

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Dr. Hayter, dentist, over Wilson's drug store, Dallas.

Rev. Nelson Clark, who preached here many years ago, now lives at Spokane.

Krause's Headache Capsules—Warranted. For sale by J. D. Bell, sole agent.

Shun things and keep away from places that are condemned by all good people.

Dr. D. M. Doty is still at Good Samaritan hospital and may not be able to leave for a month or so yet.

W. N. Rubie, formerly of the Eola hills, is now an evangelist of the Christian church at Wolf in southern Oregon.

The drinking father is apt to entail the same curse upon his unborn child. Drinking fathers, read that again and ponder over it.

After a long siege of sickness D. E. Gilman is out again and looking better than ever, his greatest trouble being to get enough to eat.

Karl's Clover Root, the new blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation. 25c, 50c and $1.

Genuine charity always prompts us to help the needy and lift up the fallen. It is an excellent test of Christianity if not of church membership.

All the Dallas public school teachers will resume their duties next Monday except Misses Williams and Jacobs and on Wednesday.

Misses Jacobs and Williams, teachers in our public schools, will not return from their homes until next Monday, but will teach on Saturday to make up for it.

Any one desiring to plant fruit trees this fall would do well to examine samples at the office of J. B. Nunn before purchasing elsewhere. Satisfaction guaranteed.

J. T. Ford, canvassing agent for the Independent Enterprise, was among us last Saturday. His father, Marcus Ford, was one of the earliest comers to this country.

The Congregational church at Salem has long been in a state of disunion and now about eighty of them have withdrawn and will probably unite with other churches.

There are some cranks in all departments of life. Of course they want to run things their way. Generally the best way to treat them is as if they were not in existence.

Before the new year's sun comes up hundreds of young people in this country should have resolved to make 1894 more profitable for them than has been the year now ebbing away.

Printer's ink pays when judiciously used. No other paper in this country can give as good service as the ITREZIMEX because no other has so large a circulation all over the country.

The Mills Racket store at Independence is winning golden opinions from its rapidly increasing list of patrons. The constant wonder is how he can sell things so cheap. Go and see how it is your self.

No professional man can afford to be temperate or immoral even from a business point of view. People who know that, and people who pay by all such and seek the services of those with clean habits and clear heads.

Industry and economy are prominent corner stones upon which most fortunes have been built. The former will avail not unless accompanied by the latter. Street cleaning and dog shop patrons may expect to remain poor and of little consequence.

The fact that you have had bad luck or did not get financially ahead this year is no reason why it should be so during the year to come, but you must be energetic and busy if you would hope to make much headway. The world owes no man a living unless he earns it.

At Monmouth last Friday there was a clay pigeon shooting match for turkeys. These seven Dallas marksmen put in an appearance on that occasion, and brought home the first of the season. Mark Ellis, Harry Cooper, Fred Toner, John Clark, Horatio Morrison, John Cooper and W. Craven. Messrs. Craven and Morrison each won a single bird and the others two apiece.

An eminent statistician estimates that during the course of an ordinary life the average man will eat seven tons of food, wear more food than is good for him. We feel sure that nearly all of us continually eat too much. Those who eat only a moderate amount of plain food, not only feel better, but will live longer. Less animal and more vegetable food would be far better.

Lulu Turner, Claud Davis, Ruby Fiske, Anna Mitchell, Ethel Rowell, Dottie Snyder and Gracie Chamberlain, who entered the primary grade of the Dallas public school the first of last October, were absent and sang a single time up to Christmas. If they keep up that habit of promptness it will be valuable to them all through life. Their parents, too, deserve a word of commendation for keeping the children so punctually in school.

A lady living near Monmouth in sending her subscription last week said the ITREZIMEX was the best country paper they had ever had about the house. Our constant aim has been to make it a welcome weekly visitor to the homes of Polk county.

It is fully aware that the newspaper is a constant educator in either a good or bad direction and we have continuously tried to induce our readers to hate evil and admire better things. Illness and extravagance are evils of only a lesser degree than intemperance and gambling.

