NOWHERE in Oregon is much interest being taken in the coming election.

The apple crop in the east is proving a comparative failure and in the middle west the bulk of the crop is rapidly rotting.

WHILE this year's Oregon prune crop has been a paying one our state will not get full credit for it as a big per cent of it has been bought by parties interested in California fruit.

ALL the doubtful political states have been thoroughly worked by prominent speakers of both parties.

ALL the eastern railroads having Pacific coast connections have made very cheap rates for settlers coming west and also cheap round trip rates for those desiring to come out on a trip of inspection.

Prosecuting Attorney Hart has been attending Judge Burnett's court in Albany this week.

Scrofula

COURT HOUSE ON THE SQUARE.

The pride of Polk county This day will surely show The masonry, solid building Sets all hearts aglow.

Not a man this day will grieve The dollar he is out The bigger taxes he does pay.

No longer strangers taunt and jeer, Cautioning, scolding, The old, old building lived and died Behind a new one born.

The county court has done its part To them all honor due Three better men you could not find Honest fair and true.

Another word and then we're done Who carried out the plan Every timber, stick and stone.

Fill the golden fall of wine Or water if you please Whichever kind that suits you best.
