From all sections of the northwest come statements that all who have tried diversified farming are pleased with the results. More ready money is everywhere in evidence and homes and farms are being fixed up as never before. There is a constant tendency toward dividing large farms and giving greater attention to smaller acreage. Hereafter a greater proportion of the products of the soil will be turned into stock feed with better profits. Smaller areas of ground will be made to produce far more and a multitude of grumblers will be caused to conclude that farming does pay.

The presidential election will occur next Tuesday. If not in favor of the present administration there is only one reasonable thing for you to do—vote for the four democratic electors. There are three other tickets in the field, but neither of them will get more than a handful of votes. If you like the leadership and control of the republican bosses who are the pilot tools of trusts and corporations, the well known facts in the case speaking louder than all denials, go for McKinley; but if you are more anxious to see the rights and the interests of the great mass of common people protected and encouraged, cast your vote for Mr. Bryan.

EOLA.
Mr. Morgan has gone to Eastern Oregon.
Billy Hunter is painting inside and papering his dwelling.
Alfred Brown is putting a new fence around his place.
Sunday school at 10:30. Mr. Resenbaum is the superintendent.
Wes. Hodson's only child, Althea, died suddenly last week near Golden- dale with throat trouble and was buried in Salem Sunday.
Reason Brink's baby girl got the cough medicine bottle off the mantel and drank what was in it and as a consequence is very sick. The doctor has been called twice.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will serve dinner on election day in the Wilson block.
Samuel Orr, at Rickreall, sold the hogs from his three acre yard at 12 1/2 cents and those from his 27 acre yard at 15 cents a pound.

Nothing Tastes Good

And eating is simply perfunctory—done because it must be.
This is the common complaint of the dyspeptic.
If eating sparingly, leaving much of the light meal provided, would cure dyspepsia, few would suffer from it long.
The only way to cure dyspepsia, which is difficult digestion, is by giving vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system. It is therefore cured positively and absolutely by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
The testimonial of Frank Fay, 106 N. Street, South Boston, Mass., voluntarily given like thousands of others, should lead to a trial of this peculiar medicine. "My niece," he writes, "was a great sufferer from dyspepsia for six years. She tried many medicines in vain. She had no appetite and was troubled with sour stomach and headaches. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla she was well."

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise. Accept no substitute for it.

BUTLER.
Hog killing seems to be the order of the day.
A dance last Friday evening drew a good big crowd.
Lee Rowell and family have moved up to their farm.
Fred Auer is working for Mr. Guthrie near Sheridan.
Jas. Shepherd Jr. has gone to work in a saw mill at Dallas.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellis visited with relatives in Dallas last week.
Will Gair, from near Salem, who has been visiting his uncle, Jas. Shepherd, has now gone to work for Buford Stone.

Mrs. Ellis and grand daughter, of Salem, who have been visiting at the homes of Ellis Bros., have now gone to visit relatives at Dallas.
SCHOOL OPENING.
The opening exercises of the Dallas public school will occur at 9 o'clock on Monday morning. The school will assemble in their rooms at 9 o'clock and the following program will be given in the assembly room, commencing at 9:30:
Song—America.
Invocation—Rev. F. L. Young.
Address—Wm. Grant, chairman of board.
Music—M. E. church choir.
Address—President Poling, of Dallas college.
Vocal solo—F. H. Morrison.
Address—County Superintendent Start.
Music—Trio, Ladies.
Announcements by principal and grades return to their rooms, visitors being privileged to look over the building. After enrollment and assignment of lessons the school will be dismissed until 1:30. Pupils should bring nothing but pencil and paper in the morning and the teachers will instruct them what looks to get. The public are invited to be present at the opening. W. L. REYNOLDS, Principal.

A Clackamas county farmer keeps 25 cows and sells all the butter he can make at 50 cents a roll. The skimmed milk has been fed to fifty pigs that at six months of age averaged 150 pounds and sold at $9 each. There you have an example of diversified and intensified farming.

SALEM TRADELETS.
Dine at Hellenbrand's restaurant and you will be glad of it.
Have your pictures taken at the Cronise studio and you will never regret it.
Let Brown, west of the Willamette hotel, furnish you a lively team and you will be pleased because his service is superior and his prices always moderate.
The steam laundry gets a large patronage from outside points, including many Polk county families, first class work and low prices being the reason.
Nearly everybody from across the river patronizes the steel bridge feed yard on account of its convenience and the good service rendered. Comfortable waiting rooms where packages may be left.

There seems to be a general understanding among the farmers for many miles around that the New York Hackett store is a money saving place. They keep almost everything to sell, and sell on a small margin of profit. They will have things for Christmas.

Clothes do not make the man, but tasty and neat fitting garments greatly add to one's appearance and may cause him to stand higher in the estimation of the public. Johnson & Co. are very apt to have just what you need and the cost will be within your reach. They have a variety of patterns in overcoats from which you could make a pleasing selection.

If you need anything in the tableware line, go to the Yokohama Tea company. They have a dozen decorated and half as many plain patterns of English semi-porcelain to be sold in either sets or single pieces. Everything in the line of glassware.