Awarded Highest Honors World's Fair.

PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder—No Ammonia; No Alum. Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.

Mason, dentist, over the bank, Main street, Dallas.

Woodburn suffered a $50,000 fire Sunday night.

Jeff Fryer had a saloon at McMinville, but has sold it.

Editor Wash and family are spending the holidays in Portland.

Brown and Son have moved the Boyston stock of groceries into their new store room.

Lester Baughman and wife, of Monmouth, were visiting Clerk Mulkey and wife Tuesday.

Governor Penneyer has written an open letter to President Cleveland asking for the restoration of silver.

General J. W. Sprague, a pioneer and prominent man in the northwest for many years, died at Tacoma Sunday.

Felix Noel and J. H. Townsend are at Portland with their wives, who are undergoing medical treatment at a hospital there.

Owing to the sickness of Rev. Fulton, meetings at the Southern Methodist church were suspended until Wednesday evening.

Jas. P. Bushoe, the Masonic grand lecturer recently here, was thrown from a train in eastern Oregon Christmas morning and killed.

J. L. Collins in a lengthy article in the Statesman gives the origin of lynching law, with which his father and grandfather were intimately connected.

With but little care and no trouble the general and mustard can be kept a uniform brown or black color by using Buckingham's dye for the whiskers.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever used that would do me any good." Price 50 cents.

These four have been made supremely happy by the county clerk since our last issue: Nathaniel Burdett, Nancy Ann Connor, and C. F. Byers to Ernesta D. Sloan.

Wanted, to dispose of a special bargain in fruit trees, plants, etc., of all kinds. Write to J. L. Futrell.

Say, boys and girls, did you ever stop to think why geese fly in a triangular shape, first one and then another taking the lead. They thus put the air more easily, like the waves rolled aside by the nose of a steamboat.

Sunday dinners at Hotel Holman—Why go to the trouble and expense of getting a dinner at home when you can get a first class meal at the Hotel Holman for 35 cents or three tickets for $1. Tickets on sale at office of hotel.

Former residents of Harney Valley, to the number of about thirty, assembled at the residence of T. J. Morrison Tuesday evening, for the purpose, I suppose, of contrasting the advantages of Tuesday, February 27th, with their former residence.

Preaching at all the churches every Sunday morning and evening. Methodist and Christian Sunday schools at 9:45. Presbyterian 12:15. M. E. south 3. Prayer meetings Thursday evening. All welcome. Public welcome at all three meetings.

These officers were elected by the Macons last Friday evening for the ensuing year: Worshipful master, Jas. P. Magruder; senior warden, Wilson Webb; junior warden, H. H. McCallum; treasurer, W. R. Craven; secretary, H. G. Campbell; Tyler, D. S. McDonald.

For sale—25 acre lot in Dallas, containing house of six rooms, good well and outbuildings, 200 prune trees just beginning to bear, and apple, pear, plum and cherry trees, blackberries, raspberries, gooseberries, currants and currants. Will give reason for selling. EDWIN CADWELL.

The following business was transacted in probate matters before Judge Burch last Friday: In re J. Dickey estate, the probate of the will of J. Dickey was set aside. In re J. Dickey estate, the probate of the will of J. Dickey was set aside.

On Christmas morning Mrs. John E. Smith's Sunday school class marched to her home and presented her with a silver syrup jug and receiver. Will Miller making the presentation speech. As a surprise it was a success, and as a gift it was doubly acceptable on account of its value and beauty and also as a token of esteem. These are the persons participating: Messrs. Will Miller, Will Cobb, Ralph Williams, Harry Gaynor, Frank and Lute Chapin, Isaac and Herbert Elliott, Herbert and George Smith.

Saturday evening the Christian church Sunday school children had a nice concert programme, which they rendered before a house full of people and each was then given a sack of candy and nuts. Sunday morning the Methodist Sunday school had a short but pleasing special service and we must especially compliment the boys, Floyd Daily, Lee Smith, Ralph Morrison and the Smith brothers, of Penawawa, who took part in it with harp, flute and violin. Sunday evening the Presbyterian church was crowded for the evening added Christmas concert and Monday evening the public were treated to good things by the Epworth league.

