Temperance Convention.

The county W. C. T. U. convention met at the Christian church in Dallas Tuesday morning and was called to order by Mrs. L. H. Addison. Rev. B. Z. Riggs told how to carry gospel temperance to the masses and Pastors Goodfriend and Harman offered words of encouragement. After the consideration of various matters came the noon adjournment to discuss the beautiful lunch awaiting the assemblage in the basement. Mrs. H. A. Adkins, the county president, arrived at noon and presided thereafter. The program as outlined was substantially carried out. Although the occasion was pleasant and profitable neither the attendance nor the enthusiasm were what they should have been. Wednesday afternoon there were a number of spirited short talks on why women should have the ballot. That evening Rubie Allen, Minnie Clodfelder, Virginia Owen and Mary Stengel, of Monmouth, Della Beckwith, of Independence, Louise Collins and Eugenia Phillips, of Dallas, entered a speaking contest for a silver medal and it was won by the last named, the judges being Rev. C. G. Harman, Mrs. D. J. Whiteaker and Mrs. Addison. Officers were chosen for the next year as follows: President, Mrs. M. A. Adkins; recording secretary, Mrs. M. J. Cosper; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Laura Adkins; treasurer, Mrs. Hattie Hibbard; Superintendents of various departments were chosen as follows: Evangelistic, Mrs. Pogue; parlor meetings, Mrs. Cosper; christian citizenship, Mrs. Butz; literature, Mrs. Powell; contest and refuge home, Mrs. Laura Adkins; narcotics, Mrs. Nellie Hubbard; press, Mrs. Shaffer; Sunday school, Mrs. Best; flower missions, Lillie Powell; systematic giving and Sunday observance, Mrs. Whiteaker. The convention adjourned to meet at Monmouth the first week in September.

Arthur Starr was badly jammed at the sawmill last Friday.

Robert Gagner has bought of C. W. Smith, of Denver, the lot adjoining his home for $35.

Circuit court next Monday and there being only eight cases on the docket the session will be short.

If you wish to buy a home or lots in Dallas or any kind of country property see Edgar L. Collins & Co., who have a great variety from which to select.

At the city hall next Thursday evening the undergraduates of the public school will give an entertainment and the graduating exercises will occur there the next evening.

Two pools of mohair of about 10,000 pounds each have been sold in Corvallis, one at 28 and the other 28 1/2 cents, while the Dallas pool of 40,000 pounds brought 29 cents.

Dr. Arthur Nicklin, who during the Indian war in 1855 and 1856, served in the companies of Captain Ben Hayden, Captain B. F. Burch and Captain Marion Goff, of this county, has just been granted a pension of $25 a month, his home being at Eugene.

The county Sunday school convention will be held in Dallas Friday, June 8th, and the state convention at Portland June 13th to 15th. It is hoped to make the home convention full of interest and some of the most noted Sunday school workers of the land will be at the state meeting.

At the Presbyterian church Rev. Goodfriend will preach in the morning on "The Silent Masonic Builders." In the evening the question who was Melchizedek will be discussed. Sabbath school at 10, Y. P. S. C. E. at 7, and meetings for Bible study every Thursday evening in the vestry of the church.

OUR STAFF OF RUSTLERS.

WHAT THEY HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE DOINGS IN THE COUNTY.

An Unequalled and Complete Resume of What Your Friends are and Have Been Lately Doing.

INDEPENDENCE.

Mrs. John Cox died last Sunday.
 E. C. Pentland has returned from Southern Oregon.
 The Baptists had an all day meeting last Saturday.
 The circle surprised the Woodmen with ice cream and cake one evening recently.
 Our poultryman says he finds lots of chickens in the country and that they are of a better grade than a few years ago.

EOLA.

Archie Brown is sick with the grip. Hops are growing finely, but training is getting behind on account of the rain.

B. I. Ferguson sold four head of young cattle last week to L. L. Patterson for $90.

T. W. Brunk is very sick with some kind of a fever. Dr. Butler, of Independence, is attending him.

Tommie Brunk lost one of his fine ewes last week on account of being too fat—fatty degeneration of the heart.

LUCKIAMUTE.

Mrs. Purdim is working in Albany. Mrs. Terrel is working at Mr. Girards.

A. D. Wheeler was over from Salem last week.

Alonzo Galloway is working for John Burns.

Miss Ethel Brown is working for Frank Laughary.
