Counting the bearing and nonbear in graph of the people of this section know the great benefit I have derived from the use of Ch unberlain's Pain Balm. I am an engineer, and in filling my duties as such, often become overheated, while the strain on my back from stooping over my engine is very great, and has caused me much suffering. These pains outly depend on the catching cold I would be laid up and lose a day or two's work. About a year ago I caught a severe coid and had to go to bed. The pain in my back was terrible and I could get no relief.