Last Thursday evening's entertainment for charity was well attended and much enjoyed. At 10 cents admission, the proceeds were over $20. The dumb bell drill and the closing tableaux were extra fine. The receipts of the evening added Christmas comfort and happiness to a number of needy ones.

The Ashland Record says of a deer hunt with bounds: William Goe, in company with James Leabo, his brother, Noah Leabo, of the Willamette, and Cal and Mark Winingham, had a big deer hunt in the famous Elk creek district last week. With four dogs they killed fifty-one in six days. One day they killed twenty-four deer.

Fred. Lucas is at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

L. G. Porter is to put in a part of the Dickey place on Mill creek.

T. L. Price is grubbing land for a garden and hop patch in North Independence.

Joe Mulligan, mail carrier at Amity, was thrown from his cart and hurt last week.

Mrs. Theo. Jeffries, of Amity, has been visiting Mrs. Glenn Graves at Monmouth.

Miss Birdie Ingraham, of Amity, spent Christmas with Miss Adeline Clark, of Zena.

Jasper Kennedy is helping Eph. Young build a house for hop pickers north of Independence.

Dave James and Jeff Dickey, of Harmony, have been buying up calves to go into the cattle business.

Mayor Mason, of Portland, has given 400 sacks of flour to be distributed among deserving poor families.

G. A. Cruise, of McCoy, has been thinking of starting a book and stationery store at Independence.

Independence now has six barbers, the Landreth brothers being the last claimants for favors in that line.

Mrs. R. C. Percival, of Monmouth, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harvey Guthrie, near Grace church.

John Robinson has gone over to Yacumba to help drive out a bunch of cattle for some parties at Independence.

Jas. Harris and family have moved from their old Luckiamute home to their new residence at Independence.

They tried to connect Glenn O. Holman with the Chinese smuggling cases in Portland, but could not make it stick.

George Beck, a former Dallas baker, who has a claim up in the mountains, some ten miles west was down Christmas day.

The Knights of Labor are now at war among themselves and the indications are that the organization will go to pieces.

Uncle Jim Turner, up near Airle, is in very poor health, and Dr. Conaway, at Whitson, is liable to die at any time.

J. N. Ogden, of Washington, has rented the Wm. Cockle place southeast of Monmouth and proposes to establish a nursery there.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the king of medicines, conquers scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism and all other blood diseases. Hood's is only Hood's.

The merchants who have real inducements to offer and makes a liberal use of printer's ink to let the public know it, uses good business sense.

Thos. Sheldon, out on the Luckiamute, was 74 years old the other week and about forty neighbors and friends came in to help him celebrate the event.

Letters are in the postoffice for the following persons: At the Ann M. Butler, John Davis, D. W. Gregory, Anderson McKinney, W. H. Robb, J. L. Shelton.

Oscar Hayter is studying law with Dally, Sibley & Eakin. Being well educated and of steady and industrious habits, he is apt to make a mark in the profession.

Several eastern Oregon farmers report that they have made it pay to both hogs and chickens—some of them even buying wheat at the present price for that purpose.

Miss Ora Morehead, of Monmouth, has just finished a term of school at Hazel Dell up beyond Teal's mill on C. V. Murphy's school in Cooper Hollow is at an end.

Here are some of the prospective hog raisers south of Dixie: Chas. Coolidge fifteen acres, L. Martin ten acres, J. B. Knowles, M. W. Mix and O'Brien Bros. about thirty acres each.

A foot ball team from Stanford university, California, will contest with a team at Portland next week. The steamboat excursion will leave Independence next Monday morning.

The Independence Masonic lodge has these new officers: W. P. Conna-way, E. L. Ketchum, C. A. Hitchcock, H. H. Hirschberg, H. R. Patterson, W. L. Hedgin, J. W. Kirkland and O. D. Butler.

