella Hill were united by Rev. Geo. Gillespie, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present to witness the impressive ceremony which forever made one of two of our most promising young people. Henry has been raised here and is well and favorably known by all, he having for the last few months been serving as deputy county clerk, which position he will continue to fill to the satisfaction of all. Miss Ella, although only a resident of our town for the last several years, has by her graciousness of manner and lady like deportment won the respect and admiration of all. A self evident fact that Henry has won a jewel which he cannot too highly treasure.

We tender them our sincere congratulations upon the happy consummation of their fondest hopes, and wish that their future life may be one of unalloyed happiness and prosperity, married not by grievances so common to this vale of tears, and which, by a perfect confidence and trust in each other, can be easily avoided to a great extent.

The young couple at once settled down to their life of matrimonial bliss in the Teal house. Many handsome and useful presents were made them.

Carpet Weaving.

The time was when almost every country home had its old fashioned loom on which to weave carpets and often clothing for the family. But more modern and more rapid methods have superseded nearly all of them. However here and there may be found a carpet weaving machine manipulated after the old style. Our neighbor, Mrs. Ludwig, has alone made loom for making rag carpets. She thoroughly understands the business and can do any style of weaving desired—her price ranging from 12 to 16 cents per yard. In two years she has woven several hundred yards for different ladies, and is now finishing a forty yard piece of hit and miss for Mrs. Elgow. We have inspected her work and pronounce it first class. She will be glad to take orders for carpet weaving from ladies all around the country. Either write to or come and see her about it.
