The annual Bible conference and campmeeting will be held in Dallas park, beginning June 20th at 8 p. m. A number of tenters will be in attendance and twelve or fifteen ministers will be present during the session and participate. There will be services forenoon, afternoon and evening. The evening exercises will be purely Evangelical. The public are cordially invited to attend any and all of these services. C. C. POLING, Presiding Elder.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50 cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. BABCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by A. K. Wilson.

Some very long timbers have been hauled through from Falls City for the immense stock barn of J. M. Wise at Perrydale. It will be 60 feet wide and 300 feet long.

At the marble works of G. L. Hawkins in Independence you will see many elegant specimens of his cemetery work. Let him figure with you on anything of the kind.

The Chautauque meeting at Gladstone park will begin July 11 and continue to July 21. Quite a number of talented persons have been engaged to take part and the occasion will be one of both interest and profit. Write to Secretary J. W. Gray at Oregon City for particulars.

The Evangelical church will have a bible conference and camp meeting here beginning June 21st and continuing for a week. Many of that faith will then come with a view to locating here if the indications seem favorable to them. O e absolutely necessary is an additional number of dwellings. If a dozen or more neat and convenient cottages of from four to seven rooms were erected they would all find renters in the early fall.

The Salem cannery has been putting up strawberries and cherries and will next week begin on peas.

Prof. N. Tarter, who has taught so long in the southern part of this county, has been employed to take charge of the eighth grade in the Corvallis public school.

The official returns show the political honors were about equally divided in this county. The republicans have a natural majority of at least 150 but there are so many independent voters in the county that an nomination is by no means equivalent to an election. Both parties must put up their very best men to stand any chance.

George Conner and Scott Nyron have new baby girls at their homes.

Prof. A. J. Shipley has been chosen principal and Miss Sedgwick assistant of our school for the coming year.

Uncle Henry Ellis and Grandma Ball are still very low and cannot live long. Squire Focht is quite sick also.

J. C. Gates has gone to Utah where he has engaged in business. He has sent for his family, who will start next week.

The Woodmen here attended the unveiling of Cass Sargeant's monument at Sheridan last Sunday. The Mill creek camp also attended. Senator Mulkey was the orator. A large crowd attended the exercise.

The annual school picnic will be held here June 23rd. Committees have been appointed and are making every effort to furnish plenty of enjoyment for all who come. Senator Mulkey will deliver an address on education.

A Card of Thanks.

I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully Mrs. S. Dorr, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by A. K. Wilson.

DALLAS DROPS OF INK.

Morrison, the liveryman, is doing a staving good business and deserves it because he treats his customers as they should be treated. Go there when you want a good team and nice rig.

No other milliner in the county sticks closer to her business than Mrs. Shaffer, does more artistic work, or charges less prices all of which accounts for her good run of trade.

Gunsmith Riser understands his business thoroughly. Just now he is doing considerable in the way of repairing sun umbrellas and sun parasols, which he makes almost good as new at small cost.

Blacksmithing of all kinds promptly and well done by J. E. Smith.

It is generally understood that Wm. Faull stands at the head of the business as a hardware dealer. Nothing but standard goods kept and as fast as new and desirable things appear in the market he buys them. Buggies, wagons, farming implements, building material, hop house fixtures, kitchen supplies and lubricating oils are among the things he carries.

Some of the nicest home and sign painting you see around Dallas was done by Robert Lane whose shop is back of Wagner Bros. Leave orders at Wilson's drug store.

The Salem stage has a fine trade these days bringing over all sorts of things.

Forgetnot that Gaynor's store is the best place to get all manner of foot wear. Some elegant things for Sunday wear, and what every body needs for summer.

Lynch, the iron artist, stands ready to make whatever you may want in his line.

All the delicacies of the season may be had at Williams confectionery store. When you want nice things for picnics or parties see him.

As soon as desirable new things appear in the dry goods or grocery line they may be found at Brown's store. If you like nice things to either eat or wear ask to see their new goods. Doing a spot cash business they can afford to sell at bottom figures. And they can handle much of your produce.

Would Not Suffer So Again For Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. WILSON, livertyman, Burgestown, Washington county, Pa. This remedy is for sale by A. K. Wilson.

SALEM TRADELETS.

Brown, the liveryman, back of the old postoffice has been doing an extra good business because he furnishes the public extra good accommodations.

Those who have bought tea, coffee and extracts here, there and everywhere agree that the best place of all to get such things is the Yokohama Tea store where they want your eggs.

The ice cream and cooling drinks you get of Ellis & Zinn have no superior. They have pure candy, fresh every day, and all fruits and delicacies in their season. Picnic and party supplies.

A Life and Death Fight.

W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery which wholly cured me. Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at M. D. Ellis drug store.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The city solons met in adjourned meeting last Monday night with no absentees.