The new city officials of Monmouth are L. Bentley, mayor; Dr. Poole, recorder; A. C. Powell, treasurer; S. H. Coates, marshal; Ed. Smith, J. W. Coates, marshal; Ed. Smith, J. W. Coates, marshal; Ed. Smith, J. W. Coates, marshal.

Some people will sign almost any petition that comes along whether for or against a thing, and the same people will subscribe for nearly every thing that offers without any thought of pay day.

Out in the hills beyond Airle not long ago Sharp Deven was a deer hunter and as he jumped on a log a wild cat sprang at him. The hunter was not a little excited, but managed to get away with the cat.

T. L. McKelown, who owns a farm out near the Ekins school house, is to have charge of Ladd & Reed's 1,000 acre place at Redville, this side of Portland, while his son will have charge of their Broadmeads place.

How does it sound to hear a son of religious parents making gibberish use of profanity in his ordinary conversation on the street. Such a young man is little credit to his mother and less to himself. Are there any such in Dallas.

They talk of organizing a Koolie league at Independence and it would be a blessing all around if half a dozen or more men who are on the down grade toward drunkards' graves could be induced to become worthy members of it.

Last Thursday evening's entertainment for charity was well attended and much enjoyed. At 10 cents admission, the proceeds were over $20. The dumb bell drill and the closing tableaux were extra fine. The receipts of the evening added Christmas comfort and happiness to a number of needy ones.

The Ashland Record says of a deer hunt with bounds: William Goe, in company with James Leabo, his brother, Noah Leabo, of the Willamette, and Cal and Mark Winingham, had a big deer hunt in the famous Elk creek district last week. With four dogs they killed fifty-one in six days. One day they killed twenty-four deer.

N. Carr and family, of Mill Creek, have been visiting their independence friends during the holidays.

Drs. J. D. and H. O. Fenton, brothers of our merchant, have formed a medical partnership in Portland.

Wm. Dunbar, C. J. Mulkey and P. J. Bannan have been convicted of helping to smuggle Chinese into Portland.

The Masonic order in Portland proposes to erect a new edifice to cost perhaps $300,000 as soon as the times will justify it.

Watch meeting under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor at the Christian church on new year eve and all are invited.

J. T. Campbell, of Dallas, is up the valley exhibiting his panorama of the civil war and was at Albany Wednesday evening.

Bad habits and evil company are a poor recommendation for any person. Many ought to turn over a new leaf and cleaner life for 1894.

Steel head salmon have been caught in the great Salmon river below the falls at Oregon City that they have fallen to 3 cents a pound.

Cornelia, wife of John Burns, died at her home near Lewisville last Friday aged 50 years. She was a sister of the Critchlow brothers.

Ex-county Treasurer Arrington, of Douglas county, has been sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary and to pay a heavy fine for dishonesty in office.

A new bakery's oven is being made at the bakery will be moved to Mr. Stanwood's building on Mill street, formerly occupied as a boot and shoe store.

We again call the reader's attention to the contents of the outside of this paper. Very few country journals in the state have as great a variety of interesting matter.

There will be a Mum social at the Christian church basement this evening. The attraction will consist of, in an art gallery and a good Egyptian band. Do not fail to see it.

The recent high waters left the river bank at Hall's ferry below Independence in an almost impassable condition for travelers. The authorities are repairing it as best they can.

Mrs. J. D. Smith's Sunday school class of young ladies presented to her a handsome and costly Christmas gift. The gift was a silver clasp.

Those who have a distinct recollection of last Christmas can best contrast the weather then and now. At that time there was deep snow every where, but this year it was tawny as spring time.

The new Masonic officers at Sheridan are: W. M., A. J. Wilson; S. W., J. K. Guttry; J. W., H. H. Graves; treasurer, H. C. Rowell; secretary, D. C. Coleman; S. D., J. W. Bones; J. D., Wm. Anderson; S. L., R. W. Jones; J. W., R. L. Booth; Tyler, W. O. Kellogg.

One our eastern Oregon exchanges devotes considerable of its local space each week to telling of the good things that may be obtained at the different saloons in the place. The morality of the editor is certainly at a very low ebb and the same may be true of the community.