Photographer Lewis, at the Rex studio on Court street, can please you with pictures. Have a dozen taken to send to your friends before Christmas.

The farmers were not quite ready for the late heavy rains and all farming operations are at a standstill.
The war between the grocery store continues; one firm sells a long list of goods at from 10 to 30 per cent cheaper than formerly.
W. O. Cook and family are now located south of Port Orford, Or., on a stock ranch, Mr. Cook having Mrs. Smith's sheep on the shares.

The Sunday school will treat the church to some new window lights.
Highland grange will have a call session at Calvary at 1:30 next Saturday.
Several of our farmers are shipping their own produce to Portland, thus saving the middle man expense.
Evan Evans has sold Jimmie Davidson a cow for $40. The latter is furnishing the Independence creamery.

T. A. Ireland has four teams putting his land into mosquito grass, which he thinks more profitable than brain raising.

Mr. Powell is moving to Albany.
The Altona came up here one night last week and got a load of hops.
The Gray Eagle went down Monday afternoon towing the first raft of the season.
Mr. Ingram, who has lived on Jake Brown's place for some time, is moving to near Independence.
The sale of the G. A. Wells estate on last Saturday was well attended, the proceeds amounting to $500.
John Kays has bought a team to log with, buying one horse of E. N. Hall and the other of Henry Seaton.
Miss Myrtle Wells, who has been visiting her parents in Eastern Oregon for the past month, is expected home this week.

R. F. Hall and wife, of Croston, visited relatives last week. Mr. Hall has sold the ferry at A. D. Pettyjohn, but has not decided where he will locate. He has lived at Croston for 17 years.
M. N. and J. M. Prather are building a barn at the mouth of the Luckiamute. Part of the logs they will raft this winter are for the Salem Mill company and part for Spaulding Bros., at Oregon City.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
This assembly convened at about 9:30 in the morning of October 25th, with about 80 teachers in attendance. Superintendent Starr had made such complete arrangements and the programme was so well planned that from the first everything moved like clockwork. Tracy Staats was selected as secretary and W. J. Hecker as assistant. Each teacher as she came in was given a registration card upon which she wrote the date, her name, address, number of district where teaching, when term begins and when term closes. These cards were handed to the secretary and he made a list of the teachers present therefrom. As the teachers came in to attend each session, they scanned from the secretary's desk an attendance card upon which they wrote their names and registration numbers. In this way the secretary was enabled to record the exact attendance of each teacher. At the close of the institute the secretary gave to each teacher a certificate of attendance upon which was written the date of registration, the registration number, and the number of sessions the teacher had attended. Although new to the teachers of this county, the system worked like a charm. Prof. C. W. Kantner, of the Dallas college, had charge of the music during the entire institute and gave some valuable hints about how to teach music at the beginning of each session. R. F. Robinson, superintendent of Multnomah county, had charge of the discussions on the subjects of reading, history and geography. In his three talks on reading he discussed the theory, word-phonetic method, poetry, its elements of interest. He gave two talks on history in which he discussed the civil war and its cause; the national plans. His two topics on geography were oral work and development of commerce. The discussions of Superintendent Robinson were very interesting and the teachers took many notes that will be of much benefit to them when they return to their school rooms. Prof. David Torbet, of Albany college, was the instructor in arithmetic, grammar and school management. His three topics on arithmetic were measurements, proportion and properties of numbers. In grammar, the noun and its cases; the verb and its forms; infinitives and participles. In school management, attention, how to gain and hold it; discipline, its causes and how to prevent it; the rotation, preparation by teacher. The teachers took much interest in his talks and illustrations and will go back to their work better prepared for having heard his instructions. Thursday afternoon W. L. Reynolds, principal of the Dallas public school delivered in his pleasing manner an address on a nature's way of governing a school. In the evening a large audience assembled at the Methodist church to hear Prof. Torbet's lecture: The Heavens Declare the Glory of God. He held their attention for two hours, which shows for itself that the lecture was interesting. Friday afternoon State Superintendent Ackerman delivered in his able manner an address on graduation of elementary schools. He also explained the new system which he has made for the schools of the state. In the evening the Methodist church was again filled to overflowing to hear a lecture by Rev. Kantner, which proved to be a very interesting one on A Knight of the Twentieth Century. Both lectures were presided by excellent music furnished by local talent. The closing exercise of the institute Saturday afternoon was an address by Senator B. F. Mulkey, with the seal of the teachers he called the attention of the teachers to the progress that has been made in the schools of Polk county since R. F. Robinson was elected school superintendent, more than a dozen years ago. The names of the 100 teachers enrolled are as follows:
Dallas—Lillie Baxter, W. I. Reynolds, Ruth Conkey, H. D. McDonald, Maud Baxter, Nellie Muscott, M. M.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

SALEM'S GREATEST STORE.
MAKING ELABORATE PREPARATION
To move into handsome new quarters one block east of our present store. The old opera house building is being remodeled especially for us. We will use three floors and will have an electric elevator running all the time for the comfort of our customers.

DO NOT COME TO SALEM
Without seeing this most modern equipped store with a solid wall of show windows on all sides. WILL MOVE JANUARY 1ST.
