

THE POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

Published Every Friday by W. A. WASH. PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

DALLAS, FRIDAY, 1907. THE OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Per year $10.00 Per 6 months $5.00 Per 3 months $2.50

Last Saturday's trains took 160,000 people into Chicago, filling the city and the exposition grounds to overflowing.

The recent storm along the southern coast of Louisiana was one of the most disastrous ever known in the south.

At Chicago last Monday was the biggest and grandest show America ever had.

Part of our business is to tell people where they can trade to good advantage.

A large and excellent stock of boots shoes and rubber goods has just been received by J. C. Gaylor.

The steam laundry at Salem has about thirty employees, all white, and does as good work as any other institution of the kind in the state.

Cash always buys goods cheaper than on credit. Brown & Son sell for cash and make no bad debts.

The Arlington hotel is quiet, homelike place where you always get something good to eat.

By having your blacksmith done at Wagner's you will always secure a good job. They don't make much noise about it but their work lasts well.

Next door to the postoffice is a choice place to get all manner of hardware.

Public School Notes: School opened last week with an attendance of 250 which has now increased to 270.

MARKET REPORT: Wheat, per bushel, 48 cts. Bran, per ton, $15.

Indicative of respectability: The two following items from a paper at The Dalles would indicate good times up that way.

Wanted Look: Last week we recorded the fact that Horatio Morrison, Manfred Sears and Gen. Grant had gone to the head waters of the Laclede in quest of game.

Dr. D. M. Flanders: "I had Typhoid Fever which left me blind, deaf and kidney trouble. I was a great sufferer. I took a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and was restored."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures: Is the best story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own.

Jack Goodman, of Junction, is visiting friends in Monmouth.

COUNTY CAPITAL KURNELA

No other blacksmith in Dallas has done half as much work for the people around as J. E. Smith.

A big percent of all who trade in Dallas find their way to the general merchandise establishment of Craven Bros.

Cobb's wagon shop down by the covered bridge, is head quarters for all kinds of repairs.

In Wiseman's general variety store on Mill street you can get the cheapest hardware in the county.

At all our new have more or less money as a result of the grain and hop harvest and a good place to expend a part of it would be at Chapman's furniture store.

Mrs. Kinney gets the most dress making to do because she does the best and cheapest work.

Lynch, the iron fashioner keeps hammering away. As soon as you tell him what you want done, he decides upon the best and most satisfactory manner of doing it.

Miser, the picture man, can come as near taking a photograph to please you as any one else.

Lawton, the tonsorial artist, is as superior within the borders of the state. Try him.

Give the Commercial hotel a trial and then you will not care to hunt for any better.