The Sheridan Sun says: H. C. Rowell, of the Sheridan, has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Dr. John Field, deceased, as justice of the peace for this district. Mr. Rowell is a fair minded, well posted gentleman and will no doubt acquit himself of his duties impartially and fearlessly.

Last Sunday's Statesman said: J. R. Shepard left yesterday for Denver, Salt Lake City and some of the eastern towns, where he will try to find a market for Oregon prunes. He started with two car loads of prunes east yesterday and if he should be successful in finding a top price for them, he will have more forwarded to him.

John G. Brown is having out on his father's land just north of town 500 cords of wood. Mr. Brown is a very poor man with families being raised, and the preference of employment. In the interest of working men we will for the next three months advertise free of charge for the purpose of ditch grub, cut wood work on the farm or anything else. All those desiring to hire one or more hands should make it known through this paper.

Concerning tariff legislation Speaker Crisp said the other day: The democrats will use every effort to send the tariff bill to the senate by the last of January. That will give us nine days, including Sundays, in which the bill may be debated. The time is sufficient. We have no desire to prevent our republican friends from giving full expression to their opposition to the measure, but the country is demanding a speedy settlement of the matter, and we must comply.

Everybody will agree that everybody else ought to profit by experience. This is the end of the year, a time at which most discreet persons look back to see where they have missed it in one thing or another, and there is not one among us who cannot now see how and where he might have made some improvements on his year's doings. Has all your time been put in to the best advantage? Have you not foolishly spent some time and money? Have you made an increase of general useful knowledge. Have your associations been commendable. In short, can you not for the next year do better than during the past, and will you not do it for the sake of yourself and your loved ones.

Summary of Dallas public school for the three months ending December 22nd: Total number enrolled, 306; total daily attendance, 272; average daily attendance, 255; average percent of attendance, 94; total cases of tardiness, 125; visits from principal, 22; visits from board, 8; visits from parents, 200; visits to patrons by teachers, 90; cases of corporal punishment, none. The above figures speak for themselves, and with the exception of tardiness, show a healthy, live school. The larger part of the tardiness comes from children who live in the town and there is no occasion for such a number. The work of the school is good and parents who want their children to get along in the world should examine the grades of the children. W. L. RAYBOLDS, Prin.

C. P. Wells, of Buena Vista, is still seriously ill.

Frank Woods and Gus. Bassett are in Portland on a real estate deal.

Prof. Mulkey, of Perrydale, has gone to spend the holidays with his parents near Eugene.

A. C. Taylor, of Perrydale, gave a turkey dinner on Christmas to a couple of dozen friends.

T. O. Hutchinson and W. I. Reynolds are attending the state teachers' institute at Portland.

George Myra, of Smithfield, and Mrs. M. L. Ryan, of Perrydale, are Portland visitors this week.

Charley Belt and his Christmas dinner with Salem relatives, and Mrs. Minnie Holman came over here for that occasion.

At the parsonage last Sunday Rev. S. A. Starr united in marriage C. F. Bannan to Miss Ernesta Sloan, of the Monmouth vicinity.

Every good farmer in Polk county has his tools and machinery stored away in some dry place where they will neither rust nor rot.

Deputy Sheriff Farley and Hubbard report a tedious job assessing and collecting taxes, but they are making a thorough clean up of it.

Cornelius Hughes has sold to Teddy Rowe his half breed place for $7.50. Mr. Rowe will aim to multiply and replenish the earth with such birds.

When you want a neat patch put on your boots or shoes, or they need repairs of any kind, go to C. Hughes around at his old stand on Mill street.

The grand army men will meet at the court house a week from next Saturday to install officers and to old soldiers in the county are invited to be present.

Grandma Townsend and Mrs. W. C. Brown are at the bedside of Hon. Ira S. Townsend at his home near Perrydale, who is very low with no hopes of recovery.

Miss Lena Key is home at Perrydale from the Sacred Heart academy at Salem, and Mrs. J. E. Bartel and Florence and Emmett Fuller are with their parents at the metropolis.

