THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

The vote of a year ago indicated that he nation were dissatisfied with the McKinley tariff and for months the nost capable men in the democratic anks have been investigating, studying ...nd figuring upon what might be more beneficial for and more accept able to the general public. With such a multiplicity of interwoven and antag onistic interests, entire satisfaction or complete justice to all is utterly impos-sible. The greatest good to the great-est number is what they aimed to keep in sight in framing the new measure. N. Hart, C. A. It met at Independence Normber 25th and was called to order by Pres. W I. Reynolds. The report of the committee on grade work was called for. Supt. Hutchinson, chairman of the committee said that they had not had time to complete the work, having gone over but the first two years of the grading. After telling what had been done, and reading portions from the grade work of several other states, he asked that the time be extended and the report be given at the next meet-The heavy rains the past few days ave put a stop to wheat sowing. the report be given at the next meet-ing, which was granted. After proving that the people of Independence can get up good dinners even so soon after Pennoyer's Thanksgiving as the next Saturday, the teachers reassembled at the school house and took up their af-ternoons work. The first thing on the programme was a talk on hangenage Sunday, preaching next Sunday at 11 by the pastor, Rev. E. R. Horner.

Literary society at the school house ogramme was a talk on language aching by J. N. Hart. This was fol every Wednesday evening. The pro-hibition question is to be thoroughly debated in all its different bearings this teaching by J. N. Hart. This was fol lowed by a discussion, after which Mr. Long gave his views on the subject of opening exercises. Miss Loretta Smith read a paper on the same topic, which was then open for discussion An in-teresting paper on the principles of ceography was read by J. W. Storms.

Joseph Yocom and family, from Ball geography was read by J. W. Storms. Prof. Getz was called on for a speech on the same subject which he gave with his usual good nature. Every one was Saturday was issue day at the agency