Felix Noel donated five barrels of flour to the needy and deserving poor in and about Dallas Christmas day, and Albert Dray sent most of the morning delivering them.

Saturday evening a whole raft of Methodists dropped in at the parsonage for a social chat with brother and sister Starr and left many a package of something to eat or wear.

It is said that Dallas is to have one more hardware shop, to be located in C. C. Smith's store at Independence. This will give us four tonsorial artists, while Independence is trying to support six.

Judge Fullerton has set aside the recent sale of the Oregon Pacific to its eastern bondholders, and Robert Clow has been mentioned as the new receiver, provided the old one is removed.

The Perrydale Patriot is now a five column quarto, with patent inside and boiler plate matter galore. A very neat sheet from a mechanical point of view, but Ryan, and locally it cannot be beaten.

The Dallas merchants made little or no special preparation for holiday goods, but say that quite an amount of goods have been sold. Some people would buy presents of their debts were never paid.

The midwinter fair will open promptly on the first day of 1894, but, as a majority of the exhibits are yet in a semi chaotic condition, the price of admission will be only 25 cents until further notice.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a basket social at the city hall on new year's night. A committee of ladies will be at the hall with provisions to fill all baskets that are brought. Baskets will be classified as young ladies, married ladies and children's. Everybody cordially invited.

The Masonic fraternity installed their newly elected officers Wednesday evening, M. M. Ellis officiating as installing officer. The ladies furnished a splendid supper and the evening closed pleasantly with a song. We give the elective officers elsewhere, and here are the ones appointed. S. D., C. C. Campbell; J. D. Samuel Cook; S. C. J. H. Townsend; J. S. T. V. B. Embrey.

Monday evening a woman was found walking along the road near Dixie who seemed in a somewhat demented condition. She claimed to have been living on the Ankeny farm south of here, and to have walked from there, being in search of a Catholic priest. Judge Burch, not wishing to commit her to the asylum in the absence of friends, sent her to Salem for disposal of the officers of the county from which she came.

There is considerable sickness yet around here.

James Kennedy went to Portland to spend Christmas with his folks.

H. Hayden is having some clearing done. He is going to put out more hogs.

Mr. McCloud and wife have moved to Hazel Dell. They live in the Rowell house.

The supervisor and his assistant, Mr. Lynn, have been doing a little work on the road, at and near Eola.

Our school closed the 15th on account of the scholars being sick. It will commence again new year's day.

Mr. Roberts has built a new house on his place near Eola. Gus. will live there, and is going into the chicken business quite extensively; has three new hen houses.

Eola had lots of company for Christmas. Tommie Strain and family from Monmouth, also the two Hurst boys, from Silverton were at A. Strain's; the Allen family, from Dixie, were at H. Harden's; Mr. Wilson and family, from near Geneva, were visiting his mother, Mrs. Goodpasture; Mr. Marsh's folks had their daughter and husband from Salem; Mrs. Longcor entertained her mother and brother, from Independence; and a social party at Dr. Byers' Christmas night on the Independence road and R. Brunk and family spent the evening with Grandpa Brunk.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

A B Atkins to John J. Kirkland, 107 acres in t. 8, s. 4, w. 5, $5,319.

Victor E. Fink to Wm. Kuhke, 100 acres in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 1,700.

J. C. McFarlane to C. M. Travers, 50 acres in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 800.

Newton Carr to Peter A. Syron, 152 acres in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 6,000.

E. W. Hioshaw to Avery Hioshaw, interest in 97 acres of the Hioshaw tract, 1,500.

Thomas H. Hargrove to F. E. Powell and J. V. Butler, lot in Monmouth, 1,000.

P. A. Syron to Newton Carr, land in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 6,000.

J. M. Perry to B. B. Harrington, 1 acre in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 75.

Robert Ford to Bridget Flynn, 80 acres in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 137.

A. M. Bryant to Myrtle Stewart, lots in Falls City, 90.

Eather Winnell to A. M. Bryant, 138 acres in t. 8, s. 6, w. 5, 5.

Timothy Pearson, Jr. to Timothy Pearson, Sr., 20 acres in t. 8, s. 6,